Edward Carpita

July 28. 1942 – October 13, 2020

Edward "Ed" Carpita passed away on October 13, 2020 in Reno, Nevada due to numerous health issues resulting in kidney, liver and heart failure.

Ed was born to Daniel "Dan" and Marvelyn (Gleed) Carpita on July 28, 1942 in Dillon, Montana. Ed participated in baseball and was active in Boy Scouts which allowed him to attend the National Boy Scout's Jamboree in Valley Forge in 1957 along with five other scouts from Dillon. In high school he was a manager for the Beaver Football team with "Lots of Work – But Little Glory" for the team managers, according to the Dillon Tribune, October 31, 1957. He attended Dillon schools, graduating from Beaverhead County High School in 1960. Following high school Ed attended Western Montana College for a year. Shortly thereafter he joined the US Navy, serving as a corpsman at the US Naval Hospital in Balboa, California.

Upon Ed's honorable discharge from the Navy he remained in California and Nevada. In 1969, Ed married Kathy O'Farrell and with this marriage Ed gained a daughter, Lisa and a year later another daughter, Michelle, was added to their family. Kathy and Ed later divorced.

Over the years, Ed worked for the Sacramento, California School district, retiring as a lead custodian. In about 2009 Ed and Kathy, his ex-wife, reconnected and in 2010 they remarried, thus bringing Kathy, Lisa and Michelle back into his life. Ed dearly loved his two girls and often commented how much he enjoyed them. He felt truly blessed. Kathy and Ed had eight years together as Kathy passed away in 2018. As Ed's health declined Michelle moved in with her Dad and became his care giver up until his death.

Ed is preceded in death by his grandparents, Ed and Iris Gleed, Cesare and Mary Carpita, parents, Dan and Marvelyn (Gleed) Carpita, his wife, Kathy and aunts, uncles and cousins.

Ed is survived by his daughters, Lisa Phillips (New York), Michelle Phillips (Sparks, NV), his two brothers, Dan Carpita (Buckley, WA), Jim (Myrna) Carpita (Dillon, MT) and several nieces and nephews and cousins.

Graveside services will be held on Thursday, October 22, 2020, 1:00 p.m. at the Mountain View Cemetery, Dillon, Montana. Please join us in remembrance of Ed and for a small gathering after services at the home of Jim and Myrna Carpita at 4605 Argenta Rd., Dillon, Montana.

The Coffee Pot

Bryce Angell

We'd camped back in the Yellowstone, October 2010. The rain changed into freezin' snow, we sure weren't mountain men.
So, we shoveled in our breakfast, bacon, eggs and fried up spuds.
Then we had to get a movin' or we'd freeze right in our duds.
We caught and grained the pack mules, cinched a saw buck on each one, and started fillin' panniers. Soon the tedious work was done.
Each pannier had to weigh the same for balance on the mule.
If your load rolls underneath the mule, you'd be a doggone fool.
We tarped the packs and tied em down with rope and baler twine.
It was time to hit the trail. We were runnin' short of time.
I climbed up on my saddle horse with lead rope in my grip.
My body felt the sudden pangs inflicted from this trip.
When dang it all I saw our coffee pot still on the ground.
How did we miss a red tin can with white stuff all around?
So, we climbed back down then tied the pot up top the mule and pack, with a handle that was clankin' like a rundown Cadillac.
For sure we all knew better. Should have fixed the coffee pot.
But were tired of wastin' time and kicked the horses to a trot.
We didn't make it out of camp before ole Pal went wild! He started in a buckin' like a spoiled, unruly child.
I dropped the pack mule's lead rope then he started in to buck.
When he bumped the mule ahead of him. It weren't our day for luck.
'Cuz that dang ole mule decided he would buck a time or two.
He ran into his saddle horse. That horse was buckin' too!
Two doggone mules, two saddle horses buckin' in the snow.
It sure werent' like a rodeo. More like a horror show.
We calmed the buckin' horses, but the coffee pot and gear were strung from hell to breakfast, prob'ly tossed into next year.
I cussed the ground we walked on and so mad was blowin' snot.
Then started packin' panniers, but this time, no coffee pot.

BLM revises Bear Creek Fire closure order as rehab work is set to begin

The Bureau of Land Management's Dillon Field Office has revised its earlier temporary closure order for the Bear Creek Fire to provide additional access for hunters in the coming winter months.

The order takes effect at 12:01 a.m. Oct. 17 and will re-open T10S, R15W, Section 35 to the public, reducing the closure by 640 acres. At the same time, the field office will keep the rest of the burned area closed to the public until spring to protect land damaged in the fire as rehabilitation efforts proceed.

"One of our biggest concerns in the area is public safety due to hazardous trees, as well as protecting resources which can become fragile after a fire of this intensity," said Dillon Field Manager Amanda James.

The Dillon Field Office is scheduled to begin emergency stabilization treatments next week.

"These are broadcast seeding projects and it will be important to keep the area protected from additional ground disturbance," James noted.

The Bear Creek Fire was first reported Aug. 11 and went on to torch nearly 12,000 acres in southwest Montana. The new BLM order complements the ongoing closure on public land administered by the U.S. Forest Service in the area.

A copy of the closure order and a map of the impacted area are available at the Dillon Field Office, 1005 Selway Drive, Dillon, MT 59725. For more information, call (406) 683-8050.

Montana Law Enforcement Academy Hosts Silent Witness Exhibit

In observance of Domestic Violence Awareness Month, the Montana Law Enforcement Academy (MLEA) is host to the Montana Silent Witness exhibit until October 23. The public is invited to MLEA, located at 2260 Sierra Road East in Helena, to see the exhibit between 8:00 am - 5:00 pm. Masks are required at all times on campus.

The Silent Witness display is comprised of 95 red wooden silhouettes of female victims. Attached to each silhouette is a gold shield memorializing a woman killed during a domestic violence incident in Montana. Children who died with their mothers are also represented on the shields. This year, MLEA partnered with Montana's Veterans Administration Health Care System to increase public awareness by sharing ten of the silhouettes, which are displayed indoors at Fort Harrison Medical Center.

"Last year, Montana's law enforcement officers responded to more than 4,000 cases of domestic violence statewide. Tragically, that means a Montanan is beaten, abused, or strangled by a partner or family member every 2.5 hours," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "It's important for anyone experiencing violence at home to know there are community resources available, and to reach out without delay. I ask all Montanans to continue to work diligently during these unprecedented times to keep domestic violence victims safe and hold offenders accountable," Fox added.

According to the 2019 Montana Domestic Violence Fatality Review Commission report, between 2000 - 2018, 200 Montanans died as a result of domestic violence. Firearms continue to be the most frequently used weapon in these homicides (72%), and 74% of the perpetrators were male.

During the 2017 legislative session, the Montana Department of Justice drafted Senate Bill 153 in concert with the Yellowstone County Attorney's Office. The new law gives law enforcement and prosecutors the tools they need to address serial domestic violence in the state, establishing a felony offense of strangulation. Montana's old law did not distinguish strangulation from other crimes of assault.

The Montana Silent Witness Initiative, established in 1999, aims to promote successful community-based domestic violence reduction efforts in order to reach zero domestic murders. There are similar projects in all 50 states and in 23 countries.
