Wilbur-Ellis Bids Dillon Farewell

We are sorry to announce that the Wilbur-Ellis Dillon MT Location will be closing indefinitely on December 1st, 2020. The Wilbur-Ellis Company has decided to pursue a different direction with its retail sales locations, and Dillon is one of the several locations that will be shutting down. The Wilbur-Ellis team in Dillon, MT would like to thank all customers, farmers, and ranchers for their business over the years and continued support from the community. It has been our pleasure serving the south western Montana area for the past 10 years. We wish your farm or ranch the best for 2021 and hope you have a safe and happy holiday season.

Fifteen States Receive $5.6 Million for Elk Research

Seeking to further elk-related scientific knowledge for the overall benefit of the species, the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation so far allocated $846,443 for research in 2020. Those funds leveraged an additional $4,771,734 in partner dollars.

"We need to continually accumulate all the accurate, scientific data we can in order to further our mission of ensuring the future of elk, other wildlife, their habitat and our hunting heritage," said Blake Henning, RMEF chief conservation officer. "Supporting and working alongside respected biologists and scientists from many different state agencies, universities and other organizations across the country helps us do that."

The funding supports 30 different research projects in Arizona (1), California (4), Colorado (4), Kentucky (1), Michigan (1), Montana (3), New Mexico (1), North Carolina (3), Oregon (2), Pennsylvania (1), South Dakota (1), Utah (2), Washington (1), Wisconsin (1) and Wyoming (4). Funding allocated to Arizona and New Mexico is for the same project. There is one additional project of national benefit.

Montana Western Performing Arts Series Presents "Bad Auditions"

The University of Montana Western's Theatre students are pleased to announce Montana Western's production of "Bad Auditions. . . . On Camera - A Stay-At-Home Play," November 20-24, as part of the Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series.

In its first-ever endeavor to produce theatre in a remote environment - that is, by using a video platform to cast, direct, and technically produce a show - Montana Western's drama program is making the best of the COVID-19 restrictions on large group gatherings.

"It's tested our creative skills," says Director Larry Brazill. "We have students, alumni, professors, and staff members collaborating, each in different locales across Montana...plus one in Alaska and one in Columbia! Our production meetings have been challenging, rehearsals have been productive and fun, and the technical aspects have been interesting to say the least. But I've found Montana Western's students to be bright, creative, and hard working. This year's group is no exception, and they've developed a delightful comedy under very trying and unusual conditions. We've found joy in overcoming new obstacles, and we hope you'll find some laughter when enjoying our show."

The story of "Bad Auditions" revolves around a casting director for a television show, who has one day to cast the lead role for his courtroom drama, and needs to do so not in person, but by live video auditions. From pompous and overbearing actors to flustering novices, a brooding "Method" performer, to a man who thinks he's auditioning for a commercial, the director and his assistant can barely contain their laughter and frustration as they endure the casting sessions.

Ian McWethy and Carrie McWethy (McCrossen) are the playwrights of "Bad Auditions." Montana Western is producing the play by special arrangement with Playscripts, Inc.

Audiences can view the recording of the play, free of charge, at any time Friday, Nov. 20 through Tuesday, Nov. 24, by following the link on the Montana Western website: www.umwestern.edu.

The production is part of Montana Western's Performing Arts Series sponsored by Dillon's Bank of Commerce, with additional support from ASUMW/Student Senate.

Letter to the Editor

Once again many communities in Montana, including Dillon are collecting winter coats for children and adults. What a nice gesture to all who participate in this worthwhile cause. It is much need! But! And yes, there is a but!!

Look at our President! Mr. Trump has played golf 285 times since he has been in the White house. This has cost us the taxpayers $142,000,000 just for one person to play golf. And we have to collect used coats for children of this country!! Something is wrong with this picture.

Last year the United States gave Foreign Aid to 100 different countries at a cost of over 50 billion dollars. But here at home we have to collect coats for our own children.

Last year 60 different corporations paid no federal taxes on a total of $79 billion dollars in profits. Some even got money back from the government for paying no taxes. But yes!! We are collecting coats for our own children.

Is there anybody sane in Washington D.C.? Is there anybody sane in Congress? You already know the answer.

But please give your unneeded coats to help keep children warm this winter. Will things ever change??

FWP announces candlelight tours at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park

Montana State Parks (stateparks.mt.gov) announced that Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park will once again offer the popular Holiday Candlelight Tours. These special candlelight tours of the Caverns will be offered this year Dec. 19-21 and Dec. 26-28. Seven tours will be offered daily between 9:15 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Come see the Caverns by the warm festive glow of candle lanterns as we celebrate with this holiday favorite. Tickets will be available Monday, Nov. 30, by calling the Caverns office at 406-287-3541 during reservation hours, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily. Group size is limited to 10 people per tour to comply with coronavirus safety restrictions. Tickets are non-refundable, except for cases of possible COVID-19 exposure. Refund protocols will be explained upon booking.

This year, visitors will only see the Paradise and Grand Finale rooms of the cave — the largest and most decorated portion, which allows ample social distancing. Tour tickets will reflect this abbreviated offering and will run summer Paradise Tour rates: $15 for adults (15 years and older), and $10 for children (ages 5 to 14). Children ages 4 and under are not allowed on the tour. All guests must bring and wear face masks.

Important information to consider before signing up for the tour:

- Candle lanterns will be provided by the park.
- The tour is just over 1 mile and 1½ hours long. Visitors must walk outside and may be exposed to snow, wind and cold temperatures.
- Parents need to consider if children will be comfortable in the darkness of the cave and in the outside cold temperatures. Those between the ages 5 to 8 years will not be given a lantern.
- The park road to the cave visitor center is plowed and sanded. Vehicles with four-wheel drive, all-wheel drive or front-wheel drive vehicles are recommended. The trail to and from the cave is not cleared of snow. Cave temperature is 48 degrees; outside temperature and wind can be highly variable.
- Since these tour tickets are non-refundable and date/time changes are not allowed, please do not commit to a date unless you are certain you can make that tour. Those arriving late for their tours will forfeit their spots without refunds.

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park features one of the most decorative limestone caverns in the Northwest filled with spectacular stalactites, stalagmites, columns and helictites. The park also features camping, trails to hike or bike, a state-of-the-art visitor center, interpretive displays, a gift shop, food and beverage concessions, amphitheater, and interpretive events presented during the summer months.

For more information please call Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park at (406) 287-3541 or visit: <http://stateparks.mt.gov/lewis-and-clark-caverns/>

Dillon Middle School News for the week of November 23 to 27, 2020.

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: Monday, beef soft shell tacos will be served with trimmings. Tuesday, sub sandwiches will be served with trimmings and chips.

Wednesday, only a grab and go breakfast will be served. We will have early out Wednesday, November 25th at noon. We will not be in school Thursday or Friday this week in observance of Thanksgiving.

The boys' basketball games in Anaconda went well. The last time we played Anaconda, the 7A team won and the 7B team lost. This go round, the 7B team won and the 7A team lost. Both 8th grade teams were able to pull off a win. Mr. Edwards was especially proud of the 8B team as last time they played Anaconda they were beaten. Great job guys.

Cross-training, basketball and all other after school activities have been cancelled until after winter break. We still want to share a quote that Mrs. Williams gave the girls: "Today I will do what others won't so tomorrow I can accomplish what others can't" Quote by Terry Rice.

The Annual Christmas Food Drive will begin November 30th in your 1st period classes. In Dillon there is a great need for food during the Christmas season. This is a great opportunity for everyone to participate in a cause that will benefit members of our great community.

Catch the Christmas spirit and the gift of giving. There is a great feeling that you will experience as you find opportunities to serve others. Let's all participate. We will gather food up through December 23rd.

The 1st period class that brings in the most pounds of food per person will win a pizza party with drinks. This will give every class an opportunity to win regardless of size. Please get involved for a worthy cause. Our goal is to surpass 2000 lbs of food delivered as a school. Good Luck to everyone and enjoy.

Life can sometimes be hard. What's hard on adults is just as hard, if not more, on kids. Resilience, the ability to adapt to challenges, is the most important tool a parent can give a child. Learn more about resilience by joining the Beaverhead County ACEs Task Force. We're focused on building healthy families in our community.

2 grizzly bear mortalities reported in Madison County

Two grizzly bear mortalities were recently reported inside the demographic monitoring area of Montana's portion of the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem (GYE).

A grizzly bear was reportedly shot and killed in a self-defense situation on Oct. 25 in Indian Creek of the Madison Range. The person involved in the incident left the site and contacted Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks law enforcement officers. No people were injured during the incident.

FWP staff confirmed the bear mortality. The U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service (USFWS) is investigating the incident with assistance from FWP.

The USFWS and FWP are also investigating a separate human-caused grizzly bear mortality in the Madison Range that happened on Oct. 30. Because the incident is currently under investigation, no further information is available at this time.

Grizzly bears are listed as threatened under the Endangered Species Act and managed by the USFWS. Known and probable grizzly bear mortalities in the GYE can be found on the Interagency Grizzly Bear Study Team's website: <https://go.usa.gov/xGwAJ>.

Although it's late into the fall and there's snow on the ground, grizzly bears can still be active. If you are recreating in the western half of Montana, please be prepared to encounter a grizzly bear. This includes:

- Carry bear spray and know how to use it.
- Stay alert and look for bear activity, especially where visibility and hearing are limited.
- Travel or hunt in groups and, if possible, avoid travel at dawn and dusk.
- Make your presence known by making noise. If hunting, make sure to be extra cautious of your surroundings to avoid a surprise encounter.
- Avoid carcass sites and scavenger concentrations.
- If you're successful in harvesting an animal, remove it from the field as quickly as possible. If you have to leave part of the carcass overnight, hang it in a tree in a spot you can observe from several hundred yards away so as not to surprise a bear when you return.
