2 men die in boating accident northeast of Helena

By Associated Press

Two Helena men died in a boating accident on Hauser Reservoir northeast of Helena, Lewis and Clark County officials said.

The sheriff's office received a call about two overdue boaters just before midnight Sunday, Undersheriff Brent Colbert told the Independent Record.

Responding deputies found the boat and the body of one man shortly after midnight, Colbert said. The second man's body was recovered at about 9 a.m. Monday.

The victims were identified as Michael Rice, 42, and Craig Nelson, 51. Autopsies are planned.

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks and the sheriff's office will investigate the cause of the crash.

FWP to continue offering online hunter, bowhunter education classes

In-person classes with field day still an option

During the last year, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks offered hunter and bowhunter education classes online due to COVID concerns. Since last spring, more than 17,000 Montanans completed the online courses, which is nearly double the number of students in a typical year.

"The biggest increase we saw was among adult bowhunter education students," said FWP outdoor skills and safety supervisor Wayne Cooperider. "It seems the online courses were popular with our students."

Because of the popularity of the online classes and to meet customer expectations for a diverse offering of hunter and bowhunter education courses, FWP will continue to offer online courses for students turning age 12 and older, with the option of an in-person field day. Students will also have the choice of in-person courses taught by certified volunteer instructors.

In-person classes will be scheduled to start after June 1, depending on interest, venue availability and COVID-protocols. These in-person classes will include a field day. More information about these classes will be available soon.

"Volunteer instructors are the cornerstone of hunter and bowhunter education in Montana," Cooperider said. "We will continue to emphasize the value of in-person instruction and field days and look to work with our instructors at ways we can add value for students to this part of our courses."

FWP's online course is certified by the International Hunter Education Association. To sign up for online hunter ed or for in-person classes when they become available, visit online at fwp.mt.gov/hunt/education.

Using the comparative lens of history, students will examine the response of Beaverhead County's medical professionals, of local government, and of local businesses and essential workers to COVID-19.

A Random Thought Art Exhibit

Kari Louise Towery, Clare Bailey & YOU

When? May 1st 6-8pm (meet the artists)

Exhibit Runs: May 1st- June 12th at Susie's 120 N Montana Street

Why? Because anything to do with art is fun!

Kari and Clare have several things in common. They have vivid imaginations, they have random thoughts that become paintings, they love bold colors and they love their community.

"A night with the artists" is a way to celebrate of all of these things.

Clare's latest series was inspired by the thought that: women have a lot on their minds.

Kari's paintings have us thinking of spring. They feature whimsical flowers saturated with color, busy bees and fluttering butterflies. All things beautiful and nature inspired.

Southwest Montana Veteran Home. Update#101

By Mike Lawson

Greetings once again to you the Veterans/Counties?Communities of SW MT, who are the chief organizers and supporters of the SW MT Veterans Home.

This spring is on again and off again, with this weather, which is typical for our part of the world. I received a picture from a friend on FaceBook, who lives in Spokane. His yard was summer green and his trees had healthy buds on them. A bit of envy on my part. The Highlands have a good blanket of new snow which is a good sign for this summer, although some parts of the state are worried about having summertime drought conditions, which doesn't bode well for their crops. Praying for their well being. The Covid-19 numbers are coming down, with more vaccines being given. Silver Bow County is expected to have 83% of it's population vaccinated in May. That's impressive, sorry I don't have the data for you other 5 Counties, but I hope you also have good percentages vaccinated. Things are opening up and we're starting to look somewhat normal again. The advice is to still practice safety measures, such as distancing and wearing masks, when around crowded places. I would also encourage anyone who hasn't gotten a vaccine to please do so. In one of our Veteran Organizations, we had one of our members not get a vaccine shot, as he wasn't convinced they were doing any good. He called me last week and told me that he and his wife both have Covid -19 and were pretty sick. They're quarantined until the 29th, if they're feeling better by then. Our thoughts and prayers go out to them.

The two House Bills, concerning our SW MT Veteran's Home, have passed the Senate and were sent back to the House, with some Amendments. This Montana Legislative Session will be over on the 30th of April, which is this Friday. If they do pass and are signed, we'll see construction continue beyond the expected June finish date, on our Vet Home. Speaking about the Vet Home, Liaison Mark Gollinger, John Kotka and I did a walk-through last Thursday. It is always exciting to see progress taking place, from one week to the next. I got a good briefing from both Mike Ascherman and John Kotka, which really helps me put this Update together, every week.

of Montana, sometimes a "Change Order" is issued to change something to make it better. This building received one from the Engineering /Architect State Department. The change concerned putting a raised panel look on the two main entry columns, going into the building

Cottage #2: The owners have taken possession.

Cottage #3: The Painters Punch-List continues but close to being completed. John Kotka is going to fill the Spa Tub, making sure it works as it should and check for leaks.

Cottage #4: The Plumbers have tied all the domestic water lines, into the Mechanical Room. Now everything can be turned on when ready. The Tile Layers are 100% don in the East Wing and are tiling floors in the North Wing. The Carpenters continue to hang doors, install door/window jams and casings. They also pulled wire for the door automatic closures/ ADA buttons/card readers. The Floor Layers will start laying linoleum in the East Wing Resident Rooms as well as the Central Building areas, that are to receive it. The Cabinet folks from Great Falls, are installing cabinets in the East Wing Resident Bathrooms/Kitchen/Spa/Nurses-Room/Medicine Room/ Washer&Dryer Room/ Dining Room/etc.. The Electricians pulled wire for the fire alarm/lights/ installed can lights, into the vestibule (entry-way). The Painters have most of this building painted out. The Tapers are done. The Acoustical T-Bar Ceiling Grid is being installed, especially in the hallways. The Acoustical Tile will be installed along the outside border edges only, until the Sheetmetal/Plumber guys have everything installed above the ceiling. The sheet rocking is complete. The Tapers are boxing the inside/outside corners and taping the sheetrock joints. Lots to do concerning this work. The Sheetmetal guys are continuing with the installing of the overhead ductwork, tying the ductwork into the heating units in the mechanical room. The Plumbers are tying heat lines into the Air Handlers throughout the building. The Pipe Insulators, insulated pipes and ductwork. Landscaping could hook water to their main supply line, for sprinkling.

Becker Landscaping: Main water line, running along the border of the site, was turned on and checked for leaks. They continue to dig the sprinkler lines.

Zemljak Excavating: Spreading top-soil around the Community Center and will move to other areas of the site in sequential order.

The other veteran related construction is the new Veteran Medical CBOT building, located right off the Interstate, between the Harley Davison Dealership and Highland View Drive. When observing from the road, the gravel laid down before the floor cement pour takes place, was compacted. Probably because of weather, the projected cement pour didn't take place. If decent weather prevails this week, I would guess they'll make the the pour during the week, as Wayne Paffhousen wants to start the wall framing by May 1st.

Other Veteran news will start being reported on, as it becomes available. Our Veteran Organizations, in our six county area, are starting to get more active and getting their scheduled meeting in place, again. The Marine Corps League, here in Butte, will have their SOS Breakfast at Perkins at 9:00 AM on this Saturday, May 1st. All Marines, Corpsmen, their families and friends are welcome. I would also mention the United Veteran's Council Honor Guard will have a Memorial Day Ceremony at the Veteran's Amphitheater in the Veteran's section of Stodden Park. All are welcome and seating will be available. The Honor Guard will then go to five of the local Cemetery Veteran Memorial sections, to do a short ceremony at each. I might add that "Veterans help Veterans" and when Veteran Color Guards are short of members and need help, the UVC has been honored to compliment their members, in joining them for conducting Veteran Funeral Graveside Honor Guard Services. They have been to Pony, Anaconda, Dillion, Twin Bridges, Sheridan, Laurin, Boulder, Melrose and Divide Mt.. It's always an honor in being part of the laying our veteran brother/sister in their final resting place.

I'll close for now, until next time.
