Preston Duvall

2/28/1953 – 5/3/2020

On May 03, 2020 Preston was surrounded by his two loving daughters Rachel and Hannah, when his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ decided to call him home. He was 67 years old.

Preston was born in San Diego, California on February 28, 1953 to Dale and Cellus Buckingham (Carter). Preston was born as Dwight Calvert Buckingham, however, to honor his Father and Mother, when Preston was older, he changed his name from Dwight Calvert Buckingham to Preston Carter Duvall. 'Duvall' was his Father's birth surname, 'Carter' was his Mother's maiden name and 'Preston' was his Mother's brother's name who died in her arms as a baby. Preston's parents were dedicated Christians and passed much of their knowledge and faith on to Preston and his siblings.

Preston served in the Army, was a Christian Counselor and had one of the biggest hearts ever known. This was evident in many ways, including Preston changing his whole life in the summer of 2010 to make his Father's dream come true by moving to Dillon Montana with his parents, so his Father could return to his roots where he longed to be and not be alone and have family with him.

Preston had three children, Rachel Joy, Joshua Dale and Hannah Faith. Even though Preston couldn't be with his children as much as he wanted to be. He loved them so much and prayed for their safety daily.

Preston loved to write in his free time and wrote many amazing poems.

Preston loved Montana and stayed in Dillon or Butte Montana the rest of his life.

Preston was an amazing man, and very humble. His love for people, his kindness and his devotion to God stood out clearly in the minds and hearts of those who knew him.

Preston is survived by his 3 adult children; Rachel, Joshua and Hannah, their spouses. 4 grandchildren, Michael, Hope, Faith, and Seven and his 4 siblings Bibiana Leilani, Garland Carter, Rhonda Dale and Candette Prim and 6 nieces/nephews, Michael Anthony Jr, Cherise Lee Ann, Gregory Steven, Michael Paul Jr, Leland Ray II, and Candette Prim II.

Preston would not be happy if we did not include what was most important to him. As we mentioned above, Preston had a big heart and loved people, but most of all was his love for Jesus Christ. In his last weeks Preston had many conversations about God, and how he made sure he was right with God and ready to meet him face to face.

To a wonderful man, we love you and already miss you. We will join you some day.

A memorial service will be held after the pandemic is over. Announcement to come.

The following poems Preston wrote for and about his parents...

The Cowboy and the Mountain Gal

Now settle back and listen
To this story I'm gonna tell,

Of how a young cowboy fell
In love with a little mountain gal.

It was many years ago on
A cold Montana day.

That into the world another
Little cowboy found his way.

Two years later in West
Virginia on a cold and wintry morn.

In a small house up on a ridge
a little mountain girl was born.

Now mountain folk and cowboys
In case you didn't know,

Are just about the finest, as far
As people go.

Now the mountain girl and
The cowboy grew up worlds apart.

But God had a plan laid out
On how it all would start.

Now the cowboy bid farewell
To Montana and his horse.

To San Diego and the Navy
He did set his course.

Now ships and seas and Foreign lands were what was
On his mind,
And these things were sure to happen, but something else he'd also find.

That this little mountain gal
Had moved to California too.

And one day she would Capture his heart and make
Him say I do.

So one day down in Yuma
They became man and wife.

With stars in their eyes
a dream in their hearts
They started their new life.

Trials and hardships were Sure to come, and of these
They had a few.
But God made sure that peace,
And love and happiness was
There too.

I'm sure if you were to ask
Them how the time went by.
They would look at you in wonder and
Say it seemed to fly.

Now fifty years have come and gone since.
Their wedding day

I've watched as God's
Loving hand has kept them

Along the way.

Now 40 some years ago I came Into this world.

The product of a cowboy and
A little mountain girl.

I think I'm very qualified
To tell you what I know.

So let me say just this
One thing before I have to go.

I wouldn't trade my mom
And dad for anything in this world.
Because I love the Cowboy and his little mountain girl.

- written by Preston Duvall for his parents 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Cellus (Candi) and Dale were married for over 62 years before she went to Heaven.

Stormy Weather

Another year has come
And gone and you both
Are still together.
And somehow by the Grace of God through
Good times and stormy weather,

You decided that you
Wouldn't quit, like so many others had.

That you would stay and
Give your kids a
Mother and a dad.

You buckled down and
Went to work,
And about a year
Into the marriage,
You produced a little

Bundle of joy,
That filled your baby carriage.

Now that boy that was born so long
Ago, it's been so many years,
Has seen the rough times,
And the good, heard
The laughter and seen
The tears.

The times that
Things seemed impossible
And I watched you pull together.

You'd chart a course,
Embrace your brood and bring
Us safe through stormy weather.

Now, I didn't call
This poem, Stormy Weather because I
Thought your marriage was a mess.

Stormy Weather is part of every life,
But many fail the test.

But not you mom and dad,
You passed the test and I just
Simply want to say,
Thanks for hanging in there
And not letting life's storms
Blow us all away.

- written by Preston Duvall about his parent's marriage

Montana Western Hosts Digital Viewing of Student Art Exhibition

The Montana Western Fine Arts Gallery invites everyone to a digital viewing of our Spring Student Art Exhibition, showcasing the talents and creativity of all of our students.

According to Gallery Coordinator Aja Muinga Sherrard, "The University of Montana Western Fine Arts Gallery allows us to bring inspiring contemporary artists from around the country to Dillon as well as to showcase the wonderful art in our own community.

While we were disappointed that doing our part to slow the spread of the coronavirus necessitated closing our physical doors, it is our pleasure to announce that this allowed us to celebrate what our students have achieved this year by opening a virtual one. Glass Goblets

In this first Virtual Juried Student Exhibition, the UMW Fine Arts Gallery is thrilled to partner with guest juror Reilly Shwab to present you with these examples of talent, creativity, experimentation, and resilience in the artwork of our very own UMW students."

Visit <https://w.umwestern.edu/> to view over 25 pieces of work in the 2019-2020 Montana Western Student Art Exhibition.

For more information, please contact Aja Muinga Sherrard, Assistant Professor of Art and Fine Arts Gallery Coordinator by email: aja.sherrard@umwestern.edu

Southwest Montana Veteran's Home Update #48

By Mike Lawson

Greeting once again to you, the Veterans/Communities/Counties of SW MT., who are the chief organizers and supporters of the "SW MT Veteran's Home".

The old saying "There's light at the end of the tunnel", could very well be said of our Veteran's Home, now. Serious work has started on Cottage #5 which is in fact, the last Cottage to be built. Our weather has been kind to us this past week and has lifted our spirits in seeing this Vet Site move forward. It's also encouraging in seeing the restrictions, imposed by this Coronavirus Pandemic, starting to be lifted. I will add, please be careful and take precautions. I again had great briefings by Site Construction Superintendent Mike Ascherman and Carpenter General Foreman John Kotka, which is always the case. They really make things come alive and take great pride in all the things happening on this job. They know that in the finished product, the Veterans are going to benefit from the great quality work being done here. Mark Gollinger and I did a walk-through on Friday and were impressed at the progress, especially on Cottages #4 & #5.

Construction Updates:

Interior; Things are more on the quiet side here, with the Sheetrock "mud guys" ready to put the final, 5th coat of mud on the walls. It's my understanding that "Collins Painting" has a machine to do this. The walls already look good, so I can imagine the final outcome being even better. Plan A was for the "Suspended Ceiling Metal Framework" to be put in this week, but due to it not arriving on site, that didn't happen. Mike said that the local building material supply company, "Builder's First Choice", picked up this material on Friday and will get it on site on Monday. So Plan A for this week is to get that installed and get the ceiling put in. Once that's in, the SheetMetal guys can get their ceiling vent components in and the Electricians can get the ceiling light fixtures in. A lot of other finish follow-up work will then happen, that will be mentioned in updates to come. There was one Sheetmetal guy, (Heating System Duct-Work), and one Plummer working, (Boiler System), in the interior of this building this week.

Exterior; The exterior is all about siding, which is progressing. This week should see most of it up (Hopefully!). It is very appealing to the eye, so try and drive by and look things over.

Cottage #1: Interior; The Sheet-Rock Hangers finished up and have moved to #2. The tape and mud guys have moved in and have an amazing amount of work ahead of them. More guys have been hired, which should help.

Exterior; Ready for siding.

Cottage #2: Interior; The electricians are done with their rough-in electrical, for now. The sheet metal guys continue their heating system Duct-work and all that's involved with that. The inside of the exterior walls are insulated and heavy 10 mil plastic air barrier put over that. The bottom of the roof trusses have heavy, 10 mil plastic air barrier stapled on them, with cardboard baffles installed where the roof trusses meet the top of buildings walls, under this plastic.. This baffle installation prevents the blown insulation from escaping, when being blown in. Once the insulation is blown in the sheet-rock hangers will sheet rock the bottom of the trusses. The Bay Windows (Bump Outs), will get the Core Bonding Foam Insulation, applied this week also. The one side of the interior walls are getting sheet-rocked and will be followed by the sound barrier insulation being installed. Once this is done the sheet-rock will go over that and be ready for the tape and mud guys to tape/mud the seams/nail-heads/etc..

Exterior; The "3M Vapor Barrier Peel and Stick" continues to be applied on the outside of the exterior walls. This is being followed by the installation of the Hollow Door Frames (stuffed with insulation) and the exterior windows. This complete process is expected to be done this week. The roof soffit framing, located between the bottom edges of the roof and the top of the exterior walls, was also completed.

Cottage #3: Interior; The electricians and sheetmetal guys are doing their rough-in work, which is extensive.

Exterior: It's a possibility that the 3M Vapor Barrier work and window installation will get started here this week. This will depend on other factors such as the crew finishing up on Cottage #2.

Cottage #4 : Interior; Lots of progress here, with mainly blocking and backing being framed in the interior walls and some wall framing.

Exterior; This was the eye catching show, we could see happening from the "Viewing Hooch" to some extent, but mainly, when watching, while parked on the side of Continental Drive. The rest of the roof trusses were rolled up into place and the complete roof was sheeted with the fire resistant plywood sheeting. The gantry entrance roof portion, will be framed and sheeted this week. Lots of framing left but this was an impressive move forward, to say the least.

Cottage #5: This is the last Cottage, so seeing work take place here, is that "Light at the end of the Tunnel", I was talking about earlier. All the resident-wing walls are framed and laying on the deck/floor. GF John Kotka said that they'll be stood up this week. Remember this is the last Cottage and we won't see this happen again, unless by some miracle, Cottage #6 comes on board. Site Superintendent Mike Ascherman has the trusses coming within the next week or two. Seeing this last building with a roof on it, is going to raise the Southwest Montana Six County excitement level, too new heights. It's been ten long years and the glimmer of the finished end is in sight.

Zemlijak Excavating continues to put in the storm drain system. He has lots of dirt work left to do, which will be reported on in the weeks ahead.

The state level communications are pretty quiet, with Shaunda and Mark working on getting the different things that will go into these Cottages, identified and bids submitted for them to be purchased. Things like furniture, beds, sheets/pillows, eating utensils, etc., are just a small portion of the efforts involved with this process. When our Veteran Home opens, all those things have to be in place. This is, without a doubt, going to be a "Top Of The Mark" Veteran's Home and one we can not only take pride in, but one for our veteran residents, too love to call home.

In bringing this to a close, please be safe and follow the rules that will help lessen the effects of this coronavirus until they find a good way to treat it. Take care.
