Roberta A Moore

October 29, 1919 - December 19, 2020

At the age of 101, Roberta Jane "Jayne" Armitage Moore ("Berta" to her family) passed away peacefully in her sleep on December 19, 2020 at The Legacy Assisted Living in Dillon, Montana.

Roberta was born to Rommel Joseph Armitage and Florence Esmeralda Magill Armitage on October 29, 1919, in San Bernardino, California.

Roberta graduated from Redlands

High School in Redlands, California, in 1937. In June of 1941, at her mother's request, she accompanied her brother, Jess Armitage, to Montana with intention of visiting family in the area for two weeks, then returning home. Instead, she met Jim Moore and decided to stay in Montana a bit longer.

She obtained her certificate (equivalent to an Associate Degree in Business) from Butte Business School in Butte, Montana, in 1941 and only returned to California to visit.

Roberta worked for Currie Nash and Western Auto in Butte, Montana, before moving to Sheridan, Montana, where she worked for Walters Store and the Bank of Sheridan. She worked at the bank from 1945 until retiring as head Cashier in 1978, taking time out while her children were small.

Roberta married James Brundage Moore on August 5, 1943, in a private ceremony at the parsonage of Mountain View Methodist Church in Butte Montana. Together they had three daughters, Margaret, Jayne, and Mary. She resided in Sheridan, Montana, until as a widow, she moved to Dillon, Montana, in 2003.

Roberta was a life-long volunteer in her church and her community. As an eighth-grader she created and directed the Easter program at her Sunday School in San Timoteo Canyon. She was an organist at Bethel Methodist Church for many years and played for many weddings and funerals throughout the Ruby Valley. She was a Sunday school teacher, worked with the Methodist Youth Fellowship and sang in and directed adult and children's choirs. At the time of her retirement from the Bank of Sheridan, she was a member of Friendship Circle, an officer in Bethel Methodist Church, a member of Arcelia Chapter Order of Eastern Star, No. 34, and a member of the Rainbow board and Mother Advisor for many years. As she aged and lost her ability to play piano and organ, she continued serving by hosting a Bible study in her home after she moved to Dillon and used her extensive knowledge of sacred music helping the worship committee at Grace United Methodist Church to select hymns and special choir music.

Roberta was preceded in death by her husband, parents, seven siblings, twenty brothers- and sisters-in-law, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Roberta is survived by her daughters: Margaret (Mike) Hofacker, Boise, Idaho; Jayne (Tom) Parker, West Fargo, North Dakota; and Mary (Forrest) Karlsgodt, Dillon, Montana; 10 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren with another expected in March.

In an interview in 1978, Roberta said, "I feel a need that everything I do should glorify God, which can be done through my music, the organizations I belong to, gardening,

Fox Praises Senate Passage of CSKT Water Compact

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox issued the following statement after the U.S. Senate passed legislation that included approval of the CSKT water compact:

"After passing our legislature in 2015, the water compact between the state of Montana and the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes of the Flathead Reservation has passed Congress and is on its way to the president. I cannot overstate the historic significance of this milestone in the 165 years since the signing of the Hellgate Treaty. I am grateful to Montana's Congressional delegation for making this momentous occasion possible."

Fox opposed the 2013 draft of the compact because it did not provide sufficient protections and certainty for water rights holders. Fox and his staff then worked with all parties to bring key changes, and as a result, in 2015 the compact passed Montana's legislature with bipartisan support. The compact then went to Congress for consideration.

MONTANA TECH SENIOR FORWARD NAMED MEN'S BASKETBALL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Taylor England of Montana Tech was selected the Frontier Conference's Men's Basketball Player of the Week.

England is a 6-foot-7 senior forward from Helena, Mont. In their conference opener, Tech beat (RV) Carroll College, 82-62.

In the victory, England scored 20 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. He was 6 of 10 from the field and 8 of 11 from the free throw line.

Montana Western Student Profile: Mackenzie Hairston

Mackenzie Hairston is a sophomore from Great Falls, Mont., majoring in Biology and Secondary Education.

Hairston first learned about Montana Western from the teachers in her high school. After researching the university, Hairston was impressed by UMW's well-known education program and the affordability of tuition and decided to apply.

Since arriving at UMW, Hairston has enjoyed the unique block schedule and Experience One approach to learning. With Experience One, students at Montana Western take one course at a time for 18 days, take a short break, and then move on to their next course. By utilizing block scheduling combined with immersive learning, UMW is the only public four-year university in the country to employ this model that is focused on student success. Experience One has allowed Hairston to learn in the classroom as well in the field, gaining real-world experience in both Biology and Education.

"I really enjoy the hands-on and outdoor experiences I've had with Experience One. Being able to get out in the field and learn by actively doing feels like a huge advantage. The beautiful landscape of the Dillon area is just a bonus," Hairston said.

The small class sizes and sense of community at UMW have allowed Hairston to thrive by making friends and establishing relationships with both her peers and professors. Hairston has also enjoyed the many extracurricular activities and events the campus has to offer. She actively participates in Terra Verde, Gamers of the Gathering and Trap Shooting clubs as well as volunteering at the local animal shelter.

After graduation, Hairston is still deciding on whether to attend graduate school to pursue a career in Biotechnology or go straight into teaching at the high school level. Whatever path Hairston chooses, she's confident that UMW will give her the tools she needs to succeed.

For more information about Experience One and the University of Montana Western, or to schedule a visit, call 877-683-7331 or visit www.umwestern.edu.

Mental Health Advisory Council

The 2020-21 holiday season is unlike any other before. Holidays are often challenging, but COVID-19 created a major upheaval for all of us. Here are some helpful tips & insights to use during this unpredictable time.

DON'T ROMANTICIZE THE HOLIDAYS

"It's the most wonderful time of the year." That is inaccurate for many of us. If someone close to you recently died, or you cannot be with loved ones, realize it is normal to feel sadness & grief. It is healthy to take time to cry or express your feelings. You cannot force yourself to be happy just because it's the holiday season.
