4th of July Independence Day Parade

The Beaverhead White Hat Coalition 4th of July Independence Day Parade will be held Saturday, July 4th at 12:30 pm in Dillon. The Coalition postponed and rescheduled their 18th annual Memorial Day Parade due to concerns over the Covid 19 pandemic and are now prepared for the event with social distancing and safe practices in mind.

In this time of polarizing election year politics the White Hat Coalition will dedicate this parade to our law enforcement officers in Dillon and Beaverhead county. As they have taken an oath to serve and protect us. Which we choose to acknowledge is no small thing as members of our community. We honor our neighbors, friends and family in law enforcement and celebrate our community during this important event celebrating our American way of life.

Everyone is invited to come join us in the parade as well as enjoying the procession along the parade route through town. Everyone with vintage autos, horses, floats, organizations, businesses, groups etc. are always welcome with social distancing in mind.

The parade will stage at the high school on Center st, at 12:00 noon and will proceed at 12:30pm west on Center st. then south on Idaho st.,, west on Reeder st to Montana st. and north to the Big Shy Cinema and disperse from there.

Another Non Alcohol event brought to our community by the Beaverhead White Hat Coalition.

For more information call Stan at 660-4429 or stop by the theatre.

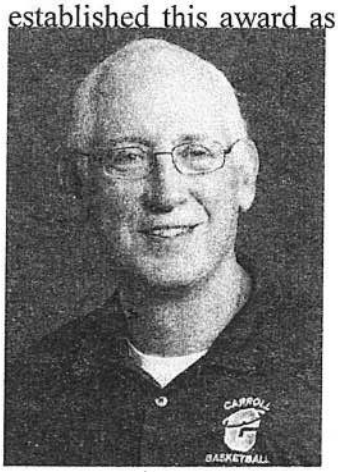
2019-20 FRONTIER CONFERENCE NAIA AWARD NOMINEES AND THE RON 'SWEDE' KENISON AWARD RECIPIENT ANNOUNCED

Frontier Conference commissioner Kent Paulson announced the 2019-2020 conference nominees for National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) awards and the 2020 recipient of the Ron 'Swede' Kenison award.

Gary Picone, Lewis-Clark State College (LCSC) is the 2020 recipient of the Ron 'Swede' Kenison award. Picone had two different stints as the LCSC athletic director and one stint where he also served as Lewis-Clark State's head baseball coach.

The Frontier Conference Presidents, Athletic Directors and Commissioner established this award as the highest award presented by the conference to people that may be recognized by any of the member institutions.



The Ron "Swede" Kenison Award is presented to people nominated by member school administrative officers for outstanding contributions that have been made to the Frontier Conference over a long period of time.

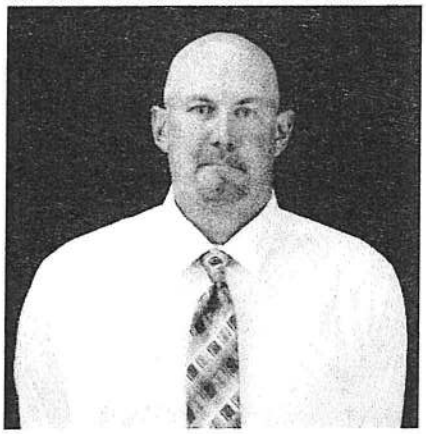
College, is the conference nomination for the NAIA Coach's Hall of Fame. In his 19-year tenure as the head coach for the Carroll men, Turcotte compiled a 376-223 record, seven conference titles and seven national tournament appearances. His 2004 team became the first Frontier Conference team to advance to the national semifinals. Turcotte retired in 2009, but it was a short retirement. He returned two years later as an assistant on the Carroll's women's staff. Induction in the NAIA Hall of Fame is the highest award presented by the association.



Bill Ryan, Montana Tech, is the Frontier's nomination for the Wally Schwartz Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) of the Year. Ryan has served as Montana Tech's FAR since 2016. He works closely with coaches, administrators and Montana Tech faculty to ensure eligibility and compliance of Montana Tech student-athletes.

The Wally Schwartz Award recognizes a conference/A.I.I. and national Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) of the Year. The award honors the late Wally Schwartz, former NAIA vice-president of Legislative Services.

The intent is to consider members who are FARs in all phases of the FARA on college campuses and at the conference level. The recipient should exemplify the loyalty, enthusiasm and honesty that Wally Schwartz exemplified on behalf of the NAIA.

College, is the conference nomination for the Charles Morris Administrator of the Year Award. Jones has been a part of Carroll's athletic program for over 30 years as an athletic trainer, assistant football coach and administrator.

He took over the facility operations full time in 1998 and was involved in every step of the construction of Nelson Stadium, from conception through construction to maintenance of the building. Jones now manages the P.E. Center and Nelson Stadium.

This annual award is in memory and honor of past Associate Executive Director Charles Morris and recognizes an administrator engaged in all phases of NAIA athletics programs who exemplifies the loyalty and enthusiasm Charles Morris had for the NAIA.

Rachelle Sayers of Carroll College, is the conference nomination for the NAIA Coach of Character Award. Sayers took over the women's program at Carroll in 2011. In her nine seasons, she has compiled an overall record of 178-99. This past season, Carroll won the regular season title and received an at-large bid to the NAIA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament.

The Coach of Character Award is given annually to an NAIA head coach who has been outstanding in embracing the five core values of the NAIA Champions of Character® initiative (integrity, respect, responsibility, sportsmanship and servant leadership), using methods of teaching character through sport, and in community leadership through volunteering or service.

2019-20 FRONTIER CONFERENCE NAIA STUDENT AWARD NOMINEES

Frontier Conference commissioner Kent Paulson announced the 2019-2020 conference student nominees for National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) awards. The winners will be announced in September by the NAIA.

Dylan Kresge of Carroll College is the conference nomination for the Dr. LeRoy Walker Champions of Character ® Award. This award was created to honor Dr. LeRoy Walker, a former president of the NAIA and President emeritus of the United States Olympic Committee.

It recognizes a current student-athlete with at least a junior academic status who has demonstrated outstanding academic achievement, campus and community leadership embracing the five core character values of the NAIA Champions of Character ® initiative, athletic achievement and future ambition.

Kresge graduated in May with a bachelor of science in civil engineering. During his Carroll football career, he earned all-conference and academic all-conference honors. Kresge was the 2019 recipient of the St. Sebastian Award, the highest recognized award in Carroll athletics. On the football field, he led the Saints in tackles.

Taelyr Krantz of Carroll College is the conference nomination for the A. O. Duer Scholarship Award. The award is named in honor of the NAIA's former executive secretary for his 26 years of service to the Association.

The A.O. Duer Scholarship Award has been presented since 1967 to one male and one female junior student-athlete in any sport who have excelled in scholarship, character, and citizenship.

Krantz is a junior outside hitter for the Carroll volleyball team. She is majoring in mathematics and maintains a 3.993 GPA. Krantz earned all-conference, honorable mention all-region and academic all-conference honors.

The Carroll College women's basketball team, the conference's nomination for the Conference Commissioner Association Champions of Character ® Team Award.

The Carroll women won the Saints community service award with 675 hours of service during the 2019-20 school year. The Saints coached and trained a local Special Olympic basketball team called the Helena Dragons. They spoke at 13 different local elementary and middle schools about being Champions of Character ®. They participated in National Walk to School Day, Walk for Alzheimer's, Dr. Seiuss Day, Hoops for a Cause and the fall break breakfast clinic.

This award honors one men's and one women's team for their exemplary character and sportsmanship on the field or court, on campus and in the community. This team demonstrates the core values of Integrity, Respect, Responsibility, Sportsmanship and Servant Leadership.

Beaverhead-Deerlodge announces temporary road closure

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest will temporarily close National Forest System Road 1594, also known as Lone Pine Gulch Road, to through traffic for a culvert replacement scheduled for 8 a.m.-4 p.m. July 22.

A forest engineer identified a deteriorating culvert on Lone Pine Gulch Road where it crosses Lone Tree Gulch. Replacement of the culvert is necessary for the road to support the weight of logging trucks for an upcoming timber sale.

"We apologize for the inconvenience and restricted travel during replacement of the culvert," said Butte District Ranger Sam Martin.

Residents who live in the area are asked to plan travel to and from their homes around this temporary closure. For additional information, please contact the Butte Ranger District at (406) 494-2147.
