Dillon Becoming Opening Up

By: MJ

Each and every one of us have our own window and window frames. A window with maybe 4-6-9 panes or more. Each one of those panes has an insert that represents: (1) our childhood, (2) our education, (3) society, (4) family, (5) religion... Each of our window frames are different and we view life through our own individual frames.

Let's go back to the picture frames where the opinions of people are spouting hate via the social media for the decisions the leaders have made to keep coronavirus from spreading. Yes, mistakes have been made during the learning curve, however let us remember we are not walking in someone else's shoes, we are not sitting at the table, we are not privy to actual information that is making the final decisions. Hatred imparts FEAR. Let's work together and help one another with respect by wearing masks and distancing. Question: Could it be possible that our window frames are foggy, and clouding our thought process causing us anger? Let's take a good look at our own window frames before we look through and judge someone else's.

The governor of MT outlined detail suggestions for reopening business. The governor has been in contact with the President Trump and professionals, has knowledge and factual data at hand to make decisions for the state. Note: Dillon's Public Board of Health Board went beyond Governor Bullocks guidelines by imposing stricter ones. Did the Dillon Board of Health have the same facts when they voted to override the governor directives? Did they review economic and actual coronavirus facts for Beaverhead County? Is it fear and not scientific, economic or other factual information that was used to make their decision? The virus information appears to be flexible making decisions difficult. For this reason, decisions must consider all aspects and believe and trust people to make good decisions.

Some individuals on boards are in positions where they can impose suffering through anxiety on others in the form of lost income, lost businesses, lost homes, cars jobs... It is disturbing that many of those people often work for some form of government however are unelected. Their paychecks continue to put food on the table, pay the electric bills, have health insurance and their family group stays intact.

Dillon is a small individual town and not like Bozeman. Dillon has its own uniqueness. Question: Would it be advantageous to trust people and let them manage their own businesses by making the changes they need to make protecting themselves, employees and public? After all they are the ones paying the bills, paying employees and depending on the public for business.

Commissioner Rice and Mayor Klakken are the only elected members of the Dillon Health Board.

When the imposed rules become suffocating, people will rebel and everyone loses.

Beaverhead-Deerlodge phases openings of developed recreation sites

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest staff will begin a phased reopening of developed recreation sites May 15.

Not all recreation areas and campgrounds are immediately open and available for use. Some sites remain closed due to normal seasonal restrictions, and others remain inaccessible due to weather conditions.

"We know how excited everyone is to get outside as the weather warms up, particularly with the holiday weekend coming up. Our top priority, though, is the health and safety of our public and our staff," said Forest Supervisor Cheri Ford.

Sites will reopen as follows: Dillon Ranger District

- Opening May 15 - Dinner Station Campground
- Opening May 22 - Birch Creek Cabin
- Bloody Dick Cabin - Horse Prairie Guard Station
- Opening May 29 - Grasshopper Campground
- Opening June 1 - Crystal Park

Visitors should expect some closures and modified operations to continue on a case-by-case basis. As districts continue to open developed recreation sites for use, operating statuses will be updated continuously online at <http://ow.ly/aV4v50zAZV9>.

Rental cabins will not be cleaned in between uses. As in previous years, it is up to individual renters to bring their own cleaning supplies and to clean before and after use of the site.

Trails and trailheads remain open. Visitors are asked to avoid congregating at trailheads and parking areas and to refrain from gathering in groups of 10 or more. Please remember to review current recommendations from the CDC and state guidelines for social distancing and cloth face coverings.

For information about site-specific openings please contact

- Dillon Ranger District - 406-683-3900
- Wisdom Ranger District - 406-689-3243
- Butte Ranger District - 406-494-2147

Primary Election Ballots Mailed Friday

Deputy Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen announced today that ballots for the June 2nd Primary Election will be mailed out today from the county election offices. "This will be an all-mail ballot election; regular polling places will not be open. Voters can, however, still register and vote at the county elections offices up to and on Election Day. Everything Montana voters need to know is available on our Secretary of State website at sosmt.gov." Jacobsen also stated, "Check out the My Voter page of our website to make sure your information is correct. If you need to update your information, contact your local election office."
