Tim Myllymaki, 60

Tim Myllymaki, 60 of Dillon, Montana passed away at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare on Thursday, July 2nd. There is a celebration of life gathering planned for Sunday, July 5th at Mac's Last Cast at 2 PM. A full obituary will follow. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

The Dillon Jaycee are doing fireworks as normal this year.

Have a happy & safe fourth of July

Countdown to July 11: Dillon Farmers' Market Update

On July 11 the Dillon Farmers' Market will open for the first of eleven market days, welcoming shoppers from 9 am to 1 pm. This year the market will be in new location to allow space for social distancing: South Washington Street by the Jaycee Park Splash Pad, between Sebree and Reeder Streets. This section of the street will be closed to vehicles from 7 am to 2 pm on Saturdays through September 19.

The new location will spread out the vendors, and each vendor will arrange their space to help ensure social distancing. In addition to social distancing, hand sanitizer will be available and good hygiene practices are encouraged to minimize opportunity for virus spread. While masks are not required, their use is recommended and appreciated, as a way to help keep our community safe.

The Dillon Farmers' Market is "handmade and home grown," dedicated to providing a safe, inexpensive, community-centered place for local food producers, artists and crafters to show and sell their products. Our vendors have the freshest produce, and tastiest baked goods and other food products, as well as many interesting, unique, useful, and decorative items that can be found only here in southwest Montana.

As of June 30, the following vendors have signed up:

- Beaverhead Kennel Club (sewn fabric crafts and quilted items, a fundraiser for the animal shelter),
- Bob and Katie Bump (garden produce, garlic powder, jam and jelly, crafts),
- Janssen Welding (metal/laser art and fabrication),

One Night at the Dillon Fireworks Show

David K. Bandelier

'Twas just after dark on the Fourth of July.
 The flashes of fireworks lit up the sky!
 The crowd oohed and ahhed at the glorious sight.
 As colored explosions brightened the night!
 The boom and the flash of each mortar round
 Echoed off the East bench for miles around.
 Their feathered wings flapping from points far and near,
 Magpies and pigeons were fleeing in fear!
 Then up in the sky was an object most queer;
 A big flying sled with eight tiny reindeer.
 I glanced at the calendar just to be sure
 That somehow six months hadn't passed in a blur,
 But still, there it was fireworks glow,
 An object I usually saw in the snow!
 Before I could give this the thought it demanded,
 The object descended and gradually landed .
 From out of the sled where the deer were connected,
 Stepped a man, but he wasn't the man I expected.
 He had the white beard and he had the right gender,
 But his build was all wrong-he was too tall and slender.
 His clothing was red and trimmed with white hue,
 But the colors were striped and mingled with blue.
 The sight altogether was very peculiar,
 But it tugged at my mind like something familiar.
 Then finally realized where I'd seen the man.
 And I knew at last it was old "UNCLE SAM!"

He strode toward the crowd like a man with a goal.
 He said "I borrowed this sled from my friend at the Pole.
 For I've something to give you and what better way.
 When you come bearing gifts, than to use Santa's sleigh?
 But the things that I bring are not trinkets or toys,
 Not playthings intended for young girls and boys.
 The stuff in that sack on the sled is quite precious.
 And was purchased for you by men wise and gracious!
 For I bring you liberty, I bring you life!
 The pursuit of happiness, purchased with strife!

Brad Reis, Owner

These things come to you from patriot's graves.
And were bought with the blood of men bold and brave.
Don't forget while you're watching the fireworks fly
There's a reason we celebrate so, in July;
A bold declaration was once made, you see,
That gave us this "Wonderful Land of the Free!"
He bestowed on the crowd all the gifts from his sack,
Saying "Take what I give you and always think back!"
There's a Lady of Liberty and when you think on her
Recall she was purchased with strength and with honor!
Then he turned from the crowd and returned to the sleigh.
With a tug at the reins, he headed away.
He called the deer's names from the first to the last,
But they weren't the same names I had heard in the past.
"On Washington, Jefferson, Madison too!
On Adams and Franklin! I'm counting on you!
On Monroe, on Hamilton, and onward Revere;"
Then up rose the sled and up rose the deer
And I heard him exclaim from somewhere on high.
"LET FREEDOM RING OUT! IT'S THE FOURTH OF JULY!"
(This is a true and authentic account of what I saw one year at the Dillon Fireworks Show.)

We will work on Grand Canyon Trail!

Join us on Saturday morning, July 11th - 8am - to improve everybody's favorite trail: the Grand Canyon Trail! Some passages need widening, and the top of the Dry Waterfall needs improvement.

If we have enough volunteers, we will also pull more Dalmatian Toadflax, Henbane, and Houndstongue (can be done with kiddos - on flat ground ;-)

I will also have a table set up at the trailhead for information on trails, membership, and other ways to get involved! Bring your friends!

We will have lunch and beverages for volunteers :-)

See you then! beaverheadtrails@gmail.com
