Randy J. Albrecht

Randy J. Albrecht, 59 of Dillon, Montana passed away at St. James Healthcare in Butte surrounded by his family.

There is a Celebration of Life potluck for Randy scheduled for Wednesday, April 28th starting at 2 pm at West Cameahwait picnic area at Clark Canyon Reservoir.

A full obituary will follow.

Big Sky Cinema Reopening Friday

The Big Sky Cinema will reopen for the second time in a year after temporarily closing due to the Covid 19 pandemic in February.

As the Hollywood distribution companies begin to stabilize their release schedule with the economy beginning to open back up, theatres around the country are reopening partially. Stan Smith has endured the ups and downs of operating the cinema at 50% since reopening the first time with creative efforts such as "take out popcorn sales", "covid classics" film presentations, live music with local performers and costume contests. As the new films are now coming out instead of being taken off the release schedule the Big Sky Cinema comes out of hibernation with a bang Friday, April 30th with the new features Godzilla Vs Kong and Raya & The Last Dragon. Popular local band, "Fully Cooked" with Russell King, Buddy Hughes and Joel Longie will perform once again in the lobby during tickets sales.

The theatre will continue to operate by the current covid protocols such as social distancing with the auditoriums set up for 50% capacity, thorough cleaning, hand sanitizer use and masking while in the lobby to purchase tickets and snacks. (masks may be removed as patrons take their seats for comfort while viewing the feature.) Stan's goal is safety while enjoying a great American past time. "Seeing big screen movies in living room comfort".

Those interested may also live stream the evening presentation on YouTube or Facebook by searching for "Southwestern MT News" on the respective websites.

The majority of teenagers use social media on a daily basis but the increased "online" activity is linked to poor mental health, increased depression, and anxiety symptoms in youth.

Whereas,

In 1872, J. Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for the planting of trees, and

Whereas,

this holiday, called Arbor Day, was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska, and

Whereas,

Arbor Day is now observed throughout the nation and the world, and

Whereas,

trees can reduce the erosion of our precious topsoil by wind and water, cut heating and cooling costs, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce life-giving oxygen, and provide habitat for wildlife, and trees are a renewable resource giving us paper, wood for our homes, fuel for our fires and countless other wood products, and

Whereas,

trees in our city increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas, and beautify our community, and

Whereas,

trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal.

Now, Therefore, I,

Michael Klakken

Mayor of the City of

Dillon

do hereby proclaim

April 30th, 2021

as

Arbor Day

In the City of Dillon, and I urge all citizens to celebrate Arbor Day and to support efforts to protect our trees and woodlands, and

Further,

I urge all citizens to plant trees to gladden the heart and promote the well-being of this and future generations.

Emma Hoover

Hoover grew up in the East Helena School District until moving to Helena High School. She was the Student Body President in middle school, president of Key Club for three years, and a member of the National Honor Society. She is also an active member of her local Lutheran Church. During her free time, Hoover enjoys painting, playing instruments, and spending time outdoors. Hoover plans on pursuing a degree in biology for a future career in dental medicine as a dentist serving impoverished communities.

Morgan Corean

Corean is from Grass Range, Montana. Coming from a rural town, she says that most of her life has centered around agriculture. Throughout her high school career, Corean has been active in sports, FFA, and rodeo. Through FFA, she had the opportunity to compete in veterinary, livestock, horse, and meats evaluation and took top placings in the state both individually and as a team. Horses have been a passion for Corean for as long as she can remember. Currently, she operates 4T Horse Training where she trains horses for clients. Corean plans to major in Natural Horsemanship to further her skills and business.

Toby Veltkamp

Veltkamp grew up on a feedlot outside of Manhattan, MT with his older brother and sister. Agriculture and football have always been a huge part of his life, and he is grateful to be able to pursue both over the next four years at Montana Western. Veltkamp will be majoring in Business with a minor in Farm and Ranch Operations in order to one day take over his family business after college. Growing up, Veltkamp spent many days working for his dad or playing sports. In his free time, Veltkamp enjoys hunting, fishing, and snowmobiling.

"We look forward to welcoming these high-achieving students to Montana Western," said Chancellor Beth Weatherby. "They are fascinating, talented individuals who will add so much to our community. Congratulations to all five recipients of this well-deserved award that recognizes leadership and scholarship."
