Barbara Lee Clemans

Barbara Lee Clemans of Wisdom passed away Sunday, October 4, 2020 just a few days after her 81st birthday in Kennewick, WA.

Barbara was born in Hamilton, Montana to Peter & Bessie Rasmussen on October 1, 1939. She married Joe Clemans on June 4, 1960 and they spent their years together raising their two daughters in the Big Hole Valley. Her greatest joys were her three granddaughters and great granddaughters. She was most well known for her quick witted demeanor, her excellent baking skills and her immunity to those Big Hole mosquitoes. She enjoyed the occasional Rum & Coke or a Bud Light, depending on the company. She was a dedicated employee of the Forest Service for 30 years.

Barbara is survived by her daughters, Susan (Phil) Thompson of Kennewick, WA and Jolene (Jim) Linscott of Dillon, MT; granddaughters Amber (Josh) Weekes of Helena, MT, Tana (Mat) Hamilton of Dillon, MT, and Whitney Hottell of Kennewick, WA; three great granddaughters Graycen, Lexi Jo, & Jocelyn Weekes; and her brother Stanley (Tootie) Rasmussen of Choteau, MT and their family.

Barb is preceded in death by her parents, Peter & Bessie Rasmussen and her husband, Joe Clemans.

A graveside service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 17, at the Wisdom Cemetery in Wisdom, Montana, followed by a Celebration of Life at the Wisdom Community Building. In lieu of flowers the family suggests memorials to Wisdom Cemetery or the Wisdom Community Building.

You will remain forever in our hearts. We love you and will miss you more than words can ever express.

Eileene Cecelia Armstrong

She was raised on ranches near Whitehall (Pipestone) and Butte (Ninemile Hill). She graduated from Butte High School in 1953 and received a teaching degree from Dillon Normal School in 1955.

Eileene taught in the Butte Public School system for approximately 6 years followed by 2 years teaching in Reno Nevada. She returned to Montana and married Edwin Stanley Armstrong on June 29, 1963. They settled in Cardwell, began a family and later moved to Dillon in 1968. Eileene continued educating generations of southwest Montanans in the Butte, Whitehall, Dillon and Melrose school systems until retiring at the age of 65. Over a span of 45 years, including a 12-year period during which she substitute taught in Dillon, she was in the classroom for over 35 years. During this time she returned to school as a student and received her Bachelors of Education degree from Western Montana College. During her teaching years she developed deep friendships with numerous educators, including Marlene Savage, Tia Kober, Jackie Erfle, Marcy Busch, and numerous others. She loved children of all ages, but had a special place for the younger ones and children with difficult backgrounds. She was an Irish Catholic from Butte Montana and a lifelong Chicago Bears fan. Despite her very mild manner, she liked to claim her rougher heritage, and occasionally threatened to use it, when necessary.

She is survived by her husband of 57 years Edwin Armstrong; 3 children, 7 grandchildren, and 3 great grandchildren including: daughters Jacqueline (Rod) Christiaens and sons, Valier, Jan Trafelet and son, Albuquerque, N.M.; and son Scott (Sarah) Armstrong and children Albuquerque, NM. Other survivors include nephews and nieces Marc (Nan) Sylvester and daughters, Gilbert, Ariz., Joe (Karen) Sylvester and children, Billings, MT., Michelle (Greg) Hadfield and children, Billings MT; as well as numerous individuals from the Armstrong / Ballard and Wegner sides of the family, whom she claimed as brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents and sisters, Dr. Geraldine St. Onge, NY, NY; Ularie Marie St. Onge, Butte; and Mary Frances Sylvester, Billings.

A Rosary Vigil service will be held at St. Rose of Lima in Dillon on October 12th, at 6:30 pm. A Funeral Mass will be held on October 13th, at 12:10 pm, followed by burial at the Mountain View Cemetery in Dillon. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to St. Rose of Lima in Dillon, the Alzheimer's Association, or the charity of your choice.

CHILD PORNOGRAPHY LEADS TO ARREST IN DILLON

A man with ties to Southern Oregon was arrested in Montana for allegedly uploading child pornography files from an unsecured Wi-Fi connection in Talent earlier this year.

David Levi Watters, 29, was arrested at his home in Dillon, Montana, on a Jackson County warrant Wednesday following an investigation that spanned several weeks and involved five Oregon law enforcement agencies, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and the Montana Department of Justice, according to Jackson County Sheriff's Office spokesman Mike Moran.

The warrant accused Watters, also known by the name Levi Watters, of uploading recordings of a child involved in sexually explicit conduct between Jan. 19 and Jan. 30, according to a grand jury indictment filed last month in Jackson County Circuit Court.

On April 15, the nonprofit National Center for Missing and Exploited Children alerted the Jackson County Sheriff's Office of child pornography uploaded in the 400 block of West Valley View Road in Talent.

Moran said the sheriff's office worked for several weeks with officers from Talent and Medford police, Albany police, the Southern Oregon High-Tech Crimes Task Force and federal investigators.

Moran said Watters accessed the internet from an "unsecured private account," and said the case is a reminder for residents to lock down their Wi-Fi routers.

"If your internet pops up as the one being utilized ... you're gonna be contacted and interviewed," Moran said.

After questioning the account holder, Moran said detectives found evidence linking the child pornography to Watters.

A grand jury charged Watters Sept. 22 with eight counts of first-degree encouraging child sexual abuse, a Class B felony under Oregon law. The next day, Judge Lisa Greif issued a nationwide warrant for Watters' arrest.

Detectives working the case were aware Watters had left the state, and to track him down, the sheriff's office worked with Montana law enforcement agencies that included the Montana Department of Justice Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office and the Dillon, Montana, police department.

At 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, Watters was arrested at his home in Dillon. He was being held in the Beaverhead County Jail on $80,000 bail awaiting extradition back to Oregon.

Moran asked anyone with additional information about the case to call Det. Steve Bohn with the sheriff's office at 541-774-6800 and reference JCSO case No. 20-7216.

A new District Ranger is coming to town - Tim Lahey

Cheri Ford, Forest Supervisor for the Beaverhead-Deerlodge announced that the new Butte District Ranger is Tim Lahey. Lahey will be joining the B-D from the Willamette National Forest but is no stranger to Montana where he attended the University of Montana. He graduated from the School of Forestry and Conservation and then worked on the Region One Timber Strike Team and the Helena-Lewis & Clark National Forest. He will be starting in Butte on October 25, 2020 and is looking forward to returning to Montana.

Lahey said, "I am excited to join the team as the new Butte District Ranger. The Beaverhead-Deerlodge has always been at the top of my list of forests to work for and I am incredibly humbled to be trusted with this opportunity to serve Butte and the surrounding communities. I currently serve as the Timber Program Manager on the Willamette National Forest, a position I have held since 2013. I started my Forest Service career on the Mendocino National Forest, working in fire. I then moved to Missoula to attend the University of Montana and graduated from the School of Forestry and Conservation. Following school, I worked with the Region One Timber Strike Team. After working on the Strike Team for three years, I worked for the Helena-Lewis & Clark National Forest for seven years as a Pre-sale and Planning Forester until I moved to Eugene, OR to work for the Willamette."

I AM A REPUBLICAN BECAUSE...

I believe the strength of our nation lies with the individual and that each person's dignity, freedom, ability and responsibility must be honored.

I believe in equal rights, equal justice and equal opportunity for all, regardless of race, creed, sex, age or disability.

I believe free enterprise and encouraging individual initiative have brought this nation opportunity, economic growth and prosperity.

I believe government must practice fiscal responsibility & allow individuals to keep more of the money they earn.

I believe the proper role of government is to provide for the people only those critical functions that cannot be performed by individuals or private organizations and that the best government is that which governs least.

I believe the most effective, responsible & responsive government is government closest to the people.

I believe Americans must retain the principles that have made us strong while developing new and innovative ideas to meet the challenges of changing times.

I believe Americans value & should preserve our national strength & pride while working to extend peace, freedom and human rights throughout the world.

Finally, I believe the Republican Party is the best vehicle for translating these ideals into positive and successful principles of government.
