Beaver Football game in Frenchtown Friday Night Aug 28th

Frenchtown High School has been told no visiting fans allowed for the game on Friday August 28th by Missoula County Public Health. KDBM / KBEV will broadcast the game. There may be a video broadcast available over the internet. More information to come on bchsmf.com under the news drop down.

Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest, Pintler Ranger District issues Closure Order for National Forest System Road 5141

Officials for the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest plan to issue a Closure Order for National Forest System (NFS) Road 5141 beginning September 14 for approximately 10 days. The closure is to protect public safety during the repair of the bridge which spans the East Fork Reservoir spillway.

Cameron Rasor, Pintler District Ranger said, "The bridge is a multi-span timber bridge that was constructed in 1958 over the spillway of the East Fork Reservoir Dam. The bridge decking has deteriorated to the point that it is unsafe for heavy vehicles to cross it. This has limited the Forest Service's ability to manage the land in the Meadow Creek drainage. Most recently, heavy equipment such as dozers utilized to construct fireline was unable to cross the bridge during the Meyers Fire in 2017. In addition, log trucks for a recent timber sale was rerouted via the Happy Creek Road to avoid crossing the bridge. Replacing the bridge decking and conducting other structural repairs will allow the Forest Service to fully utilize the bridge safely with heavy equipment and to efficiently manage the landscape beyond the bridge for years to come."

The closure applies to approximately .25 miles of NFS Road 5141 (Meadow Creek Rd), beginning at the intersection with NFS Road 261 (East Fork Reservoir Rd) and ending on the west side of the spillway bridge. The Spillway Campground will not be closed but access to the campground will be from the Middle Fork of Rock Creek on NFS Road 5103 (Happy Creek Rd) to NFS Road 5141. This route is much longer and NFS Road 5103 receives minimal maintenance. It is encouraged that large camp trailers and RVs do not utilize this access and vacate the Spillway Campground the morning of September 13th.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor,

8-71-20

The United States Post Office is in deep trouble now thanks to Donald Trump and his misguided appointment of Louis DeJoy as Postmaster General.

The blatant removal of the iconic blue post boxes and mail sorting machines to influence the upcoming election should be considered a criminal offence.

I personally have been affected when I received a notice that my Health Insurance had not been paid for August. I sent it 2 weeks prior. It cost $25.00 to put a "stop payment" on the old check and $26.50 so the new check arrived before insurance was cut off.

A family in Dillon, Mt with a small business, shipped hundreds of orders only to start getting calls that the packages had not arrived in time, if at all. As if COVID-19 wasn't enough to break businesses, Trump and DeJoy have effectively made sure that your postal dependent business will suffer.

This is happening! Not Fake.

Congress is discussing funding for the U.S.P.S.

What they are not talking about is the Retirement Fund for USPS Employees (enacted in 2006) which must be paid 75 years ahead. No Corporation or any business does this, yet here it is!!

It is a huge financial burden for USPS which this country depends on.

As of today no post boxes or sorting machines have been returned. The country is reeling from the collective effects of medicine, loan & rent payments, paychecks, S.S. checks etc, not arriving on time! The effects of this idiotic placement of DeJoy, who has no experience, and can't answer a simple question on his plan.

Shame on Trump.

WILL YOU BE LABORING ON LABOR DAY?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

For most of us, Labor Day will be an occasion for relaxation and contemplation.

(And MORAL DILEMMAS, because our contemplation will be complicated by the fact that the little cartoon angel on our right shoulder and the little cartoon devil on our left shoulder aren't allowed within six feet of each other.)

For others, even in the time of pandemic, it will be "just another manic Monday."

My afterschool job required me to work EVERY holiday, so my sincerest empathy goes out to those truck drivers, retail clerks, restaurant employees, medical personnel, utility workers, newspaper staffers and others who will be keeping their noses to the grindstone on September 7.

Sure, some of you appreciate the extra pay; but don't be so modest. Truly, you folks are the glue that holds this country together, which is ironic, since most of the people who actually MAKE glue will be at home flipping burgers or snoozing in the hammock.

Take solace in the recognition that you're ESSENTIAL EMPLOYEES - even if management has decided that what is essential for society's survival is someone to referee a round of "Maybe you snatched the last marked-down queen-size mattress, but I'm snatching you bald-headed on Black Friday, you hussy!"

After nearly two decades of working mandatory overtime, I am now hooked on my weekends and holidays. If you ever hear ME singing, "I've been working on the railroad all the live-long day/I've been working on the railroad, JUST TO PASS THE TIME AWAY," please put a golden spike through my noggin and tell Dinah to blow it out her...well, never mind.

I'm sure Labor Day will be more bearable for workers if the boss doesn't pipe in TRIGGERING MUSIC, such as The Band harmonizing "Take a load off, Annie." ("Ain't no load coming off unless I get a new forklift and double overtime pay! Where's the shop steward?")

Certainly, we need to give a Labor Day shout-out to our nation's first responders (paramedics, police officers, firefighters, that know-it-all kid who thinks he has to answer every %$#@ question, etc.).

I still haven't made up my mind about how much glory we owe our nation's LAST RESPONDERS. ("Sorry, we're late. The car needed an oil change and I had three Big Gulps and Hunter finally talked me into looking at the map and...oh, he did? I'm glad it was a lovely service. So, would six months be too soon to call you up for a date?")

Being self-employed is no guarantee of getting out of working on Labor Day. Dairy farmers in particular get no slack from the REAL bosses. ("It's about time you showed up for our twice-daily meeting, Bubba. It would be an UDDER DISASTER if you skipped a milking. No, you don't have to tip me for the humor. PLEASE don't tip me!")

I know we need a catch-all term for people who work outside of management, but maybe by next year I'll brainstorm a less generic term than "labor." I mean, if you tell someone "I'm going into astrophysics" or "I'm going into the clergy," they know what you're talking about. If you say, "I'm going into labor," they start boiling water and calling 911 for a first responder. Especially if you're a dude. ("I TOLD you them GMO squashes would ruin mankind's chromosomes! But everybody listened to that little devil hovering...")

Hello my name is Jasmine Salix, this year I am attending Interlochen Arts Academy in Michigan and will not be able to show or sell my hog at the Labor Day Fair. This is due to my school starting classes 3 weeks earlier due to Covid-19 concerns. I am looking for a buyer of my 4-H hog "Minerva". She is roughly 300 pounds (this pictures was taken 3 weeks ago before I left for school).

All the funds will go towards my academic savings account.

*We will be taking the companion hog to Silo Meats. Buyer is responsible for delivery to other butcher and all processing costs.

If your bid is by weight, you pay for no more than 285 lbs.

NO bids had been received by Thursday morning, so please make an offer!! Best offer takes this Hog.

Please call or text my parents:

Jessie and Nolan Salix 660-0011

Thanks so much for your support! -
