Jackie Jenkins

Jackie Jenkins passed away in her home suddenly on Saturday November 7, 2020.

Jackie Jenkins was born on May 26, 1953 to Betty and Donald Cameron at the Fort Robert's Military Base in California. Jackie was the oldest of six children and helped care for each of her brothers and sisters. She has 3 children, Heidi (husband Jeremy) Tracy (wife Nikki) and Chad (wife Heather).

Jackie married her soul mate, Rosser Jenkins September 12, 1992. Jackie had many jobs but her most loved job was caring for her family. She loved to bake and cook! Her house was always full of tasty aromas and hungry bellies ready to fill. Ross and Jackie spent most of their summer days camping and enjoying the beautiful mountain scenes. She will be remembered as a wonderful and caring woman who always left her door open to anyone who needed it. We will all remember her fun and silly personality and how she loved not only her immediate family but also those she took in and "adopted" as her own.

Jackie had a life full of so much love and was always there to help care for her grandchildren, Levi (significant other Shelby), TJ (wife Allaryce), Cody (wife Serenity), Rose, Lillian, Deziree, Richard, Dakkota, Kole, Madisyn, Cameron and Damien. Jackie was even more thrilled when she could help care for her many, many great grandchildren.

She always told each and every one she cared for "I love you to the moon and back" and now it is our time to say not only Rest in Peace but we love you to the moon and back! Jackie is preceded in death by her father Donald and mother Betty and her sister Jeanne.

You can cry because she is gone or you can smile because she lived. You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left. Your heart can be empty because you can not see her or you can be full of the love that you have shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her and only that she is gone or you can cherish her memory and let her live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back or you can do what she would have wanted: Smile, Open your eyes, Love and Go on!

GEER Grant Provides Scholarship Opportunities for Distance Students in Education

The University of Montana Western was awarded a short-term Governor's Emergency Education Relief (GEER) grant from the Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education in September.

The purpose of the one-year, $140,000 grant is to address teacher shortages in rural areas of Montana by increasing online course sections, investing in new distance delivery technologies, and providing scholarships to distance students pursuing teacher certification and associates degrees in education and early childhood education.

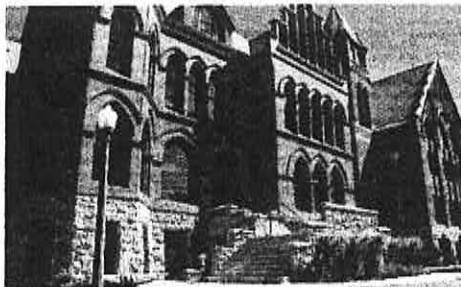

Montana Western's Director of Research and Grants, Dr. Anneliese Ripley, said, "The University is thrilled to receive support for this important work. Schools represent the heart of rural communities and they often struggle to attract trained educators. This grant supports distance delivery of education coursework to underserved areas and addresses rural training needs for early childhood professionals, paraprofessionals, and provisionally licensed teachers."

This grant includes scholarship money that is available for eligible individuals who enroll in online education courses at Montana Western for spring and summer of 2021. Several applicants have expressed what the GEER scholarship funds would mean to them if awarded.

"As a working mother of two, the scholarship funds mean less financial burden for me. I am 40 years old with three teenage children. Now I have the time to go back to school, better our lives, and serve as a role model for my children. Going back to school is particularly difficult this year due to COVID-19. I have goals and accomplishments to achieve, pandemic or not. This program brings me one step closer to becoming a teacher," one applicant said.

For more information, please contact Stacie Watkins in the Montana

Western School of Outreach at 406-683-7333. All GEER scholarship applications must be submitted by December 15, 2020. Please follow this link for the GEER scholarship application: <https://w.umwestern.edu/section/geer-scholarship-application-form/>.

Southwest Montana hunters see varied success

General deer and elk hunting season reaches mid point

Hunter numbers and success continue to vary in southwest Montana as recent snowfall facilitated some harvest opportunity while creating challenges for travel and access.

Biologists use check stations to collect data on hunter participation and success, as well as the species, sex and age class of the animals harvested. This supplements data collected through hunter harvest phone surveys.

The Alder check station saw 14 percent of hunters whom harvested an animal. This was the highest success rate for hunters at this check station so far this year.

In a preliminary total, biologists checked about 28 elk, 18 mule deer and 7 white-tailed deer, among other species.

These figures do not account for different hunting season regulations over the years, which have varied from liberal to restrictive for elk and mule deer, depending on population status.

READY FOR TYREE TO CARVE THE THANKSGIVING TRIVIA?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

As your host, I have gathered a cornucopia of genuine Thanksgiving trivia, thanks to "Good Housekeeping" magazine and other sources.

(Granted, "Good Housekeeping" reached its peak of relevance in the June Cleaver era. Today's over-scheduled families would be just as well served with subscriptions to "Adequate Housekeeping" or "Turn Out the Lights and Pretend Nobody's Home" or "Anybody Got the Energy to Activate the Roomba?" magazines.)

For starters, President Thomas Jefferson refused to celebrate Thanksgiving as a national holiday, citing concerns about separation of church and state. Coincidentally, Jefferson was the only chief executive to greet sneezing dignitaries with sympathetic comments of, not "Bless you," but "We hold these truths to be self-evident: it must suck to be you."

The day after Thanksgiving is the busiest day of the year for PLUMBERS. I keep reassuring myself, "It's because people wanted a vanity just like the one they saw at their cousin's house, it's because people wanted a vanity just like the one they saw at their cousin's house..."

At the end of the annual Detroit Thanksgiving Parade, Santa Claus always receives the key to the city. He then tosses the key and just steps through the broken storefront windows. ("To the top of the porch! To the top of the wall! Now dash away! Dash away! Or it's a 9-1-1 call!")

Only male turkeys can gobble. So, no, turkey hens aren't staring up at the rain; they're sizing up that @%&$ GLASS CEILING.

It gets lost in the shuffle, but Native American History Day is the same day as Black Friday. Shoppers do give a nod to the commemoration, when they growl, "Why CAN'T I get that 219-inch widescreen TV for $24 worth of trinkets? Hey, a John Wayne commemorative magazine in the checkout lane..."

California consumes the most turkey at Thanksgiving. On the other hand, the Golden State's use of wishbones ranks near the bottom, because of onerous regulations. ("If wishes were horses... then beggars might get trampled, so no wishbones without a license.")

The actual title of the song we think of as "Over the River and Through the Woods" is "The New-England Boy's Song About Thanksgiving Day." (Some whippersnapper just chimed in, "Oh, there's a song about over the river and through the woods?" Sigh I think I'll write a song called "The Tennessee Boy's Song About Youth Being Wasted on the Wrong People.")

Although George H.W. Bush was the first president to initiate a CUSTOM of pardoning a turkey before Thanksgiving, John F. Kennedy had granted a one-off pardon in 1963. Rumor attributes this to JFK being convinced that the turkey was singing "Happy birthday, Mr. President." (After this, the Secret Service began checking the eggnog more closely.)

The Butterball Turkey Talk Line answers almost 100,000 calls each season. Big deal. I get almost that many calls while I'm trying to sit down to my pumpkin pie. And most of them are either "We'd like to talk to you about the extended warranty on your Kleenex" or "I know the election is over, but I thought of a few more things I'd like to say about that commie who was running against me for dog catcher."

Eighty percent of Americans prefer LEFTOVERS to the initial meal. Remember that next year when I work off my 4,500 calories with something other than writing a brand-new column!
