Margaret Ann Birkenbuel "Peggy", 81

Margaret Ann Birkenbuel went to heaven peacefully on July 4, 2020. Peggy was born on July 27, 1938 in Portland, Oregon to Edward and Hazel Driscoll. She grew up with 9 brothers and sisters and attended St. Mary's Academy.

Peggy was a badass! She was a strong, confident, independent, adventurous woman that had a zest for life. In her early career she had many unique opportunities working in the corporate world in Seattle; such as watching and flying on the first 737 Boeing airplane and appearing in a movie with Elvis at the Worlds Biggest Fair. She taught skiing at Stevens Pass and promoted and distributed the first issue of Powder Magazine. Her passion was skiing and those early accomplishments gave her an adventurous spirit and the opportunity to do what ever she wanted later in life.

In the early 1970's she moved to the Big Hole Valley in Montana to work at Sundance Lodge. She wanted to be in the mountains and ski. In the Big Hole she met many people while working on ranches and teaching skiing at Deep Creek Ski Area and Maverick Mountain. That's where she met Butch Birkenbuel they were married and had three little rowdy boys Brady, Cody, and Cory. Raising her boys was the biggest joy and accomplishment in her life. She loved her boys and taught them to work hard and to persevere in everything they did. Her boys were her life and she loved to brag about them!

She graduated from Western Montana College in the mid 1990's with a teaching degree and after the boys grew up Peggy moved to Alaska to chase a dream of teaching school and creating art. Peggy loved Alaska and experienced many adventures with new friends. She fell in love with hockey and was known as Grandma Nanook while attending every game at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. After spending twenty years in Alaska it was time to come home to Dillon, Montana to be with her boys.

Peggy left a mark on everyone she met and could connect with someone right away, always making new friends and telling stories. She had an infectious smile and she could light up a room when she entered it. When people would ask her how she was doing she would reply, "Got three hours and Ill tell you."

both taking active roles in the community, Bev as a well-respected registered nurse. In 1980, Bev and Nyles welcomed their son, Just Nyles Humphrey and four years later their daughter, Anne Selyn Humphrey. As many know, Nyles was in a tragic accident in 1994, and later passed in 2013.

Bev met Bill Galiger in Dillon, and they married in 1999. Bev never fully retired from Parkview Acres because long term care was her passion as a nurse. Bev remained in Dillon until her passing. Bev is preceded in death by her father Louis A. Bohn, late husband Nyles R. Humphrey, Nyles' parents Nyles L. and Camille Humphrey. Bev is survived by her husband Bill Galiger, mother Elizabeth Bohn, brother Emil (Christy) Bohn, son Just (Jamie) Humphrey, daughter Anne (Brett) Litle and four granddaughters who were her pride and joy, Natalie, Harper, Leightyn and Raegan.

A private family service will be held in Tracy, CA next summer. The family will host Bev's many friends for small celebration of life in Dillon at a later date. The family asks in lieu of flowers that you invest or donate to a child you know towards their opportunity for higher education. Mom, we are proud of you and would not be the people we are today without your unwavering love and support. "End of story. Period."

Pulled Over

Bryce Angell

I hardly remember driving home on Sunnyside that evening. Dog-tired and still thinking about two of my patients who had received devastating news a few hours earlier, I felt emotionally drained and must have slipped into auto pilot. My old Chevy truck, however, knew the way home and was in a hurry to get there.

Suddenly the sight of a state patrol car in the oncoming lane got my attention. I glanced at my speedometer, groaned, and slowed. The cruiser passed me, made an immediate U-turn, and came up behind me, lights flashing. I pulled over, knowing I was guilty and that a bad day was about to get worse.

The officer walked slowly along the side of my truck, giving me time to roll the window down and collect myself. I looked up through a wall of tension and saw his face, anger and disgust written all over it. He almost shouted. "You were driving 55 in a 35 mile zone!" All I could do was mumble, "I'm sorry." Knowing you're in the wrong is a tough pill to swallow.

He paused, but I had seen him eyeing my scrubs and RN badge. And had I also seen something else—a spark of recognition maybe? (A lot of people visit patients on my floor every day.) He cleared his throat and then spoke calmly. "Are you just getting off work?" I nodded. He said his day was almost over, as well. And the wall between us crumbled.

To my surprise, he said, "I want you to go home, get some sleep, and drive a little slower tomorrow." He extended his hand and added, "Thank you for all you do." I gratefully took that hand, and as we shared a respectful handshake, I thanked him, too, for his service and for keeping knuckleheads like me in line. Then through my left side mirror, I watched him walk back to his cruiser, his hand sliding along the bed of my truck.

I drove the rest of the way home, still tired but totally in control of my truck and feeling grateful for that perceptive state patrolman. Instead of getting the speeding ticket I deserved, I received his thanks for the work I do. And then, in turn, I thanked him for the work he does, which is considerably more dangerous than mine. I will always remember that officer's kindness on such a difficult evening and how much it lifted my spirits that day.

Southwest Montana Veteran Home Update #57

By Mike Lawson

Greetings once again to you the Veterans/Communities/Countries of SW MT who are the chief organizers and supporters of the SW MT Veterans Home..

As I sit here writing this, from my East Ridge Home at 11:00 PM, I'm watching the fireworks that many Butte folks have purchased and are firing away. It's impressive and must have cost a small fortune. It doesn't matter as Americans love fire works and it's a wonderful way to celebrate our 244th birthday celebration. These are tough times with the Covid-19 Pandemic enveloping our country and the world. I truly believe we are a country of resilience and will come through this as a stronger people. It's important to live and follow what the Health Officials recommend as those around us, especially the older folks, are most at risk. This new SW MT Veterans Home will be home to many older Veterans and these type of places have been getting hit the hardest. Let's respect each other and realize what we do in the name of safety can save lives, as this is not a joke. I have 6 family members who have been infected and it's not been easy for them. Thankfully none have died, 4 have recovered but have ongoing after effects and two have just got it, with one who being very sick. Enough said on this.

Things are moving on many different facets, of this our Veteran's Home and one can really see that "light at the end of the tunnel" for this Vet Home to be completed in time for the 2020 Veteran's Day Grand Opening. I got reports from my go to guys, Site Construction Superintendent Mike Ascherman and Carpenter General Foreman John Kotka and then did a walk-through with Liaison Mark Gollinger. Some buildings have more work going on than others and new developments have been taking place. The whole project is moving forward and it's exciting to being able to watch on a weekly basis.

Construction Updates:

Community Center-Interior: A number of things going on here but two notable jobs on hold are now able to continue. The ceiling in the community room was on hold due to a lighting change that had to be made by the architects. That came through, which now allows the sheetrock to be hung on the metal ceiling framing and allows the electricians to install the ceiling light cans. The other holdup was siding material that was on back-order, to come in, which it did. The siders can now finish-up the siding for this building. The tile for the bathroom floors was laid and the walls were started. It's a beautiful large grey-slate type tile. (Another extra top of the mark material) Mike expects this to be a two-week job. John had a couple of framers trimming out windows, followed by putting the inside screens on. This building is close to being ready for the flooring then it will be complete, for all practical purposes.

Exterior: As was mentioned, the "Siders" are back to complete the siding, now their back-order material has gotten here.

Cottage #1-Interior: The "Seismograph Ceiling" metal framing is close to being completed. The electricians will install their light fixtures and the sheet rockers will start hanging sheetrock when that's done. The Plummer's did a little bit of piping.

Exterior: Siders are getting close to being done on the siding installation.

Cottage #2-Interior: The sheetmetal guys are close to having their HVAC rough-in complete. The Plumbers did a small amount of pipe work in the Mechanical Room.

Exterior: The "Siders started the siding on this building.

Cottage #3-Interior: The tapers are starting to tape/mud the sheetrock. The "Seismograph Ceiling" metal framing may get started this week. The Sheetmetal guys were working on ductwork in the Mechanical Room. The Plummer's were working on gas pipe-lines.

Exterior: Waiting for the Siders.

Cottage #4-Interior: With all the bay windows in, the bay window bump outs were core-bond insulated. The vapor barrier on the trusses is done. The Plummer's and Electricians have started doing their rough-in work. The inside of the interior walls are ready to be insulated. The sheet-rockers have been bringing in their sheetrock, so this week should be a sheetrock show.

Exterior: The 3M Peel and Stick Vapor-Barrier is done with the foam insulation blue-board close to being done.

Cottage #5-Interior: The framers are close to having the blocking/backing and soffits close to being done. The other crafts (Sheetmetal/Electricians/Plumbers) will be moving in this week or next.

Exterior: The roofer is doing the ongoing shingling. The Carpenters are doing the 3M Peel and Stick Vapor Barrier

Other Site - Work: the the last big "Cement-Pours" by Steed Concrete, were completed. These were the foundations for the Maintenance/Receiving building, the Electrical Vault Shed, the Well House and Shower Pads in Cottage #4 & #5.. Next week will see the start of framing on them. Zemlijak Excavating worked on re-positioning a Fire Hydrant, some leveling and getting ready to set the interlocking cement-block walls as part of the storm drainage system. Two semi-loads came every day last week with these blocks. It'll be interesting to see how these go in.

Not much else going on. May you all stay healthy and take the recommended measures to stay that way. Until next week.

Tendoy Fine Art is planning an Art Walk

Tendoy Fine Art is planning an Art Walk in Conjunction with Dillon History Days. Saturday, July 25th from 1 to 4 pm, area artists are invited to participate by showing samples of their work in area businesses, and those artists who chose to do so are encouraged to demonstrate their work on the street near their host business. In keeping with the historical theme of the events, Tendoy Fine Art is suggesting that artists may want to dress as famous artists or as Beaverhead County or Montana pioneers. An open-air sidewalk event in costume will be fun for everyone and will aid in mitigating the threat of spread of any viruses." Please call Jean James at 406-660-2304, Char Quist at 406-925-1592 or contact Tendoy Fine Art during business hours at 406-660-3007 and leave your name and number so we can return your call. This is an opportunity to help keep the arts alive during this difficult time.
