A family project! Love in a shoebox!

This is part of a national effort to help children across the country and around the world. Everyone can help!

If you would like to support this project, this is what it involves:

- 1) Put together a shoe box to send to a child, or
- 2) Make a Donation – every donation helps. Shipping costs $9 per box. You can make checks payable to Samaritan's Purse/Shoe box and drop off at Mary Bearden's house.

If you would like to be part of this amazing program and have questions or would like more information, contact Mary Bearden (925-2218 or 683-2037). It would be great to have boxes sooner, but the last day to drop off will be November 16th, 2020. Last minute drop off ok.

Shoebox details: NOTHING liquid, No food, No Candy, NO chocolate, No toothpaste, No war toys or guns, No breakable items. Simple rules, but please read....

1. Shoe Box: Use an empty shoebox or a small plastic container. You can wrap the box (lid separately), but wrapping is not required.

2. Choose: Boy or Girl: Determine whether your gift will be for a boy or a girl.

Choose child's age category: 2-4, 5-9, or 10-14.

Mary has extra labels you can use when you drop off your box or you can print out the appropriate boy/girl label by downloading the artwork from Operation Christmas Child website. Tape the label to the top of your box.

3. Fill the box with a variety of gifts that will bring delight to a child. Please include at least one item a child can immediately embrace such as a stuffed toy, doll, ball or toy truck. Other ideas: school supplies, toothbrush, crayons, coloring book, pencil/pencil sharpener, construction paper, comb, bar soap/wash rag, note pad, under garments, socks...depends on the age and gender of the child. There are more ideas on the Operation Christmas Child website. <https://www.samaritanspurse.org/what-we-do/operation-christmas-child/>

4. Please include $9 Donation for each shoebox you prepare to help cover shipping and other project costs.

5. Drop Off: Place a rubber band around the box (Mary has extras if you need one).

Let's work together to brighten a child's life!

Thank you!

Mary Bearden

Stolen Solitude

Bryce Angell

I rolled out of my sleeping bag, still fightin' sleepy haze. Then turned ten hungry horses out. I watched them as they grazed. On my sixteenth year I guided at the Bechler Meadows Camp. The nights were cold. October frost turned dry grass into damp. So, I hopped up on ole Stretch's back to keep my cold feet dry. I could hear the cook a cussin' 'bout the fish he had to fry. I pulled my Stetson past my ears. The fall air nipped a bite. Then looked out on the river, not a fisherman in sight. The Bechler wasn't quiet but the sounds were all her own. And one thing was for certain. We were out there all alone. I shoveled in three hotcakes with a fried egg flipped on top. Then licked my plate so doggone clean, I didn't leave a drop. Our fishermen were ready. They weren't wastin' time to veg. So, we rode on down the Bechler, dropped em near the river's edge. I made a point of telling them, "The Bechler's still unknown. I hope you don't get lonely 'cuz the river's all your own." I just turned sixty-seven years. That trip was long ago. The Bechler's since discovered. It's the place for all to go. Last week we saddled up and rode the meadow for a day. We witnessed scores of hikers. They were hellbent on their way. One hiker came a runnin'. Said, "I didn't have a clue. My cell phone has no service. Now I don't know what to do." I must have looked confused from all the masses, I was told. What brought the hordes, the multitudes? Had someone hollered, "Gold!" As Edens are discovered it's for dang sure gonna hurt. The droves will keep consuming. God ain't makin' no more dirt. The world will deem it progress of the wonders we can't hide. I call it Bechler Meadows and for now I will abide.

PERFECT TIMING

By "Swede" Troedsson

In 1972, I was employed by the Forest Service. On weekends I volunteered as a ski patrolman on the Maverick Mountain Ski Area. One weekend I rescued a twelve year old girl with a badly fractured lower leg. She was in great pain, crying, shivering, and scared. I carefully splinted her leg, and tenderly bedded her down in the rescue toboggan. The trip down the ski hill was as smooth as I could make it.

It turned out the girl was Kathy France (now DeRuwe), the daughter of the famous Johnny France. (Johnny later became the Madison County Sheriff. He went on to ambush and arrest the "mountain men", who had captured Kari Swenson, a cross country ski racer who was training for the Olympics.)

About six years later I was making a trip to the West Fork of the Madison to inspect a timber sale.

On my way down to the Madison, I stopped at the Ennis Cafe to purchase some chewing gum. Upon entering the cafe, I approached a beautiful waitress at the cash register and asked to buy a pack of chewing gum. She looked up at me, and much to my amazement, came around from behind the counter, threw her arms around me, and said "Swede, how great to see you!" The waitress was Kathy France!

In developing this story, in 2020, I called the France home to inquire as to what year Kathy fractured her leg. Sue France (Kathy's Mother) answered the phone, and informed me that Kathy was standing right beside her in the room. Kathy and I had a great discussion. She had retired as a school teacher in Oregon, and just happened to be visiting her parents. What follows is an email that Kathy sent me later that evening: "What a wonderful surprise I had tonight. As soon as I heard my mom say the name "Swede" I leaned in closer to her. I knew it couldn't possibly be my Swede on the other end of the call. There is perfect timing in everything and tonight revealed that once again. Sure enough, the clear voice and easy laugh proved to be my handsome mountain rescuer from over 45 years ago. Swede, it is an honor that you even remembered me, although I'm sure being the daughter of my legendary Montana father helped. Johnny France has been my hero for so many years and for so many reasons, yet tonight I was able to travel back in time and reminisce about another hero who years ago rescued me off the steep, cold mountain and brought me flowers to my hospital room the next day. I distinctly remember the doctor saying if the ski patrol hadn't been so gentle I would have had a severe compound fracture because my leg was broken in three places from my ankle to my knee. Thank you for your kindness and tenderness. (By the way, you also gave me a ski pin which I still have tucked in my jewelry box.)"
