Bulldogs Volleyball Eager to Start Season

The University of Montana Western Volleyball team is set to finally start the 2020-21 season.

442 days ago, the 2019 Bulldogs season came to an end in the conference quarterfinals and Head Coach Katie Lovett and the Bulldogs entered what then seemed to be a normal offseason. Then COVID hit and the state of the 2020 volleyball season was unknown. Now, nearly 15 months later, the Bulldogs are ready to hit the court.

"We are so happy that we have an opportunity to compete this year," head coach Kaite Lovett said. "With everything going on and how many conferences/schools have opted out, we are just grateful we get to play at all."

In 2019 the Bulldog volleyball team saw improvement from the year before winning three more matches, and recording over 200 team blocks, which was the most for the team since the 2013 season. The Bulldogs are eager to get back to work and compete in a very tough Frontier Conference.

"This team is eager to get better day in and day out," Lovett said. "They are continuing to grow and make strides in the right direction. It's fun being around a team that supports each other like they do."

The Bulldogs return 13 players from 2019 and welcome three fresh faces onto this year's squad.

The Bulldogs will open the 2020-21 season on the road in Havre, Mont. for a pair of matches. Jan. 29 at 7 P.M. and Jan. 30 at 1 p.m.

Montana Western's first home matches of the season will be Feb. 5 and 6 against Carroll College.

Due to Frontier Conference COVID-19 protocols, spectators will not be permitted in the Straugh Gymnasium until further notice. All Bulldog Athletics home events can be streamed at www.bulldogsports.com/watch

Please check the website regularly for up-to-date schedules. For the latest on Montana Western Athletics, follow the Bulldogs on social media on Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram.

Dillon Middle School News

Here's the Dillon Middle School News for the week of February 1-5, 2021. The lunch menu this week is as follows: Today we will enjoy spaghetti with meat sauce and served with a dinner roll. Tuesday, hot ham and cheese sandwiches will be served. Wednesday we will have a local beef hamburger on a bun with trimmings. Thursday, we will enjoy fajita chicken tacos served with trimmings and black beans and trimmings. And on Friday a BBQ Pork rib patty will be served with trimmings. Girls' basketball will continue this week with Dillon hosting Deer Lodge tonight. Games will be played in the Parkview gym and the 7th grade will begin at 4:00 PM followed by the 8th grade at 5:00 PM. Spectators must remember that masks must be worn at all times and social distancing is required. Then this Thursday, February 4th, the teams travel to Anaconda. The bus leaves at 2:00 PM. The seventh grade games begin at 4:00 PM at the Lincoln gym. Eighth grade will play at Moodry gym beginning at 4:00 PM. Student Council chocolate sales were very successful. The chocolate bars that students bought will be delivered Friday, February 12th. The money will go to help fund encouraging activities for our student body during this pandemic. The English language teachers have been very busy with educational and creative activities. One of Mrs. Waldorf's reading classes just finished learning about the tragedy of the Titanic. Upon completing research, each student was able to select one area of interest he or she wished to learn more about. As a result, there is a wide arrange of projects being completed. The projects range from an ABC coloring book and several ABC children's books about the disaster. Several students chose to make a timeline of important events regarding the Titanic. We even have some students making a Titanic cookbook full of delicious recipes for dishes cooked on the ship. It has been fun learning about this majestic ship, and now most students are anxious to move onto their next topic of study. Mrs. Miller's Eighth graders worked hard to wrap up Quarter 2 in their language arts class by completing a Newscast drama activity on a book they had been reading in class. Students worked hard to create opening and closing segments, along with interview segments that required to take on the roles of news reporters and characters in the book. Before composing Newscasts, students took on the task of composing Expository essays, writing again as news journalists, but this time composing articles as if they were to be published in a Newspaper. Sixth graders wrapped up their Quarter 2 in Mrs. Miller's Reading class with Game Shows, racing against the clock to recount details and events from their class books. What do donuts, ice cream floats, skittles-the rainbow of fun- chips, jelly beans, cookies, a variety of flavors, and writing moves have in common? Nibbling on deliciousness, the 7th graders in Mrs. Telling's classes devoured not only these treats but their classmates' writing. They celebrated their newly learned writing moves of participles, appositives, and absolutes by sharing their creative writings: wanted posters, what's inside their magical container, recipes for life, absolute poems, and their word of the year. The simple yet impressive writing moves created magical language that swirled around the room creating accolades galore. Next up: Socratic Seminars where we will learn how to have a civil conversation before using information gleaned from these conversations to write an expository essay. Student council will be hosting a spirit week next week for Valentine's Day, as DMS-er's show their love. Monday will start with student's showing their love for their favorite team by wearing their team's jersey. So, DMS, participate in a fun week and stay tuned for more information.

UMW Fine Arts Gallery Presents First Exhibit in Spring 2021 Series

The University of Montana Western Fine Arts Gallery is proud to host "Que Van a Dar a la Muerte - That Run Empty Into Death" by Kenneth L. Field. The exhibit will be available for viewing in the gallery, located in Main Hall, until Feb. 10, open Monday-Friday from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. and from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

As the University of Montana Western Fine Arts Gallery reopens this spring, they do so under the theme of "The Work Continues." The featured artists have spent the past year creating new work, reimagining existing work, and expanding the scope and definition of their practice. For all of them, the isolation and turning inward of 2020 has led to the discovery of new ways of making art, and new ways of understanding their own work. All of the featured artists will provide virtual workshops, critique, and feedback to UMW students enrolled in studio classes that correspond with the artist's primary creative medium.

The current gallery exhibit "Que Van a Dar a la Muerte - That Run Empty Into Death", is a sound concept piece by composer Kenneth L. Field, presented with sound and space design by Nathaniel H. Freeman. The work incorporates the Spanish-language poetry of Ernesto Cardenal (with English translations by Thomas Merton), and additional poetry by Barbara Kingsolver, all set against a soundscape of found-object recordings and prepared piano. Click here for more information about the exhibit.

Much like the artists whose work will be featured, the UMW Fine Arts Gallery itself has pivoted, finding new ways to present and interact with the art, the artist, and the physical gallery space itself. COVID-19 protocols will be in place, with only two people in the gallery allowed at one time with mask wearing and social distancing required.

For more information, please contact Nathaniel Freeman at 406-683-7059 or Nathaniel.freeman@umwestern.edu.

Montana DOJ, OPI Announce National Missing Children's Day Poster Contest

The Montana Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Office of Public Instruction (OPI) are working together to give Montana students the opportunity to participate in state and national poster contests focusing on the theme of "Bringing Our Missing Children Home."

"This program not only allows our fifth-graders to compete in state and national poster contests; it gives parents and teachers a good opportunity to talk to young people about the importance of personal safety," Attorney General Austin Knudsen said. "I'm looking forward to partnering with Superintendent Arntzen to get the word out to Montana's fifth graders and to seeing their creative entries," Knudsen added.

"As a former fifth grade teacher, I recognize students' ability to be authentic and creative. This year's contest theme of Bring Our Missing Children Home gives students an incredible opportunity to shine attention on a serious issue facing Montana," said Superintendent of Public Instruction Elsie Arntzen. "I encourage all Montana fifth grade students, teachers, and families to join the Department of Justice and the Office of Public Instruction in participating in this year's Missing Children poster contest."

The student winning the state contest will celebrate with Attorney General Knudsen and Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction Elsie Arntzen at a later date and receive a $100 cash prize. The winning Montana poster will then be submitted to the national contest. The national poster contest winner, along with his/her parents and teacher, will be awarded a trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the National Missing Children's Day ceremony on May 20, 2021.

Posters must be original, handcrafted artwork; 8 1/2 x 14 inches in size, with the words "Bringing Our Missing Children Home" appearing on the poster. Posters with digitally produced images, collages, cut-outs, and stamping will not be accepted. Poster artwork will be judged on originality, creativity, use of color and materials, and reflection of contest theme.

A written poster contest student application form must be submitted along with each poster. The application will be judged on the level of understanding of the subject, clarity, and grammar appropriate for the fifth grade. Application and consent forms are available here.

Montana has participated in the annual national "Bringing Our Missing Children Home" poster contest since 2009. To see a list of the persons currently missing in Montana and to get more information on Montana's AMBER Alert and Missing Persons programs, visit <https://dojmt.gov/missing-persons/>. The Montana Missing Persons Clearinghouse and the Montana AMBER Alert Program are operated by DOJ's Division of Criminal Investigation.

Since 2003, the Montana DOJ has issued 45 AMBER Alerts. All 63 children involved were located; tragically, four of them were deceased. In 2016, Montana began using CodeRED to issue AMBER Alerts.

Posters and student application forms must be received by March 1, 2021. Send them to:
