Census Week at the Library

The Dillon Public Library is essential for gathering spaces and resources for the local community. Serving Dillon and the surrounding area is important to us. However, our funding depends on the 2020 Census, and Beaverhead county's response rate is at 29.5%. Not even a third of our community has responded.

The Census happens every 10 years and for each person not counted, Montana will miss out on $2,000 of federal funding per year per person for the next decade for things like schools, health centers, and infrastructure that our families depend on. Montana currently and historically has one of the lowest Census response rates in the country, which means we could be losing out on critical resources for our communities. This year, Montana stands to regain an additional seat in the House of Representatives, which would mean better representation for all of us on a national level.

We see how important the Census is for the future of our community. That's why we're hosting a series of Census events during the week of September 21st. We are going to have a census lunch, family trivia night with pizza on Tuesday, September 22nd, and a wake-up Wednesday with donuts and coffee on September 23rd. During the week, visitors will be able to fill out the Census at the library and enter for a chance to win a gift card to a local business.

Please join us for several days of fun for the future of Beaverhead County. If you haven't yet been counted in the 2020 Census, you can do so at <https://my2020census.gov>, or by calling 844-330-2020. The deadline is September 30th.

in professional communications. After graduation, she went to work for Beaverhead County as a 9-1-1 dispatcher, and has spent the last four years working for Beaverhead County Disaster and Emergency Services. Recently, she has been a member of Beaverhead County's Incident Command Team for the COVID-19 response filling the role of Public Information Officer.

Outside of work, Sadie is currently enrolled at UM and is finishing her last class toward a master's degree in public administration. In addition to work and school, she and her husband Matt have two boys, Calvin (6) and Henry (3.5), and two crazy boxers, Havoc and Pearl. They enjoy camping, fishing, hiking, and road trips.

In this position, Sadie will coordinate COVID-19 testing and logistical procedures in collaboration with Beaverhead County Public Health and the University of Montana Western and will serve as the case manager for those who are quarantined or in isolation.

COVID-19 Communications Coordinator- Baylee Rawson

Baylee moved to Montana from New Mexico in 2018 with her husband, Cody, to start a new adventure in his home state. In 2017, she graduated from The University of New Mexico with a bachelor's degree in Marketing Management from the Anderson School of Business. After graduation, she worked for Student and Recruiting Programs at Sandia National Laboratory in Albuquerque, New Mexico and was recently an Admissions Representative for Montana Tech in Butte.

When she isn't working, she is chasing her 14-month-old daughter, Everlee, around. Since moving to Montana, she now enjoys all the state has to offer, including floating the rivers and hiking the beautiful trails.

In this position, Baylee will support the efforts of the COVID-19 Testing Coordinator and University Communications to assist in the maintenance and development of COVID-19 related communications.

Both Sadie and Baylee started their duties this week. For more information about Montana Western's COVID-19 mitigation efforts, visit <https://w.umwestern.edu/fall-2020-plan/>.

Heads up Beaverhead County Taxpayers Solar Project Tax Abatement Request

Clenera, the solar farm developer is back. They are currently proposing two solar farm projects (Rattlesnake Solar and Upland Argenta Solar - approximately 1524 acres) to be built across/by the Beaverhead County Landfill on Ten Mile Road.

Clenera has applied to the Beaverhead County Commissioners requesting a 75% tax abatement incentive for the next 10 years. The County Commissioners have the choice, by law, not to give a tax abatement incentive, or to give either a 50% or 75% abatement. It needs to be noted here that Clenera will also be receiving 50% depreciation on their projects in the first year plus a 30% federal tax incentive to build this facility. Therefore 80% of these facilities will be paid for up front by tax dollars. Now they do not want to pay full Beaverhead County Taxes. This benefits their investors only. In the past Clenera has declined to divulge who their investors are. Also the power generated from this facility is going out of state to possibly Washington and California.

I am opposed to any sort of tax abatement from Beaverhead County to Clenera. The numbers from Department of Revenue for a public hearing a few weeks back are:

- 75% abatement would save Clenera $6.3 million over 10 years, per project or 12.6 million total for both solar projects.
- 50% abatement would save Clenera $4.2 million over 10 years, per project or 8.4 million total for both solar projects.

Depending on the Department of Revenue, these numbers could change but this is what they are showing now.

They need to pay their fair share. With these extra dollars Beaverhead County citizens would benefit in possibly road and bridge maintenance and may be able to reopen our County Museum among other improvements and projects.

Some people say, just take what they will give you, and give them the abatements. No, it is time to get the full value of their taxes. We, taxpayers of Beaverhead County, do not get abatements and they should not either.

Please contact our Beaverhead County Commissioners on this matter. Let them know if you support tax abatement for wealthy out of state investors or if you are opposed. Either write to the commissioners at 2 S. Pacific St., Dillon, Montana or e-mail them at mmcginley@beaverheadcounty.org, trice@beaverheadcounty.org, or jjackson@beaverheadcounty.org.

Thanks to our local DNRC Fire Crew, our new trail is built!

This summer saw the completion of the approximately 2.5 mile Northwest Passage Trail located in the High Trails System's North-West corner, all thanks to our great Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC) team!

Kyle Rawson, DNRC Dillon Engine Boss, led a fire crew building the Northwest Passage Trail, working almost weekly from June to August. The firefighters stationed in Dillon routinely use the High Trails for pre-season endurance training. According to Don Copple, the local Fire Management Officer, building trail also allows them to use the tools of the trade such as pulaskis and work as a team.

The USFS recreation specialists helped specify the trail alignment after BTC acquired the land in 2018. Thanks to that addition, loops from the trailhead exceeding 5 miles are now possible. Traffic on the trail suggests that it is already very popular with both hikers and bicyclists!

DNRC Fire Fighters have previously contributed to the Cliff and Tim's Ridge trails' construction. Their work is always much appreciated.

Thank You Dillon DNRC Fire Crew!
