Census Response Low in Headwaters Region - Deadline Closing In

We're over halfway through what's been a year that none of us will soon forget, but one thing that seems to be forgotten throughout our state is filling out our census. Montana is currently 47th out of the 50 states for census completion rates, and many of the counties in our region are lagging behind the statewide average.

The Census is a civic duty that has been laid out by the founding fathers in the constitution and provides critical information for many important decisions in our rural communities. This includes the allocation of tax dollars, resources and vital infrastructure that is needed throughout our region. In addition to the fiscal implications of the census, Montana has the opportunity to add an additional seat in congress if we achieve a high response rate, adding additional representation to our delegation in Washington D.C.

Currently, the Headwaters Region is averaging about 50.5% response rate, while Montana is averaging 58.7%. Granite County is at the lowest response rate at 29.3% followed by Madison County at 34.7%. Butte-Silver Bow and Jefferson Counties rank at the highest in the Headwaters Region with 67.3% and 63.1% respectively.

The results of the 2020 Census will help determine how hundreds of billions of dollars in federal funding flow into communities every year for the next decade. That funding shapes many different aspects of every community, no matter the size, no matter the location.

Whether you live in a rural or urban area in the Headwaters Region, the Census results influence highway planning and construction, as well as grants for economic development, community infrastructure, and other public systems. Or think of your local schools: Census results help determine how money is allocated for the Head Start program and for grants that support teachers and special education. The list goes on, including programs to support rural areas, to restore wildlife, to prevent child abuse, to prepare for wildfires, and to provide housing assistance for older adults.

We encourage you to please fill-out your Census by September 30th. If you already have, make sure your friends, family, co-workers, or class-mates have also done so. Help our Headwaters Region continue to prosper.

Butte Ranger District re-opening, Tuesday, September 29

The Butte Ranger District of the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest, located at 1820 Meadowlark in Butte is looking forward to opening their doors again to the public on Tuesday, September 29th.

Beginning September 15th, the Butte Ranger District office was temporarily closed due to a proactive push in dispatching staff to assist in fire suppression efforts throughout Montana and other areas in the nation affected by fires this season according to Jan Bowey, Acting District Ranger. Bowey added that she thanks the community for their patience during this time.

Phone coverage for the Butte Ranger District is currently being manned by the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest Supervisor's Office in Dillon and can be reached by calling (406) 683-3900. Firewood permits may also be requested at this number. After the Butte Ranger District Office re-opens, persons may contact the Butte office directly at the regular number, (406) 832-3178, for any assistance or information.
