The Gateway to Adventure

Helena Street on the City Hall Yard enclosure wall.

"This dART project holds a special place in my heart because it brings into focus the beauty of collaboration" says Clare Bailey.

"Cory Birkenbuel and Kelly Wiggins are equally talented but complete opposites in artistic style.

The juxtaposition of Cory's contemporary landscapes with Kelly's classic subject matter and traditional painting techniques is what makes this mural so striking.

Together they've transformed a former bland grey cinderblock wall into an eye catching landmark mural that gives a nod to our progressing local art scene while honoring our traditions.

This mural is titled "The Gateway to Adventure". This title is in support of a current advertising campaign The Beaverhead Chamber is spearheading.

The mountain scene that Cory depicted is The Pioneer Range. It is one of the leading places around Dillon to find adventure. And, Kelly's insert murals of Fishing the Beaverhead River, The Main Hall at UMW and The Round Bales, show the agriculture of our region and give the viewer an image of the things that make Dillon a wonderful place to call home.

Special Thanks to Travis Wiggins for mounting the dART sign that acknowledges these two talented artists.

Register for hunt roster by July 15

Hunters interested in participating in "game-damage" hunts on private land or possible management seasons this year have until July 15 to register online with Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks.

Hunters from this roster may be identified for three types of hunts: game damage, management season and dispersal. The roster is used by FWP to efficiently respond to landowners in the prevention or reduction of damage primarily caused by deer, elk and antelope.

Prospective hunters can register online at fwp.mt.gov. Click "Hunt Roster." To register, hunters will need their ALS number.

FWP will conduct a computerized random drawing process that will award placement of all prospective hunters on the rosters. Results will be available by July 20 to hunters through MyFWP.

The hunts, if they occur, can take place between Aug. 15, 2020, and Feb. 15, 2021.

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest will temporarily close National Forest System Road 1594, also known as Lone Pine Gulch Road, to through traffic for a culvert replacement scheduled for 8 a.m.-4 p.m. July 22.

A forest engineer identified a deteriorating culvert on Lone Pine Gulch Road where it crosses Lone Tree Gulch. Replacement of the culvert is necessary for the road to support the weight of logging trucks for an upcoming timber sale.

"We apologize for the inconvenience and restricted travel during replacement of the culvert," said Butte District Ranger Sam Martin.

Residents who live in the area are asked to plan travel to and from their homes around this temporary closure. For additional information, please contact the Butte Ranger District at (406) 494-2147.

I will also have a table set up at the trailhead for information on trails, membership, and other ways to get involved! Bring your friends!

We will have lunch and beverages for volunteers :-)

THE AERIALIST will have it's world premiere at Dillon's Big Sky Cinema!

Stan Smith invited Producer and star of the feature film , Dreya Weber, to come to Dillon for their premiere as she has family living here. Local artist, Cathy Weber is Dreya's sister. With the Covid 19 pandemic the Big Sky Cinema is operating at 50% for social distancing and safety reasons. Please come early for seating and wear a mask as we want everyone to enjoy this wonderful film safely.

Join us for a special ONE TIME ONLY screening of THE AERIALIST on July 11th at 1pm.

At 12:30pm, there will be a pre-film introduction and Q & A with producer and star, Dreya Weber.

Dreya Weber is an accomplished director, performer, choreographer, producer, and aerialist. She has choreographed for PINK, Cher, Britney Spears, Taylor Swift, Katy Perry, Christina Aguilera, Michael Jackson, Magic Mike Live and more. Her films THE GYMNAST and A MARINE STORY were honored with 48 film festival awards including 7 "Best Actress" nods.

Stan has been keeping the theatre open despite the fact Hollywood is not providing new films until at least August. For the 3 months the theatre was closed he ran curb side popcorn sales and invited local music talent to entertain during sales. Since reopening July 12th with films like the Back To The Future Trilogy, Goonies, Shrek and Despicable Me, Stan has been busy planning more classic screenings as well as this World Premiere presentation. He is also working on a playdate for more classic favorites and a feature film he served as an Associate Producer on shot on location in the Kalispell area a couple years ago titled "Useless". The Big Sky Cinema is persevering during the Covid 19 closures and will continue to do so in compliance with state regulations on social distancing and safety procedures
