HAVE YOU REMEMBERED YOUR PETS IN YOUR WILL?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

Sure, it made the rounds of the "News of the Weird" columns when a Nashville businessman left $5 million in a trust fund for his beloved border collie Lulu. But such gestures aren't as eccentric as you might think.

Many estate plan experts now include pet planning as part of the comprehensive services they offer.

("That takes care of your rare cockatoo and your thoroughbred racehorses. Now surely you'll want to upgrade to the premium plan and maintain your GUT BACTERIA in the manner to which they've become accustomed?")

Really, you're just dog-whistling past the graveyard and kicking the Alpo can down the road if you haven't contemplated your own mortality and the fate that could befall your pets once you're gone.

Will they be resented and mistreated by your heirs? Dumped at the animal shelter? Euthanized? Or worse, will their naps be ruined by unending robocalls about the extended warranty on your vehicle? ("MAYBE your master's grandchildren will let you hang your head out the window; but if the window should tragically refuse to lower...")

ALL of us should be proactive about our pets' uncertain future. Sadly, not all of us will be able to leave a Lulu-sized tidy sum for our four-legged friends. Despite my affection for my pets, I anticipate cobbling together a decidedly UNKEMPT sum. Oh, I think I can spring for excavating my burial plot; but my cats may have to help with covering the casket. ("Wait...wait...I think there's still room for the hairball and the well-chewed robin.")

I'll at least have to stipulate that the executor ration care to make the money last. ("Yes, you may have a tummy rub, but I'm selling the static electricity to the power grid.")

Honestly, I don't begrudge anyone the financial resources for lavishly rewarding the loyalty of their fur babies. I do wish more of the affluent had the same compassion for the two-legged entities in their sphere of influence. ("Thanks for 45 years of service, Jones; but I'm shipping your job to Malaysia. Go fetch a new job, boy. Go fetch!")

Yes, much of the impetus for making long-term arrangements for dogs is their unconditional love and unswerving fidelity. Think of the stories of pitiable pooches who lingered for weeks or months near the spot where their master abandoned them. Come to think of it, instead of gold-plated toilet bowls, dogs' inheritances should include SELF-ESTEEM CLASSES and "Beware the Nigerian Prince's Widow" signs.

It's easier to leave funds for your pets when you have no human offspring; but that still doesn't mean there won't be great-nephews, mistresses and charities crawling out of the woodwork and initiating legal challenges when the will is read. ("I was always Uncle Calvin's favorite...I mean, I was always Uncle KEVIN'S favorite. I have fond memories of all the ...stuff...we did at...the place. Hey, it's bad enough a terrier is getting the inheritance; do we need that drug-sniffing dog here in the courtroom?")

Establishing a trust fund for your pets can give you priceless peace of mind. Rest assured that if you do precede them in death, they will be pleasantly shocked that you had the mental capacity to provide for them.

("Dude, the way he was always asking, 'Who's a good boy? Who's a good boy?' 20 or 30 times a day, I was sure he had advanced senility!")

FWP licensing reminder: Residency requirements for active duty military members

Active duty military members and their dependents, which generally include members of the regular armed forces of the United States, and members of the armed forces of a foreign government attached to the regular armed forces of the U.S., are considered Montana residents for the purposes of hunting, fishing and trapping licensing if:

The member was a resident of Montana under the residency provisions described in the Residency Requirements section of the hunting, fishing and trapping regulations and detailed in MCA 87-2-102; OR

The member is currently stationed in and assigned to active duty in Montana, has resided in Montana for at least 30 days, and presents official assignment orders and proof of completion of a hunter safety course approved by the department, or a certificate verifying the successful completion of a hunter safety course in any state or province. The 30-day residence requirement is waived in time of war. Reassignment to another state, U.S. territory, or country terminates Montana residency for purposes of hunting, fishing and trapping licensing, except that a reassigned member continues to qualify as a resident if the member's spouse and dependents continue to physically reside in Montana and the member continues to meet the residency criteria described in the Residency Requirements. The designation of Montana by a member of the regular armed forces as a "home of record" or "home of residence" in that member's armed forces records does not determine the member's residency for purposes of hunting, fishing and trapping licensing.

A member of the regular armed forces of the U.S. who is otherwise considered a Montana resident pursuant to item 1 above does not forfeit that status as a resident because the member, by virtue of that membership, also possesses, has applied for or has received resident hunting, fishing or trapping privileges in another state or country.

For more information on Residency Requirements, visit https://fwp.mt.gov/buyandapply/residencyinfo.

Southwest Montana Veterans Home Update #92

By Mike Lawson

Greetings once again to you, the Veterans/Counties/Communities of SW MT, who are the chief organizers and supporters of the SW MT Veteran's Home. Lots of Veteran's happenings that went on last week and this week. The big event last week was the the the VA coming to town and vaccinating 250 plus veterans at the American Legion Hall in Butte. This was primarily for veterans in the 75 year old and above group, that were in the VA Health Care System. If you're a veteran who is not in the VA Health Care System, please see a Veteran's Representative and get signed up. We have a very good one who is located in the Armory across from Builder's First Choice Building Center, here in Butte. We call him Gunny Mo, as he is a retired Marine Gunnery Sgt.. He is a Bull Dog in helping veterans get signed up and get help, in whatever is needed concerning the VA. His name is Saajid Muhammad, and he is a great man, who loves helping veterans. (Wk Ph# 533-0910) Tell him Mike sent you and he'll have a good laugh.

Our Vet Home Community Center/Cottage #1, is staffed by Eduro's personal and they're chomping at the bit, for the first veteran residents to arrive. The issue holding the occupancy from happening, is at the state's highest levels. Both of our Congressional Senator's representatives, have talked to the different Montana State Department's personal, who are involved, trying to get answers in getting this "Occupation Issue" resolved. These Senator Reps, indicated that each of our Senators will write a letter to Governor Gianforte, to see if he can make things happen so the first veterans can be admitted. This should have happened two months ago. Frustrating, to say the least. The question is, is this Politics as usual, at the expense of the Veterans ?

Our Vet Home is experiencing some delays, due to some of the sub-contractors pulling their workers off the site to work on other jobs that they have a contracts for. They might only pull them off for a week or so, but it really puts the finish time schedule for our Vet Home, behind.
Again Mike Ascheman and John Kotka brought me up to date as to the forward moving progress of this week and last. I value their input more than one can know. Liaison Mark Gollinger and I did our weekly walk-through. We visited with the different workers who gave valuable input as to what they were doing, work-wise, that is bringing this Vet Home closer to being completed.

Construction Updates:

Cottage #1: Complete Communications, were hooking up all the Data Control to the Community Center.

week but are back this week. They are expected to have all the flooring completed this week. The company HEISCO, hooked up all the Nursing Call Station's data hook-ups. These go into each resident room by their bed and in the bathroom, which enables the resident veteran to call the nurse for help, if need be. The Carpenters did some finishing of FF&E dispenser installation, hooked up the spa hoses for the soap/disinfectant, anchored the spa down, pushed all the beds into the resident rooms, finished rehanging doors after the floors were completely laid. The painters have touch-up painting left to do. Once the carpet is completely laid, the cleaners will do a final cleaning.

Cottage #3—Interior: Carpenters anchored down the spa down, hooked up the spa soap/disinfectant hoses, adjusted spa wheelchair. HEISCO hooked up all the Nursing Call Stations, data hook-ups, going into the resident rooms and bathrooms. Plumbers are completely done. Cleaners are scheduled to do a final clean-up this week.

Cottage #4—Interior: Plumbers are running the gas-line piping from the outside of the building to the two inside boilers. They're also hooking up the zone valves in the mechanical room. The Carpenters were busy in the EastWing of this Cottage, building window/door jams and trimming them out. With the tape/painting close to being done in the west wing, the Carpenters will move into that area and do the same trim-out work there. HEISCO is running the low-voltage Nursing-Station wiring, to all the resident rooms. The Tile-Layers were pulled off this job, to work on another off-site job. They are supposed to be back, once all the resident rooms are finished with the painting and Carpenter trim-out. Another example of not enough skilled workers in the labor pool.

Cottage #5—Interior: The Insulators have everything insulated, except for the sound-bat insulation on the one side of the sheet-rocked interior walls. Once these open sides are insulated the sheet-rockers will sheetrock those open sides, making these walls complete. The Sheet-Rockers are making good progress and have a good few weeks left. The Tapers have started to tape/mud but have a lot to do. Exterior: The Siders are completely finished. There is a change-order, concerning heat-tape for the gutters on all the Cottages. This will help prevent ice build-up that could do damage to the roofs and gutters. Not sure when that work will be done.

Electrical Vault Building: The Carpenters completely sheet-rocked this small building. The Insulators blew insulation into the attic.

The Tapers/Painters completely taped/textured/painted this building. The Plumbers/Electricians should be in this building, this week, to do their trim-out work.

(Note: Notice that no electrician work was done this week. This was due to being pulled off this job to work on another off-site job, the Contractor had bid and was doing. The labor pool for the Electricians is in need of more Skilled Journeyman Electricians. This, again, is the direction our Educational System needs to be focused on. The wage income/benefit package is incredible and the need is, without question, there).

We will have had our SW MT Veteran's Home Foundation Meeting on Monday of this week. Everyone is invited who would like to be part of our Foundation whose sole purpose is the helping of our Resident Veterans. This is always on the first Monday of the month.

We are all looking forward to spring and hopefully seeing our Veterans living in the Cottages, that make up our SW MT Veteran's Home. We must never lose hope. With that said, I'll close for now. Until next time.
