Dorothea Gene Hildreth

Dorothea Gene Hildreth died February 21, 2021. She was born April 21, 1930 to John Lewis Winans and Beulah Faye (Graham) Winans in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She spent much of her childhood on a small farm and graduated from high school in 1948.

She married William Burton Crampton on October 31, 1948. Four children were born to this union, Rebecca November 3, 1949, Deborah Celestia January 31, 1951, Matthew William January 20, 1955 and Theodore Frederick July 14, 1962.

In 1948 they, along with Bill's brother Glenn, bought the Archibald and Lillian Henneberry place. Together they grew their family and the ranch, buying Glenn's share in 1955. They divorced in 1963 and sold the ranch.

After attending Western Montana College, she moved her children to Oklahoma City to be near family. She went to work for the Oklahoma Publishing Company and worked her way up to Administrative Assistant to the Advertising Director of the magazine division. They put out four different farm and ranch publications. She enjoyed her work but longed for Montana and her friends there. The big city was no place to raise children.

In August 1967 she married Lowell S Hildreth in Oklahoma City. She sold her house and moved her children back to Montana. Bret Sterling Hildreth was born December 27, 1968. She enjoyed raising her family, working on the ranch, her huge garden, cooking for large crews and was an excellent seamstress. They divorced in 1987.

She was a charter member of the Beaverhead County Cowbells serving four years as secretary and president. She served Montana Cowbells for two years as a director. She was a great advocate for the ranching industry and testified on a wide range of controversial issues.

In 1988 she bought a house and a few acres at Dell. There she raised western working Morgan horses (a lifelong dream) for 30 years. Her reputation horses were shipped across the United States with a stud standing in Pincher Creek, Alberta and genetics in Spain and Italy. She was very involved in the American Morgan Horse Association and the Big Sky Morgan Horse Association serving as liaison between the two.

In 2019 she leased and later sold her beloved horses to Harris and Joanie Grunden (longtime friends and fellow Morgan breeders) and moved into the Legacy at Dillon. She enjoyed the people, the food and the fact that she didn't have to feed in the wind anymore.

Survivors include sister Luanne Porter - Mountain View, CA; sister Jan Winans-Lagorio - Stockton, CA; children Rebecca (Mike) Ballard - Salt Lake City, UT; Deborah (Tad) Henningsen - Dillon, MT; Matthew (Judy) Crampton - Billings, MT; Ted (Rayleen) Crampton - Dillon, MT; and Bret

(Pam) Hildreth - Butte, MT. Also, seven grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grand children and numerous nephews and nieces.

Memorials may be sent to the Spring Hill Senior Services in Lima or the Grace United Methodist Church in Dillon. She belonged to the Grace United Methodist Church for nearly 70 years. There will be a private memorial service at GUMC on May 29th at 11:00 am and a reception later in the summer. She had an unshakable faith and loved her family. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

VFW Announces Voice of Democracy Winner

At the monthly meeting of Bill Carroll VFW Post 9040 on February 10, Post Commander Steve Esquibel presented a certificate and prize money to Kassidy Applegate, local winner of the annual Veterans of Foreign Wars Voice of Democracy contest. Kassidy is a senior at Beaverhead County High School. The Voice of Democracy contest is an audio/essay contest open to all high school students in the country. This year's topic for the contest was "Is This the Country the Founders Envisioned". Kassidy's entry was forwarded to the VFW District 4 Headquarters, where she competed with entrees from other VFW Posts in Southwestern Montana.

Annually the VFW awards almost $2 million to students entering the Voice of Democracy contest. The National winner receives a $30,000 scholarship and an all expenses paid trip to Washington DC.

My missing tooth, right where I smile, had caused me so much grief.

No one looked me in the eye. They'd rather check my teeth.

So, I called my favorite dentist. Yes, the one who made the hole. Who charged me half a pay check. Now I'm broke. Well bless his soul.

That day my dentist found a tooth just right for this old mouth.

He said he'd pulled it early from a patient who went south.

Did I hear my dentist say that he had pulled it from the dead?

I had to stop the nitrous. It was messing with my head.

I muffled out the words. "Please hold the nitrous for a while." The dentist held a mirror and said, "Let's check out your new smile."

He said, "Your tooth is really meant for superficial use."

You'll take it out when eating. It can't handle harsh abuse."

I shook his hand and thanked him. Then said, "Put it on my bill."

I'm sure I heard "Cha Ching" or maybe, "Sure as heck I will!"

I'd only had my tooth for just an hour or maybe two.

When I stopped to eat a burger, pulled my tooth so I could chew.

I finished up my lunch and threw the garbage in the can.

Then I walked into Cabela's like a most important man.

But something sure was missing. Then it hit me like a flash.

I'd gathered up my brand-new tooth and thrown it in the trash.

So, I turned to dumpster diving. I just had to find my tooth.

When a lady handed me a Ten. Said, "Hope you'll find God's truth."

I didn't give a second look. I'd dang near lost all hope.

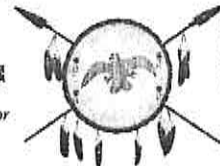

And then I saw my brand-new tooth stuck to a bar of soap.

So, that day I learned two lessons. Keep your teeth out of the trash and start up dumpster diving. You could make some extra cash!

WEEKLY LEGISLATIVE REPORT FROM REP TOM WELCH

Greetings from the State Capitol in Helena! This past week has been extremely busy as the first major transmittal deadline for Bills is upon us. All non-revenue related Bills must be moved out of the body (House or Senate) of introduction and successfully be on their way to the other body by the end of Day 45.

Many Committees last week started work at 7am instead of the normal 8 or 9am and others worked well past 8pm to complete their work. A full Floor session was also held each day. In addition, both the Senate and the House worked a full Floor session on Saturday which was Legislative Day 42. This Monday, the House will hold two separate Floor sessions—one at 8am and the other beginning at 1:30pm in order to consider action on 70 Bills on 2nd Reading and another 19 or more on 3rd Reading. More of the same is expected for Tuesday and perhaps Wednesday. Needless to say, most all Legislators including yours truly are beginning to wear down. All are looking forward to a couple of days off late next week to re-charge.

At this time, all of my introduced Bills remain active in the Legislative process. Additionally, I am working with a number of Legislators on Bills that they have in the process which have merit. One such Bill I do want to briefly mention is HB 556 carried by Rep Ken Walsh Mt HD 71/ Madison County. This Bill which is co-sponsored by Senator Welborn and myself, allows for the Office of Public Instruction (OPI) in certain circumstances to offer a High School Diploma to students who meet specific proficiencies and criteria. Such a program will likely benefit some Montana Youth Challenge Academy graduates. The Bill had a great Hearing and a vigorous 2nd Reading on the House floor with many proponents from throughout Montana including myself speaking on the merits not only of the Bill but also of the Youth Challenge program. This Bill passed 2nd reading of the House 95-5 and is awaiting 3rd reading Monday before heading to the Senate.

Thanks for your interest, take care, stay safe and enjoy the expected nice weather!

LADY BULLDOGS

The Bulldogs came out firing on all cylinders to roll past Providence 81-61 in the Frontier Conference Semifinals. Five players scored in double figures led by Brynley Fitzgerald's game-high 22 points. Fitzgerald went 6-13 from the field and added six rebounds, two steals a block and an assist.

Offensively, the Bulldogs shot 52.7 percent from the field, connecting on 10 shot from 3-point range. UMW out scored Providence 38-20 in the paint.

The defense was just as efficient, holding the Argos to just 35.1 percent shooting and forcing 18 turnovers. The Bulldogs also had a season-high seven blocked shots with Lilly Gopher recording four.

Gopher was on point on the offense as well, scoring a career-high 15 points and dishing out six dimes.

Also scoring in double-figures for Montana Western was Sydney Sheridan, 14 points, Paige Homes, 11 points, and Shainy Mack, 10 points.

Emilee Maldonado led the Argos with 14 points and Parker Esary nearly had a double-double with 11 rebounds and nine points.

The Bulldogs faced No.6 Carroll College in the Frontier Conference Tournament Championship game Monday, March 1.

Due to Frontier Conference COVID-19 protocols, spectators will not be permitted in the Straugh Gymnasium or PE Center until further notice. All Bulldog Athletics home events can be streamed at www.bulldogsports.com/watch

Senator Welborn's Weekly Report

Senator Jeff Welborn
HELENA:

We are starting to shape the proposed budget in our respective sub-committees in Senate Finance & Claims, I sit on natural Resources and Transportation, and also work closely with the Long Range Building Program.

This panel has proposed $570.2 million in infrastructure spending for the next biennium, including $102.2 million in bonding, to cover projects ranging from local wastewater upgrades to the completion of the Montana Heritage Center museum. The 2019 session finally saw a break in a nearly decade-long stalemate between Republicans and Democrats, who had been at odds over how to pay for both rural projects and big-ticket priorities in urban areas. A pair of bills passed that year established a framework for a mix of cash and general obligation bonds that both sides found palatable.

I've been working with Missoula Rep. Mike Hopkins, the Republican Chair, as This year he's sponsoring House Bill 14, which contains the projects proposed to be funded with general obligation bonds.

We've tried to create for ourselves a roadmap to having a different type of discussion around infrastructure, one that was bound by fiscal sanity and political reality, One that puts the emphasis where it should be, and that's on what the financial reality of the state of Montana is, and what the need really is across the State.

Other big-ticket bonding projects in HB 14 include:

- $23 million for the Department of Labor and Industry's veterinarian diagnostic and agricultural analytical laboratories.
- $25 million for the University of Montana's Conservation and Science Lab.
- $11 million for Montana State University's Agricultural Experiment Station research centers and the wool lab.
- $6.5 million for the Department of Revenue to expand a liquor warehouse.
- $3.3 million for enclosed walkways for the Southwest Montana Veterans Home in Butte

Letter to the Editor

Good Spring Has Sprung Day!

Good Russia-America Plant-A-Tree Diplomacy on April 25!
For more than five years, two Russians, three UM Western professors, and I have been promoting citizen diplomacy among the 145 million Russians and 330 million Americans. Our citizen diplomacy promotion has included one book with a second book on the way about advancing Russia-America Equine Diplomacy.

Let's recall that the combined America-Russia nuclear bomb arsenal is now 200,000 times (yes, 200,000 times!) more powerful than the two nuclear bombs dropped on Japan in August 1945.

Now comes the Russia-America Plant-A-Tree Diplomacy, which is cosponsored by the American University in Moscow.

On April 25, three days after Earth Day, there will be a coordinated international tree-planting event that we all can participate in. Details can be found here: <https://www.washingtontimes.com/news/2021/feb/25/how-to-avoid-world-war-iii-and-save-the-planet/>. You can register here: www.RussiaHouse.org/wrf.php.

If you do not formally register, you can still participate by planting at least one tree, whether on Earth Day or April 25. Please plant at least one tree and choose a Russian name for your Peace Trees. Perhaps discover a name-honoring location in the Russian Ural Mountains such as Perm.

I will be naming my April 25th planted trees Saint Beaverhead Russia, Saint Dillon Russia, and Saint Perm Russia as peaceful honorific, cowboy hat tips to Russia's grand city Saint Petersburg.

Please let others know about this historic, interactive event. Thank you!

Calling All Local Graphic Artists

Beaverhead County Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture is pleased to announce that the inaugural Beaverhead County Territory Days will take place June 18th through June 23rd, 2021. This event will include a parade on Saturday, June 19th, rodeo, craft fair, parties, and more! We are looking for a great logo and poster for these inaugural Beaverhead Territory Days and you may be the artist to create the design of this event. We are looking for art that signifies the look and feel of the Territory Days in this area and the fun of summertime, rodeo, and parades! Artwork must be able to be created in jpg, png, and pdf formats for print and online releases and uses. All artwork will be judged blindly with 40% of the votes from the community and 60% from the selection committee. Stay tuned for where you may see the submissions in your community.

Please submit your artwork to BeaverheadCountyTerritoryDays@outlook.com for consideration by Friday, March 5, 2021. If it is too large to submit electronically, please contact us via email for other methods of submission (such as on a drive). The artwork selected will be used for all printed material for the Beaverhead County Territory Days and all online items. The artist selected will not only get their signed art displayed but will also win a night's stay at the luxurious Andrus Hotel and a framed copy of their poster. To qualify for submission, the artist must be a resident of Beaverhead County, submit entry by Friday, March 5, 2021 5:00 PM MST.
