BUSINESS MEETING SCHEDULED FOR DILLON ROTARY WEDNESDAY

The Dillon Rotarians will conduct their business meeting on Wednesday, November 4, 2020. Visitors are welcome.

Anyone interested in learning more about Rotary should come at noon to be a guest for lunch. The Club meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, 203 East Glendale St. For more information, email Mike Blando at mikeblando0717@gmail.com or Tina Giem at tgiem@barrethospital.org.

Be Responsible with Warming Fires

As days become shorter and temperatures drop, the Montana Department of Natural Resources & Conservation (DNRC) encourage hunters and campers to be cautious with their warming or campfires. Despite the changing weather conditions, vegetation has dried back out and a spark from a warming or campfire could ignite a destructive wildfire. Before leaving home, check to see if there are fire restrictions for your destination. Be informed about local weather conditions and avoid building a fire during periods of high winds. When building a warming or campfire, clear away all leaves and other combustible material. Do not build a fire underneath overhanging branches, against a tree stump, or directly on vegetation. Remember to store your firewood a safe distance upwind of the fire and always keep a bucket of water, dirt, and shovel nearby. Most importantly, never leave a fire unattended.

As you prepare to leave your campsite, make sure your fire is out and cold to the touch. Drown the fire with water. Make sure all embers, coals or sticks are wet. Stir the remains with a shovel. Add more water and dirt and then stir again. Be sure all burned material is extinguished and cooled. Place the back of your hand near the fire to feel for any heat. If it is still warm, continue adding water and dirt and stir again until everything is cool.

In 2020, eight out of ten wildfires in Montana have been caused by humans. By being prepared and responsible while enjoying the outdoors this fall, we can all make a difference in reducing human-caused fires. Montana firefighters encourage you to remember, one less spark means one less wildfire.

If you already received pictures but want a new picture taken, you must bring your old picture packet and give it to the photographer in order to not be charged twice.

Friday, November 6th, is the end of the first quarter. Report cards will go home the following Friday, November 13th.

In boys' basketball this week, the B teams will travel to Deer Lodge. The bus will leave at 2:15 PM. Games will be at 4:00 PM for 7B and 5:00 PM for 8B. In girls' cross fit, the 7th and 8th grade girls will be doing weight training. 8th grade girls will participate on Monday and Thursday. 7th grade girls will have their opportunity on Tuesday and Friday.

Last week was Red Ribbon Week. The students and staff had a lot of fun participating in spirit days and competing in their first period classes with a door decorating contest. Also an individual poster contest was held. Stay tuned for results from these two contests.

Youth Election results were a spot-on predictor for candidate wins in 2016. All but one candidate chosen by the youth election were the winners of the 2016 general election, and that incorrect prediction was only by a handful of votes.

Montana Youth Vote is a collaborative effort between the Secretary of State's Office and the Office of Public Instruction. The purpose of the Youth Vote is to provide students the experience of voting, their most important civic duty as American citizens.

Letter to the Editor Using Your Voting Freedom

Tomorrow is the last day voters can cast their ballots for our national leaders. Have you, or will you, exercise that basic American privilege of freedom? When we sort through all the rationale for HOW people make their choice, we are told that the privilege of each individual breaks down into two categories: the freedom to follow one's feelings -- or -- the freedom to follow one's higher but deeper conscience.

Currently, we have a messy lack of a consensus among our many minds. In past decades the "feeling" voters" have been influenced in traversing several dead-end roads which significantly influence choices on the ballots. One is scientific materialism that claims no non-physical reality, but this mostly faded away when faced with very real factors such as love, lust, bias, etc. And, 150 years ago philosophers began to tackle evolution, a theory which still hangs on in spite of zero probability that life can begin with non-life and a total lack of transitional fossils. A third influence for some makes human beings a complex element of "Mother Nature."

All of these efforts, which try to leave a real Creator out of the equation, have lead philosophers to conclude that many make pantheistic choices, being convinced they need no factual reason for their choices. They make a god of themselves, quite content in their "feelings." Falsehoods and inconsistencies do not seriously affect their voting choices: They say, "I enjoy using my right!"

Although it is endangered, the other category of voting privilege are those who feel compelled to follow a "deeper conscience" than inner feelings. This is a mixed group. They often give more recognition to moral values, perhaps from the traditions of their bringing-up. Otherwise, some are non-hesitant to choose public leaders who support the principles they assert are found in the Bible. Many of these acclaim their moral choices are those deeply-rooted in their conscience and find contentment in their observed favorable results. Some point to end-time Bible prophecies that indicate a brief world-wide victory by an Antichrist preceding an earthly return of Jesus Christ.

All seem agreed that the future of life in America relies heavily on the outcome of this election tomorrow. Good citizenship needs participation by all. Thus, make sure you cast your vote!

Re-posting a story...Too funny not to share:

My neighbors were just out walking their dog. During our friendly conversation, I asked their little girl what she wanted to be when she grew up. She said she wanted to be President someday. Both of her parents, Democratic Party members, were standing there so I asked her, "If you were President what would be the first thing you would do?"

She replied, "I'd give food and houses to all the homeless people." Her parents beamed with pride!

"Wow...what a worthy goal," I said... "But you don't have to wait until you're President to do that!"

"What do you mean?" she replied.

So I told her, You can come over to my house and mow the lawn, pull weeds, and trim my hedge, and I'll pay you $50. Then you can go over to the grocery store where the homeless guy hangs out, and you can give him the $50 to use toward food and a new house. She thought that over for a few seconds, then she looked me straight in the eye and asked, "Why doesn't the homeless guy come over and do the work and you can just pay him the $50?"

I said, "Welcome to the Republican Party!"

Her parents aren't speaking to me anymore.
