Tuesday Trivia

Happy Holidays!!! Be the Change 406 Coalition is launching a trivia game over the next five weeks to celebrate YOU! Every Tuesday over the holiday season, you will have an opportunity to win a $20 gift certificate at a local business. Answers to the Tuesday Trivia Questions can be found somewhere in the body of the bordering Dillonite Daily local advertisements. You can submit your answer at the Be the Change 406 website to submit your answer and voilà, you can be a winner!

Here is this week's Tuesday Trivia Question:

Research shows that the human brain is not developed until what age_____? Substance use before then can have a negative impact on the brains healthy development which can lead to addiction, disease, depression, and even death.

Once you find the answer, please go to https://bethechange406.org/ and find the "contact" tab. Complete the form and include your answer, the location of the ad, and your phone number. The first person who answers correctly will be contacted and will win a $20 gift certificate to a local business. If you do not hear back from us, someone beat you to it!

This holiday contest is a way that Be the Change 406 Coalition can support our local businesses, engage community members, and thank Beaverhead County citizens for their support in our work to reduced underage substance use!

Letter to Santa Mailbox

The Dillon Jaycee Auxiliary will set up a Mailbox for letters to Santa during the Christmas Stroll. Watch for the location to be announced soon!

Effective immediately the Frontier Events Center in Dillon may have an in house maxim of 300 people for a single event and as soon as the additional fire equipment is installed and pending the final inspection, up to but not to exceed 1000 people may be in house for a single event.

This is great news for the events center as now we will be able to sponsor events with social distancing while we continue to complete the construction in the center.

Once the construction is complete and the COVID 19 restrictions are removed we look forward to having a huge gala grand opening, in the meantime if you have meetings and events that are below 300 people in attendance, we would invite you to consider the Frontier Events Center For reservations please call 406-660-6113.

The Bulldogs hung with the 18th ranked Oregon State Beavers for 20 minutes. Even holding a lead for a couple of minutes in the second quarter, before falling 88-54 to the Beavers in an exhibition game Saturday afternoon. The undersized Bulldogs used a potent outside attack to stun the heavily favored Beavers early on. Oregon State regrouped at the half and stormed out of the locker room with a vengeance, pounding the ball inside and using their length to alter shots and force turnovers to pull away to the big win.

Top Performers

Jenni Weber scored a team-high 12 points. She grabbed four rebounds and had two assists.

Lilly Gopher scored 11 points and three assists.

Brynley Fitzgerald scored nine points, five rebounds, two assists and a steal.

Taylor Jones scored a game-high 24 points on 10-13 shooting. She added nine rebounds and a block for Oregon State.

Aleah Goodman scored 12 points, six assists and five steals for the Beavers.

The Bulldogs will return home to face The College of Idaho on Dec. 5. Tip-off from the Straugh Gymnasium is set for 3 p.m.

Due to Frontier Conference COVID-19 protocols, spectators will not be permitted in the Straugh Gymnasium until further notice. All Bulldog Athletics home events can be streamed at www.bulldogsports.com/watch

Yellow Jacket Station

Bryce Angell

Our final stop came into view. We'd traveled bend to bend.
I wondered if the forest road would ever have an end.
We'd planned this trip for several weeks to Yellow Jacket Station.
The cabin was a welcome sight, way back in God's creation.
The woodstove warmed our cabin from the cold December air.
But the bunkbeds held no mattresses, just plywood laid out bare.
And then I got to thinking 'bout the outhouse up the hill.
It must have been near fifty yards. I shook a shivered chill.
So, my wife warmed up the chicken stew she'd cooked the night before.
I ate like no tomorrow, didn't know what lay in store.
Outside the night was closing in. I heard a coyote yip.
I wondered, "Does he feel the cold? The fall air bites a bit."
My sleeping bag lay by the stove. I soaked in all the heat.
And sleep was just a blink away, a long day now complete.
But then, I'd say around midnight or somewhere there about,
my stomach set to growling, 'cuz the stew was needing out.
I grabbed my boots and flashlight, and I rolled on out of there.
I must have been a silly sight, just boots and underwear.
The dash uphill with cheeks pressed tight met early morning sleet.
But nothing could deter me from the outhouse one-hole seat.
I sat for just a minute. Soon the privy felt like ice.
Oh, how I missed my throne at home, a comfy paradise.
I doubt the old-time rangers ever gave a second thought.
They prob'ly thought this outhouse was the finest money bought.
Then walking back, I pondered 'bout those days of old frontier.
I stoked the fire and climbed in bed. I ain't no pioneer.

City/County Board of Health By: MJ

Question: Has Dillon become a breeding ground for displaying personal anger and dislike? It appears so when one reads the opinions being published, social media postings, and talk on the street. There seems to be a strong difference of opinions in the community about the protection process used by humans for Covid-19. We hear people advocating corporation and working together, yet when you walk around the corner that same person is throwing someone under the bus for their opinion. Question: Would cooperating mean we would acutely listen to a person with different ideas, have a dialog between 2+ persons without hostility and discuss both ideas politely to find solutions? Let us remember that everyone comes from a different background and their opinions are basically based on that background.

At the City County Health Board 4± hour meeting held Nov. 23, 2020, there was cooperation with the personnel involved hearing others by attentively listening, responding politely when required, taking into consideration what ideas may or may not work with stopping the increases of Covid-19 in the area. There was 68± public citizens that were given an allotted time to speak on at the meeting if they chose.

NOTE: Yes, there were strong opinions discussed along with scientific facts as known today, however the discussion was done in a cordial manner.

Ms. O'Rourke:; asked why there is not stronger leadership by mayor, businesses and others, speaking out saying they are in support of masks and social distancing. She would like to see a change of attitude from bitterness to cooperation. One of her questions was; why our leaders do not step up and be leaders. Question: Was this a slap in the face to the leaders in our community that are working hard to protect against the virus. NOTE: Before we throw leaders under the bus lets visit the establishment, communicate and factually see what is being done to protect people. Ms. O'Rourke, a city council member may also be on a board or committee where she is the leader. There are many leaders in the community from: commissioners, attorneys, judges, administrators of schools, teachers, business owners, executives.... Suggestion: The schools may be a place to visit, communicate with the leaders and see how they are keeping the COVID-19 numbers down.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Dillon/Beaverhead Community,

Today is Giving Tuesday, the Tuesday every year after Thanksgiving, where nonprofits across the country receive extraordinary support.

In our community, we are fortunate to have many great organizations supporting people in need, protecting our natural resources and public lands, and the animals in our community.

This year has been particularly difficult for many in our community. Listed below are some of the organizations who've done extraordinary work in the wake of the global pandemic, along with other nonprofits in the community:

The Community Support Center has been serving survivors of domestic and sexual violence for over 40 years. This year in the wake of the Covid pandemic, CSC rented additional shelter space to accommodate the increased demand for emergency safe shelter.
