WEEKLY LEGISLATIVE UPDATE REPRESENTATIVE TOM WELCH MONTANA HOUSE DISTRICT 72

This was Tax Reform week at the Montana Legislature. Governor Gianforte's Montana Comeback tax proposals had committee hearings with tremendous support.

The House Taxation Committee, on which I sit, heard two of these Bills-one to to increase the business equipment tax exemption and the second to provide a tax credit for employer paid education expenses associated with trade professionals. The business tax exemption impacts many of those involved in agricultural business as well.

In addition to reigning in taxes and spending, the Legislature has been tackling healthcare issues for Montana families. HB 43 passed the House this week. This Bill will expand telehealth availability by reducing State regulations and expanding health insurance coverages for telehealth services.

Senate Bill 65 to limit COVID liability for businesses, churches, and individuals was signed into law this week and resultingly Governor Gianforte removed the State mask mandate. Be sure to check with your local County as well as the policies and procedures of your local businesses.

Speaking of masks, I have been asked as to whether I wear a mask at the Legislature. Yes, I do wear a mask while at the Legislature and while out and about. This is a personal choice that I made out of love and respect for my family, friends, and fellow Legislators. I have not changed my position based on Governor Gianforte's recent decision. I am grateful to live in a State and County where the choice is mine.

Also, I did spend time this past week in Legislative Covid-19 protocol. I was notified shortly after noon on this past Tuesday that I was identified as a close contact to a Legislator who had been confirmed that day with Covid-19. This particular Legislator had been home bound for several days after first feeling ill. After speaking with House Legislative leadership and the Legislative COVID-19 team, I left the Capitol within 30 minutes of having been first notified and went straight to my Helena dwelling. I was contacted by staff from both the Lewis and Clark County as well as Beaverhead County Covid-19 teams late Tuesday afternoon and a full Covid-19 test was scheduled for me for Wednesday AM at 11am. On Wednesday morning, I drove to my scheduled Helena Covid-19 test medical site where a fully gowned and shielded staff member came out to my vehicle and assisted me with the test. I then returned to my Helena residence where I continued to isolate and await my test results which I was told to expect within the next 48 hours. I attended Wednesday's and Thursday's Committee meetings and House floor sessions via Zoom as do about 20 House Legislators daily. Just before 3pm on Thursday, I was contacted and informed that my test was negative and I was free to return to normal activities after midnight Thursday. I returned in person to the Capitol and my Committees and the House floor session on Friday morning. I also should mention that as Legislators and staff, we have optional access to twice weekly rapid Covid-19 testing. All my such tests have been negative and I will continue to be tested via this method weekly. I share all this information with you simply to give you a sense of what we as Legislators are doing with respect to Covid-19.

As the above indicates, I have had a busy and eventful week! Please take care of yourself and be safe.

Yesteryear's Work

Bryce Angell

When climbing out of bed, each morn, my joints are stiff and sore.
Some say it's part of getting old, maybe settling up the score?
'Cuz those aches and pains remind me of the crazy stunts I've done back when I was a youngster. We were just plain having fun.
But life back then weren't all for fun and no one dared to shirk. There wasn't automation so our bodies did the work.
Each morning we were up at five, then milked the cows by hand. My grip was like a vice but did arthritis reprimand?
In summer after milking cows, we'd haul the bales of hay. We bucked em high up on the truck. There weren't no better way.
Our young arms ached from tossing all the hay bales in the stack.
That night we'd take a shower and dream of hay bales falling back.
We always used a shovel and a pick to dig post holes. We dug through rock and gravel, plant the post and spike the poles.
Not one of us had even known what post hole augers were. Our backs bore all the brunt from work. It took its toll for sure.
One day while helping Uncle Clarence lift a trailer hitch, my foot gave way and then I felt the sting of low back twitch.
My uncle said, "You're prob'ly gonna pay for that when old." But in my youth, I only thought, "I'll stay young, fit and bold."
Now after fifty years I feel the sting and twitch all day. My Uncle Clarence got it right. Experience I'd say.
Am I sorry for the life we lived? Work wore our bodies out. I don't make lame excuses 'cuz hard work I brag about.
And 'bout those aches each morning they're a pain right in my rear, but always a reminder of the work from yesteryear.
