Roscoe Pilon, 88

Roscoe passed peacefully at home, December 21st, with his family surrounding him. He was born August 3, 1932 at Barrett hospital in Dillon. He was born to Orrion and Alta (Roscoe) Pilon. He was joined by a brother, Gene, and years later a sister Lora Lee. Roscoe attended Dillon public schools and graduated from BCHS in 1950. While in school he was involved in athletics and FFA. While in FFA, he had opportunity to attend the national convention in Kansas City.

Roscoe met Claire, his future wife, in the second grade when she moved to Dillon with her mother from Pittsburgh PA. They dated in High School and were married in 1952, a union that lasted 68 years. To the marriage three children were born.

His desire was to have his own ranch, which he worked hard to achieve and enjoyed until his retirement. The couple enjoyed 22 winters in Yuma AZ. In his youth he lived in Argenta with his parents and developed a love for the outdoors, mountain streams and mountain lakes. He passed on his love for the outdoors to his children and spent many weekends, in the mountains with them.

Roscoe was a born again Christian, baptized at the waterfall south of Dillon and was an active member of First Baptist Church. When he was a freshman in high school, he drove a stock truck to Idaho Falls to pick up the cinder block for the new church foundation.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother. He is survived by his wife Claire, children and grandchildren, Becky (Tom) Miller, Melissa (Justin), Michael (Sarah), Kavin (Amber) and Talyn (Toni). Dan (Teresa) Pilon, Tadd, Brian (Shanna), and Rory (Shantel). Jim Pilon, Brent, Travis (Kacey), and Kaden. A sister Lora (Steve) Dougherty, 20 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Visitation is scheduled for Sunday, December 27th from 2-4 PM at Brundage Funeral Home with funeral services for family and close friends on Monday, December 28th at 1 PM at the funeral home. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

PERSIA

By "Swede" Troedsson

For several years after retiring from the Forest Service in 1994, I worked in Dillon, MT for local Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks (MFWP) big game biologist Gary Hammond. This was just prior to the opening of the general hunting season. My job was to man the phone in Gary's office, and answer questions from hunters about regulations and where to hunt.

One day I received a call from a gentleman with a foreign accent. He was from California and had never hunted elk. He wanted some recommendations as to where to hunt.

I suggested he "book" with a local outfitter who would pack him in to a "drop camp" in the head of Little Sheep Creek, south of Lima, MT. The packer would return on an agreed to date to pack him and his elk (hopefully) out.

I informed him that on opening day elk would be chased from Sawmill Creek, and pour into Little Sheep Creek through a saddle east of and above his camp.

At the end of our conversation, I asked the gentleman his country of origin. There was a long pause, and he said "Persia". I replied "Oh, Iran! We have a surgeon from Iran here in Dillon, and we love that man." That "broke the ice". The Californian's name was Mike Hannafi, and he was a civil engineer who had immigrated from Iran after the Shah was disposed. He thanked me for the information and said he would like to meet me. I told him I would be working Block Management on a ranch in Horse Prairie. On his way into Montana I could meet him around 6:00 p.m. for dinner in Yesterday's Cafe in Dell.

On the agreed to date, I waited for over one-half hour in Yesterday's Cafe for Mike. He didn't show, so I ordered and ate dinner. Shortly after 7:00 p.m. I was walking to my car, and met Mike walking to the cafe. He was an hour late because he had not taken into account the time change.

I walked back to the cafe with Mike, and had a cup of coffee while he ordered and ate dinner. After dinner Mike asked me to walk back to his car, as he wanted to show me something.

When we got to Mike's car, he retrieved a beautiful Browning hunting knife. He wanted to present it to me as a gift for being so nice to him. I told him I could not accept the gift because I was still employed by MFWP. I gave him the hunting information in the performance of my duty. The gift would be viewed as a gratuity.

Mike was offended. He said that in his culture gifts were given to those who had given a favor. He insisted, so to calm him down I said he could send it to me as a Christmas gift. I would not be employed by MFWP then. This seemed to satisfy him.

I received the knife just before Christmas and gave it to a teen-aged son of a single mom.

Later Mike sent me photos of his hunt. The evening before opening day, he had taken a photo of a dozen elk grazing on the slope on his side of the saddle, just above his camp. He also included a photo of a five point bull he shot thirty minutes after the opening of the season. Both photos are on my dining room bulletin board.

FWP TAKING COMMENTS ON PROPOSED COMMERCIAL BAIT SEINING WATERBODIES

At its December meeting, the Fish and Wildlife Commission endorsed the proposed list of approved waterbodies for commercial bait seining.

A commercial bait seining license is required for anyone 15 years of age or older to seine and transport bait fish for commercial purposes or for anyone who seines for and has in their possession more than 24 dozen nongame bait fish. The commission may designate waters allowed for this purpose and the department describes these waters annually in the Commercial Bait Seining Application Form. Approved seining waters are regularly monitored for invasive species and pathogens and maintain adequate population abundance to accommodate bait collection.

Proposed changes to the approved waterbodies list include the addition of four waterbodies to allow commercial bait seining, removal of four waterbodies due to conservation concerns or unviable bait fish populations, and additional clarification for two waterbodies. The full list of approved waterbodies and proposed changes can be found on the FWP website.

The department will accept comments on the proposed commercial bait seining waterbodies until Jan. 20, 2021. Please email comments below, or via mail to FWP Bait Seining, P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT 59620.

Please Pray for Pat

Pat Peterson has to be the kindest person I ever met. But, the more people I talk to the more obvious it becomes, that she must be the kindest, most universally loved person in Dillon.

But now she needs our help. It was recently discovered that she is fatally ill but still cares more for others. She was in an auto accident last weekend and needed immediate surgery to repair a broken femur. She will probably be laid up for some time.

Please Pray for her now and help her any way you can.

"How the Grinch Stole Christmas" by Dr. Suess

...So he paused. And the Grinch put his hand to his ear.
And he did hear a sound rising over the snow.
It started in low. Then it started to grow.
But the sound wasn't sad! Why, this sound sounded merry!
It couldn't be so! But it WAS merry! VERY!
He stared down at Whoville! The Grinch popped his eyes!
Then he shook! What he saw was a shocking surprise!
Every Who down in Whoville, the tall and the small,
Was singing! Without any presents at all!
He HADN'T stopped Christmas from coming! IT CAME!
Somehow or other, it came just the same!
And the Grinch, with his grinch-feet ice-cold in the snow,
Stood puzzling and puzzling: "How could it be so?"
"It came with out ribbons! It came without tags!"
"It came without packages, boxes or bags!"
And he puzzled three hours, till his puzzler was sore.
Then the Grinch thought of something he hadn't before!
"Maybe Christmas," he thought, "doesn't come from a store."
"Maybe Christmas...perhaps...means a little bit more!"...

IS PROFANITY IN THE EAR OF THE BEHOLDER?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

In case you (expletives deleted) missed the marketing campaign, on January 5 the noble public servants at Netflix will launch a six-episode series, "History of Swear Words," hosted by actor Nicholas Cage.

The "proudly profane" program will be supplemented with historians, cognitive scientists, lexicographers and etymology experts. (The latter should feel right at home, after years of hearing, "When are you going to quit &^%$ and get a &^%$ REAL job?")

I find myself with mixed emotions as I navigate a world of prudes, "shock" junkies, auto-pilot "cuss like a sailor" conformists and opportunistic fence-straddlers.

The decline of both history education and religious instruction has contributed to the cacophony of swear words. I suspect there are people who genuinely believe the Magi presented Joseph and Mary's child with gifts of gold, frankincense and a MIDDLE INITIAL.

T-shirts, hedonistic songwriters, PG-13 movies and cable/streaming TV have accelerated the crudity agenda. When I was a lad, over-the-air programming was relatively tame; but now consumers insist, "If I have to PAY for the programming, I expect some ADULT CONTENT – i.e., pretty much the same stuff I used to hear in the junior high locker room for free."

The more "groundbreaking, critically acclaimed" modern masterpieces I encounter, the more I'm convinced that if you set an infinite number of monkeys at an infinite number of typewriters, they would eventually... give up on ever typing enough "F-bombs" to fill the first 15 minutes of a cable TV show. ("He's a shapeshifting, demon-possessed Venusian who becomes mayor of Podunk – but we're KEEPIN' IT REAL with the S-word.")

Remember those Japanese soldiers who remained on combat alert in the jungles for years after World War II ended? Well, today we have straitlaced guardians who are valiantly holding the line against phrases that became commonplace in 1945. They like to embarrass ruffians by asking, "You kiss your momma with that mouth?" (Best response: "Yeah, and I hug my momma with the same hands I use in the men's room. What's your point?")

It's ironic that they sing, "This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine," because they would SPONTANEOUSLY COMBUST if they ever opened their King James Version Bible and saw the words used for bladder relief and sexual promiscuity.

"Minced oaths" was a term I ran across during my research. It means euphemistic expressions that alter or clip profane words to make them less objectionable. Who do indecisive people think they're FOOLING with outbursts such as "sugar," "fudge," "goldarned" and "son of a biscuit eater"? What other scams do they hope to pull off? ("Yes, I coveted your wife and your donkey, but I had one eye covered, so it doesn't count.")

Thank goodness we have "polite society" to give us parameters for language. (Polite society: that's where you hold out your pinkie to eat cucumber sandwiches as you collude to manufacture sneakers using slave labor.)

I give up. Our standards for forbidden words are maddeningly arbitrary. Most of the taboo words are of Germanic or Scandinavian origin. Latin-based languages such as French get away with murder. (Think of "derriere" and "manure" lording it over their ragged cousins from the trailer park.)

It's like a Frenchman can get away with telling you, "I just ran over your dog and here's a kick in the groin - but I brought snails and cheese. We good?"

Mental Health Advisory Council

The 2020-21 holiday season is unlike any other before. Holidays are often challenging, but COVID-19 created a major upheaval for all of us. Here are some helpful tips & insights to use during this unpredictable time.

BE REALISTIC

The holidays do not have to be perfect or just like last year. As families change & grow, traditions & rituals often change as well. Choose a few to hold on to & be open to creating new ones. If family members can't come to your home, find new ways to celebrate together by sharing pictures, emails, or videos. Recognize what you have control over, & what you do not.
