Jimmie (Jim) Lee Grube

May 6, 1933- December 10, 2020

Jimmie(Jim)Lee Grube born May 6, 1933 to Merle Perry Grube and Evelyn Mckerigan in Green Timber, Idaho, east of Ashton, ID. The oldest of five children.

He grew up being the one who helped his dad with the sour horses his dad Merle traded for or was asked to rehabilitate. That began a legacy that would be his life: A teamster, a horseman, and a cowman. A friend recently told me, "That when Jim Grube showed up everything just leveled out and was going to be fine."

He and his wife Lois worked on several different ranches during their lifetime. Most were in Southwest Montana. He always left them in better shape than when he started.

In the 1970's and 80's he spent his spare time competing in Draft horse pulls. It was a beautiful chemistry to watch. His horses were quiet, broke, in shape because he used them all the time. His horses were using horses, they pulled the hay sleds or logging sled the same as they competed. This applied to his riding horses as well. If he was in the field roping to doctor cattle or in an arena team roping.

On September 19, 2015 Jim was inducted into the Montana Draft Teamster Hall of Fame, at the Draft Horse Show in Deer Lodge, MT. A physical recognition for a lifetime of doing what he loved.

He was a devoted husband of 66 years. Showing all who knew him the meaning of his wedding vows. When his wife got sick in 1998 he spent the next 22 years making sure she was cared for and stayed with her.

He is survived by his 2 children Kim (Steve) Hirschy, and Matt (Kelle) Grube. Four Grandchildren Dustin (Natasha) Hirschy, Brandy Hirschy (Willis), Jeremy (Jennifer) Grube and Echo Grube (Brandon) and 8 Great grandchildren.

7th COVID-19 DEATH

Beaverhead County Health Public Health deeply regrets to report that a woman in her 80s died from COVID-19 on December 11th after being hospitalized in a Beaverhead County facility. Public Health is saddened by the loss of several community members in the last few weeks due to COVID-19 and our hearts and prayers go out to all of the family and friends of these individuals. Public Health continues to strongly emphasize the importance of doing everything you can to help decrease the spread of COVID infection in our communities. Reconsider any gatherings over 10 people. The risk of spread increases as the number of people in a group increase. Celebrate the Holidays and enjoy the season, but please be extra vigilant through mask-wearing, social distancing, reduced group size, and frequent hand-washing.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Bill Knox, Undersheriff

December 15, 2020

The Holiday Season is upon us, so I would like to take this opportunity on behalf of the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office to wish everyone a joyous holiday season from the entire staff.

As we move forward through the Holidays, I would like to remind everyone that protection from the COVID-19 virus should be on everyone's mind. MASK UP when in situations that Social Distancing is not possible. Proper hand washing is another way to help prevent the spread of this Virus. One of the hardest things that should be accomplished is to limit our Social gatherings to fewer than 10 people. Going into the Holidays knowing that we spread this dreaded virus to one our loved ones would be devastating.

We realize that not everyone is utilizing face coverings as a means of protection against the virus. Please consider that every type of face covering provides some level of protection. Even a simple cloth masks could make the difference.

Please MASK UP, WASH YOUR HANDS, PRACTICE SOCIAL DISTANCING AND LIMIT SOCIAL GATHERINGS.

Have a very MERRY CHRISTMAS and Very Healthy 2021.

RMEF Tops 8 Million Acres in Mission Accomplishment

The Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation recently surpassed more than eight million acres of lifetime conservation work over its 36-year history.

"This is a noteworthy landmark and one worth celebrating, yet what we're really talking about is significant, measureable on the ground conservation accomplishment that permanently protects or enhances wildlife habitat across elk country and benefits a majestic and iconic species," said Kyle Weaver, RMEF president and CEO.

RMEF crossed the 8 million-acre threshold after making a $50,000 donation for a 2,892-acre conservation easement in the Pine Ridge region of northwest Nebraska, an area that provides prime habitat for elk, bighorn sheep and other wildlife in addition to important riparian habitat connected to numerous springs, a creek and the White River.

COPING TIPS TO DEAL WITH COVID-19

The COVID-19 pandemic has caused many Montanans stress, burnout, and anxiety. While many COVID precautions emphasize physical health protection, there is a marked increase in many people feeling overwhelmed.

"It's just as important to protect your mental health," according to Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council chairperson, Heidi Peterson. There are a number of different coping resources available, she said. "Sometimes you need help to deal with feelings of isolation, loss, fear, uncertainty, depression, and anxiety. We want to be sure folks are aware of what's available during this ongoing period of uncertainty."

- Area residents, struggling with the pandemic's broad impact, can call the Montana Crisis Recovery hotline at 1-877-503-0833. It provides free and confidential counseling services from trained crisis counselors from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday. This new service is meant to help health care workers, school officials, farmers, ranchers, veterans, and all area residents struggling with the impact of the ongoing pandemic.
- The Montana Warm Line provides non-emergency mental health support. It offers anonymity, which can greatly ease any fear of stigma associated with seeking help. The Warm Line (1-877-688-3377) is a non-crisis peer support line. There is also an informational website (<http://www.montanawarmline.org>), weekly Open Chat line, call-in support groups and call-in FYI sessions.
- The Crisis Text Line is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, by texting MT to 741 741.
- The Montana Suicide Prevention Lifeline is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, at 800-273-TALK (8255).
- Thrive by Waypoint Health, an online cognitive behavioral therapy for those actively working to manage anxiety and stress, is available at <https://thriveformontana.com/>.

The 2020-21 holiday season is unlike any other before. Holidays are often challenging, but COVID-19 created a major upheaval for all of us. Here are some helpful tips & insights to use during this unpredictable time.

REACH OUT

If you feel lonely or isolated, seek out community, religious or other social events, many of which may be accessed virtually. They can offer support & companionship. Leaning into trusted others is the most powerful way to feel better. If you may do so safely, volunteer your time to help others as a good way to lift your spirits & broaden your friendships.
