Trooper Wade Palmer Medically Retires after Receiving Critical Injuries in 2019 Shooting

Montana Highway Patrol Trooper Wade Palmer retired today after an eight-year career. Critically injured in the line of duty in March 2019, Palmer received a medical retirement from the agency.

Palmer, accompanied by his wife and children, received a final sendoff from friends and coworkers at Patrol headquarters in Helena this afternoon. The Patrol presented Palmer with its highest honor, the Medal of Valor, as well as a retirement award and a colonel's coin.

"Today is bittersweet," said Colonel Tom Butler "On the one hand, we're incredibly thrilled and grateful to have Wade here and are amazed at his progress. On the other hand, no one wants to see a career cut short due to injury," he added.

"Wade's road to recovery has been a remarkable lesson in faith and perseverance for all Montanans," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "The safety and blessings we enjoy today are made possible by the courage and sacrifice of first responders like Wade. On behalf of the Montana Department of Justice, we wish the Palmer family the very best as they focus on continued healing during this next chapter of their lives," Fox added.

In his retirement, Trooper Palmer plans to continue to focus his energy on his rehabilitation and spending time with his family. He continues to see progress in his recovery efforts, though more work remains due to the severity of his injuries.

Trooper Palmer and his family extend their gratitude to everyone who supported them throughout this journey. They

On March 15, 2019, Palmer was shot in the neck, face, and head, after locating the suspect involved in an earlier shooting that injured two and killed one in Missoula. He was transported to Saint Patrick Hospital in critical condition and eventually flown to Salt Lake City to receive Level I trauma care. He returned home to Missoula on May 22, 2019, where he continued to receive outpatient treatment. On June 26, 2020, Jonathan Bertsch pled guilty to the shootings. He will be sentenced in August.

Ranger Gal

Bryce Angell

I rolled out of my sleeping bag. 'Twas dang near eight o'clock. My tent was by the campfire and I'd slept hard, like a rock.

I threw the horses hay, and then I headed for the john. A rickety old outhouse, just one hole to sit upon.

But then my memory told me, "There's a restroom down the road." So, I grabbed two cowboys, couldn't wait to feel the warm commode. But then a danged old ranger dude came walking out the door. He said, "The restrooms aren't for free. Don't use them anymore."

I didn't want to make a scene. He had authority. But the parking lot was empty just as far as I could see.

We didn't have a pass to get into the park that day. Just wanted nice warm bathrooms, but we didn't want to pay.

So, we drove off irritated. Oh, we vowed to come back soon. That ranger was a marshmallow. We'd show the big buffoon.

That afternoon at four o'clock we climbed into the truck. Then drove down to the restrooms. We were bound to have some luck.

We pulled up to the gate. Now there were six of us in all. We were mighty, fearsome cowboys, prob'ly felt like ten feet tall.

But then one pretty, little gal walked up to our truck door. She winked at me and then she smiled. My jaw 'bout hit the floor.

She said, "We'd like it if you'd pay and hope you weren't misled." I didn't have a word to say. My brain had left my head.

We tipped our hats and did I mention egg on every face. The cutest little ranger gal had put us in our place.

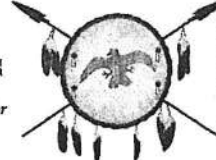

That night while sitting 'round the fire the men all tried to boast. 'Cuz every cowboy seemed to think she'd smiled at him the most.

And then the night got quiet. Not one person made a noise. That day one pretty, little gal made mush of six cowboys.

Dillon Art Walk is canceled

The Dillon Art Walk is canceled. With deep regrets, we have canceled the Art Walk that we planned for July 25 in conjunction with Dillon History Days. Many of our artists and volunteers are in "at risk" groups for covid, and we do not want to jeopardize either them or our patrons by inadvertently sharing viruses. We WILL have an Art Walk when we feel it is safer to do so. Meanwhile, come visit the gallery at 35 East Bannack St., or visit our website at tendoyfineartgallery.com.

Rapid COVID-19 Tests Are in Short Supply

*Barrett Hospital & HealthCare's Rapid COVID-19 Tests
Are Reserved for Patients Meeting Specific Criteria*

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare has prepared for months to address the anticipated needs of this pandemic and has surge plans in place to treat COVID-19 and non-COVID-19 patients. Indeed, this pandemic is unprecedented, and our hospital and clinic has learned a lot, and very quickly to respond to this fluid situation. However, we are still constrained by the limited number of rapid COVID-19 tests our in-house laboratory receives each week.

The limited number of COVID-19 tests Barrett Hospital & HealthCare has on hand requires a provider's order and is prioritized for emergency surgery patients, admitted patients, trauma patients or other patients fitting the rapid testing criteria.

"We completely understand that many people are interested in testing for COVID-19 out of concern for their own health as well as their loved ones. Unfortunately, we have very limited allotments for these rapid tests and, we must use them first for our critically ill patients and surgical patients to protect not only our staff but, the other patients needing hospitalization," said Dr. Greg Moore, Chief Medical Officer Barrett Hospital & HealthCare. "As we continue to navigate this pandemic, we are hopeful supplies will be more available so we can offer testing to those that desire it. For now, however, each person plays an essential role in helping ensure everyone's safety and can also help prevent the spread of this virus by a few simple steps that have been proven to work around the world. It is crucial to wear a mask or facial covering anytime you leave your home, practice appropriate social distancing by avoiding large crowds and gatherings, wash your hands with soap frequently for at least 20 seconds, and avoid touching your face."

Individuals with minor symptoms not needing hospitalization, who present for COVID-19 testing, will be tested by the State Lab. Patients who may have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 but have no symptoms should contact Beaverhead County Public Health Department at 406-683-4771 for further instructions.

Beaverhead-Deerlodge announces temporary road closure

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest will temporarily close National Forest System Road 1594, also known as Lone Pine Gulch Road, to through traffic for a culvert replacement scheduled for 8 a.m.-4 p.m. July 22.

A forest engineer identified a deteriorating culvert on Lone Pine Gulch Road where it crosses Lone Tree Gulch. Replacement of the culvert is necessary for the road to support the weight of logging trucks for an upcoming timber sale.

"We apologize for the inconvenience and restricted travel during replacement of the culvert," said Butte District Ranger Sam Martin.

Residents who live in the area are asked to plan travel to and from their homes around this temporary closure. For additional information, please contact the Butte Ranger District at (406) 494-2147.

Property Addresses

The City of Dillon would like to ask all property owners to review their street numbers on their property. All numbers must be not less than three inches tall and shall be placed in a conspicuous place where the same can be easily seen from the middle of the street or alley upon which the building fronts. The numbers must be of metal or painted, or worked into stained glass, or otherwise placed upon a building so as to be durable and conspicuous.

The purpose of asking for the review is to make sure that as owners and renters we are providing law enforcement agencies, the ambulance service, fire department, and other health and safety agencies the best possible ability to provide protection for our citizens, homes and businesses when called upon for assistance.

If you have any questions please contact Todd Hazelbaker, Director of Operations, at 683-4245.

Jack Knapp Benefit Fund account

Jack Knapp lost his home in a devastating fire the morning of July 13. If you would like to and are able to donate to help him through this difficult time, there has been a Jack Knapp Benefit Fund account set up at the Bank of Commerce. Thank you for your support during this trying time.

Dillon Jaycees
Jason Schumacher

Dear Dillon Jaycees:

The Beaverhead County/City Board of Health (BOH) met today with the entire seven (7) BOH members present.

The Board of Health discussed the 2020 Dillon Labor Day weekend events regarding the Dillon Jaycee Rodeo, Dillon Jaycee Concert and the Beaverhead County Fair.

Each of the three (3) events were voted on by roll call addressing each of the seven (7) BOH board members.

The Dillon Jaycee Rodeo was approved by a 5-2 vote.

The Beaverhead County Fair was approved by a 7-0 unanimous vote.

The Dillon Jaycee Concert was not approved by a 2-5 vote.

The Beaverhead County/City Board of Health would like to say "thank you" to all three volunteer committees for their concern for safety during these tough times.

Sincerely,

C. Thomas Rice
Chairman, Board of Health
