Editors Note: The following information from Beaverhead Ambulance Services is the 3rd part of a three part series Wednesday, Thursday & Friday. There will be a couple maps that are in black and white so coverage areas are hard to define. Today there is an insert also with the Medical Services by numbers.

BEAVERHEAD AMBULANCE SERVICES SPECIAL DISTRICT INFORMATION FOR VOTERS

The Beaverhead County Commissioners were approached by members of BEMS to establish a special ambulance services district, similar to Fire District # 2. The district covers the area served by BEMS, an area basically from the dam to Melrose and from Bannack to the Madison County line. Taxes of $36 annually on residences, commercial enterprises and mobile homes within the area would raise the necessary funds needed to hire two or three of the full-time staff needed, while BEMS would pay for the remaining full- and part-time staff members, on-call staff, a manager, and benefits, necessary to maintain adequate staffing for the ambulance service.

There were estimated to be 2,720 residences, 218 mobile homes and 530 commercial enterprises located within the boundaries of the proposed ambulance district. These numbers may change when finally determined by the Department of Revenue. The funds from the tax would be strictly used for about one-third of the employee expenses to maintain adequate staffing for the community ambulance service. BEMS would pay the remaining 2/3 of the employee expenses and continue to pay all other expenses of the service. The Commissioners passed a resolution to establish the Special District to raise enterprise funds necessary to assist in meeting the staffing demands for the ambulance service. The City of Dillon voted to support establishment of the Special District. In support of the Special District Barrett Hospital & Healthcare has agreed to forego only for employee expenses.

This proposal is time-limited. The resolution sunsets this tax after 5-years, unless voted to continue. There is no expectation that ambulance responses will decrease. As the population of the area increases and/or ages, runs will increase. The anticipated increase in responses will be one of the determining factors in whether the funding will continue to be needed.

What it is not:

1. The Beaverhead Ambulance Services Special District is not a new ambulance service coming to the area, it is just the establishment of a taxing area.
2. The Beaverhead Ambulance Services Special District does not include the service areas of the Lima Ambulance, Grasshopper Ambulance, Wisdom Ambulance or Wise River Ambulance, each of which are separate agencies and there is no intention to take over those services.
3. The ambulance district is not taking over BEMS, which will continue as a non-profit ambulance service operated by the BEMS board.
4. The Special District is not intended to eliminate BEMS or the local volunteers. Preference will be given to members who wish to become employees and volunteers are always going to be needed to cover runs.

There has been long, hard discussions and thoughts that have gone into the decision to request the establishment of the Beaverhead Ambulance Services Special District and ask for funds to assist in staffing of the current ambulance service. Obviously, by the numbers of responses made by BEMS, it is absolutely critical that an ambulance service be maintained in Beaverhead County to respond to emergencies in Dillon and the surrounding area and to transport patients to other hospital facilities.

Beaverhead Emergency Medical Services asks for your support in establishing the Beaverhead Ambulance Services Special District to assist in funding the continuation of the ambulance.

Questions: Please call 683-4985 or 683-2833 and leave a message for a call back from an ambulance member.

Attorney General Knudsen Joins 13-State Coalition Suing Biden Treasury Dept. to Protect State Tax Cuts

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen joined a bipartisan 13-state coalition in filing suit Wednesday to protect the well-established authority of states to lower taxes for their citizens from being violated by the "American Rescue Plan Act of 2021" (ARPA).

U.S. Treasury officials cannot force states to relinquish control of their taxing authority in return for the federal dollars that Congress appropriated in ARPA. The Federal Tax Mandate, housed in §9901 of ARPA, is "one of the most egregious power grabs by the federal government in the nation's history," the lawsuit states.

"While Joe Biden is proposing trillions in wasteful spending, it's a slap in the face to Montana – where we balance our budget each year – to tell our legislature they can't provide tax relief or additional education tax credits," Attorney General Austin Knudsen said. "Similarly, Senator Tester can't sit in Washington, DC and use federal legislation to block tax cuts for Montana families."

Senator Jon Tester voted for ARPA. Montana's Senator Steve Daines and House Representative Matt Rosendale opposed it.

The bipartisan coalition of attorneys general argue that ARPA's federal tax mandate could be used to claw back a share of a state's stimulus allotment. This creates an impermissible chilling effect on state lawmakers' willingness to reduce the tax burdens on their citizens.

For instance, uncertainty remains in the state legislature surrounding an income tax cut and increased education tax credit for Montana families that were proposed even before ARPA was a glimmer in Joe Biden's eye.

Members of the coalition sought to avoid litigation by asking U.S. Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen to confirm the legislation would not "strip States of their core sovereign authority to enact and implement basic tax policy." Yellen's response, however, failed to place limits on the vague provision. The secretary admitted this uncertainty exists, referring to it as a "thorny" issue in testimony to Congress.

Attorneys general filed the lawsuit against the U.S. Department of Treasury Secretary Yellen and the department's Acting Inspector General Richard K. Delmar, who would be responsible for seeking any potential claw back of federal funds.

The lawsuit sets forth charges of yet another unconstitutional exercise of federal power by the Biden administration. Specifically, in this case, the Biden administration violated the Tenth Amendment, the conditional spending doctrine, and the anti-commandeering doctrine.

The attorneys general seek a court order that prohibits enforcement of the federal tax mandate and declares it unconstitutional.

In addition to Montana, Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, Iowa, Kansas, Montana, New Hampshire, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, and West Virginia are plaintiffs in the lawsuit.

The lawsuit was filed in U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Alabama.

STEP UP AND TAKE RESPONSIBILITY

Dog waste and dogs off-leash in busy parks and trails are among the most common complaints of citizens who use Dillon's trails, parks, and playgrounds. Pet waste can spread disease. Off-leash dogs can scare citizens, impede bike travel, or disrupt others' use of parks. Pet owners need to step up and take responsibility for their pets, keep their pets safe, keep parks clean, and respect other users.
