Phyllis J. Wetzsteon

On April 27, 2020, Phyllis J. Wetzsteon, devoted wife of the late Herald (Hal) Wetzsteon and mother of four children, took her last breath on earth and her first one in heaven. She was born to Ernie and Ellen Simmons on November 30, 1943, in Hamilton, Montana. She was raised in the home her grandfather built and attended school in Darby, Montana. She has one sister, Dorothy who is a year older and, according to Phyllis, never let her forget it. She was taught at an early age how to cook, clean, respect and help others.

In 1960, she was cooking for a hay crew on Edgar Wetzsteon's ranch in Sula, Montana when his son Herald asked her on a date. They fell in love and were married in January of 1961. That summer she cooked for the fire crews fighting the Sleeping Child Fire. In 1962, daughter Cheryl was born. They moved from Sula to Hamilton where Hal took fire training and daughter Angie was born. A permanent Forest Service job brought them to Wisdom in 1965. Son Herald (Gordon) was born and two years later daughter Christy. Living in a 10x55 trailer house with four kids under the age of six kept Phyllis busy.

Phyllis and Hal were inseparable for 47 years, from their early days on the ranch she loved in Sula, to the life they shared raising their family in Wisdom. She loved to fly fish and spent evenings and weekends with Hal and the kids on the creeks and river in the Big Hole. She would still cook for a crowd but preferred to be outside digging in the dirt, tending to her yard and her beloved sweet peas she could grow anywhere. Her love for classic country music started at eight years old when her father, who was a musician, taught her three chords on the guitar. Music filled her home and she loved to play and sing. Phyllis and Hal were fantastic dancers and often would follow a party outside to dance in the street. She was an accomplished seamstress and spent hours on the cherished sewing machine that Hal gave her. She was an active community member, serving in all clubs and as an EMT. Her door was open to everyone, friends for coffee and rousing games of pinochle, neighbors needing something mended, strangers seeking medical care or any kid who just needed somewhere to go. She felt lucky and blessed to be part of such a special place and time in Wisdom.

Hal's job took them to Dillon in 1987. Their new home was surrounded by dirt and weeds and after years of hard work, Phyllis once again had a beautiful lawn and flower beds. She was well known at the county fair for her prize-winning flowers.

Phyllis accepted Jesus into her heart at a young age. She was actively involved in the Dillon Vineyard Church including the prayer chain and a sewing ministry. She was a devoted caregiver, caring for her husband, parents and father-in-law in their final days. Her hope was to make more friends than enemies and felt humbly blessed by all who came into her life. She said her greatest compliment was that she was simple. She loved God, her family and community and met life head on with prayer, strength and perseverance.

Phyllis was proceeded in death by her husband Hal, her parents Ernie and Ellen Simmons, and her in-laws Edgar and Helen Wetzsteon.

She is survived by her daughter and life-long special companion, Cheryl Wetzsteon, daughter Angie (Ed) Coon of Dillon, son Gordon (Joetta) Wetzsteon of Twin Bridges, daughter Christy (Dow) Keyes of Wisdom, eight grandchildren: Rebecca (Paige) Shanks, Kelsee (Levi) Robertson, Kia Coon, Malcolm (Dana) Keyes, KC Keyes (Bryce Lane), Keith Wetzsteon, Danielle Wetzsteon, Nicky Wetzsteon, four great grandsons: Porter, Pryor, Jonithan, Griffin, her sister Dorothy (Roy) Mouritsen of Salmon Arm, British Columbia and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be announced at a later date. Phyllis asked that if it is on your heart to donate please give to someone you know in need.

Montana Western to Hold 123rd Annual Commencement

The University of Montana Western will celebrate its 123rd Annual Commencement Ceremony virtually this spring on Saturday, May 9, 2020. The ceremony will be available starting at 9 a.m. on the Montana Western website at this link: <https://tinyurl.com/UMW2020>. The entire community is invited to join in the celebration!

Montana Western also invites you, wherever you are, to make some noise at 11 a.m. on May 9 by "Barking for Bulldogs." You can participate by stepping outside and clapping, cheering or making noise any way you would like to support the graduates.

372 Montana Western graduates will be awarded at least 465 degrees by the end of the 2019-20 academic year. Of the 372 students, 69 have completed two or more degrees, and over 64% of the graduates are receiving honors by achieving a GPA of 3.33 or higher.

The Virtual Ceremony website will feature special video messages for the graduates from Montana Western Chancellor Beth Weatherby, Board of Regents member Robert A. Nystuen, ASUMW President Ethan Powell and Commencement keynote speaker, Kelly Cresswell. Each graduate will also have an individual diploma presented digitally as their names are read aloud. These digital diplomas will include the graduate's name, degree, and major as well as a photo of the graduate if they chose to submit one. The website will also feature students who have earned special recognition, including the Rush Jordan and Zella K. Flores awards. UMW will share these items on the Montana Western Facebook page (facebook.com/universityofmontanawestern/) to allow for families and friends to wish their graduate well and congratulate them on completing their degree.

Commencement Speaker Kelly Cresswell is a University of Montana Western alumna, graduating in the Class of 1997. As Executive Director of Reach Higher Montana in Helena, Cresswell is responsible for directing Reach Higher Montana's philanthropic giving, programs, fundraising and community outreach activities. Cresswell joined the team at the Student Assistance Foundation in 2004 and was promoted to the position of Vice President of Foundation Activities in 2005. The organization restructured in 2016, resulting in the formation of Reach Higher Montana as "We are so proud of all of the accomplishments by our inspiring graduates. While this year's spring commencement is held virtually, we are honored, more than ever, to come together and recognize the challenges and achievements that have faced the Class of 2019-2020. While the COVID-19 pandemic has changed the way we are celebrating, we couldn't be happier for our graduates," said Chancellor Beth Weatherby.

The University of Montana Western also plans to host a fall commencement ceremony to recognize the achievements of the Class of 2019-2020. Details regarding the fall ceremony will be provided over the summer as the University weighs recommendations regarding COVID-19 and the ability to assemble together in future months.

For more information about Commencement, please email reg_office@umwestern.edu or call 406-683-7371.

Bulldog Football Inks Trio of Local Athletes

University of Montana Western Head Football Coach Ryan Nourse announced the signing of three local student-athletes for the 2020 season.

The Bulldog football program picked up three standouts from Beaverhead County High School as part of their 2020 recruiting class: Peter Gibson, Preston Hales and Kyle Kidrick.

"It is always rewarding to get good players from BCHS to want to stay in Dillon and be Dawgs," Nourse said. "It really shows a lot of loyalty to the community and to Bulldog Football, as Dillon and the Bulldog football program try to do so much for the kids growing up here in this awesome community. It's really humbling to myself and our staff when they want to stay home and become part of the Dawg family."

Peter Gibson

Peter keeps the football tradition alive in the Gibson family. Both his dad Travis and Uncle Trent played on the gridiron for the Bulldogs. Peter is a running back and linebacker from Beaverhead County High School. He
