Andrew Kent Frecker

Kent passed from this life surrounded by his loved ones Saturday May 1, 2021 in Dillon, Montana after battling years of poor health. He was born September 13, 1960 in Ogden, Utah to Andrew LeRoy Frecker and Shirley Irene Jacobs Frecker.

Kent spent most of his childhood roaming the mountains and playing in the empty lot behind his home. He was usually accompanied by his dog and this continued to the end with his beloved Taly. He enjoyed spending time with his Dad creating wonderful memories camping, fishing and whatever crazy thing they could find to do. Kent was also a mama's boy. He always wanted to make her proud. He loved his siblings Debbie (Bruce Day), Chris (Gene Brownson), Arlene (Ken Brewer), Darlene (Kim Robinson, and little sister Heidi (Joe Laing). After graduating from Ben Lomond High School, Kent served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints in Dusseldorf, Germany. After returning from his mission he married his highschool sweetheart Pamela Willard in the Ogden, Utah Temple February 19, 1982. Together they raised four children Anna Marie (Justin Rhodes), Andrew Tyler, Emily Rose (Porter Rix), Joseph Karsten (Jolly Ann Larita). Kent adored his children and always found time to spend with them on many eventful adventures and with everyday love. He was blessed with 12 grandchildren: Daisy, Lily, Violet, Sage, and Jeff Rhodes, Andrew, Eli, and Zsophie Frecker, Olivia and Orrin Rix, and Pearl and Ruby Frecker. They were a delight and a joy in his life. Many others called him grandpa as well.

Kent had a love of the outdoors, animals, and adventure. He was always living life to the fullest. He was a skilled craftsman and owner of Frecker's Saddlery. Kent's heart was as big as the Rocky Mountains. He loved others and would always give freely of his time and talents to anyone in need. Kent's greatest assets in life were his family and relationships. This continues on as his greatest legacy. He will be deeply loved and missed quite literally the world over!

Preceded in death by his Dad and sister Debbie.

Services will be held Saturday May 8, 2021 at 11:00 at the LDS Church 93 Hwy 91 S Dillon, Montana. Services can also be viewed at <https://zoom.us/j/96396917206>. Visitation will be held same place Friday May 7 from 5-7pm

Western Montana College. He also graduated from auctioneer school in 1959. Val served in the United States Army from 1962 To 1964. Val was the art teacher at the Dillon Middle school for 30+ years. His passion for art has blessed the lives of his family, friends and community for many years. Val was a man of many talents. He was a potter, painter, poet, song writer, musician, farrier and auctioneer. But what he loved most was being a husband, father and grandfather.

Val married the love of his life, Sandra Jean Huntsman, on October 28, 1960. He fell in love with her in high school and has loved her ever since. After a stint in El Paso, TX, Val and Sandy moved back to Dillon where they raised their two daughters Pam and Shauna. Val was also the beloved Grandpa to six and a Great-Grandpa (Geeps) to six. He cherished each member of his family. Besides his family and a career as an art teacher, Val loved the outdoors and enjoyed every opportunity he got to be a cowboy. He also loved to hunt, fish, camp, hike and pack into Sand Lake. One of the things Val was best known for among family and friends was his sense of humor. He had a gift to make people smile and laugh, even during hard times. Val was one of the original members of the Beaverhead Search and Rescue, served on the board of the Bicentennial Apartments for 30+ years, a member of the Elks for 60 years and volunteered his talent as an auctioneer for numerous benefits. He recently served other vets by driving the van. Val has touched many lives as he has shared his talents and served others.

Val is survived by his wife, Sandy, daughters, Pam Stoddard (Seth) and Shauna Dudley (Harold), Grandchildren, Shaundra (Garrett) Paulson, Colt Stoddard (Kelsey), Whitney Trudo (Craig), Brock Stoddard, Lane Dudley and Devi Dudley and Great-grandchildren, Paisley, Haven and Valerie Stoddard and Milo, Preston and Nora Trudo. Val is also survived by his sister-in-law, Barbara Prophet, Sandy's surviving siblings and his best friend, Jerry Rowe who was like a brother and many cousins, nieces and nephews who he adored.

Val is preceded in death by his parents and his three brothers

In 1959, Marvin lived in Darby where he taught in the high school, moving back to Dillon where he returned to Western Montana College and graduated with his Master's Degree. Shortly after, he started a job with the United States Postal Service where he had a long and outstanding career retiring in 1987 as Superintendent of Postal Operations.

In 1962, Marvin and Maggie adopted a son, Mark, and in 1964 adopted a daughter, Mary Ann. He was a very proud and wonderful father. Marvin loved the outdoors and sharing it with his family, especially a good game of golf. He was a hunting guide in the Bitterroot for many years and also enjoyed fishing for salmon on the Salmon River. He also enjoyed supporting the local sports teams by being in the stands, watching the teams play, or by his radio at home listening closely. He knew no strangers, he visited with all he met, and was a helping hand to all that needed him.

Marvin wore many hats in the community and went on to inspire the formation of many long standing ventures including: The Snowmobile Club and the Dillon Federal Credit Union to name a few.

Marvin would later go on to be asked if he would be Fair Manager, he reluctantly agreed and for more than 30 years enjoyed working side by side with the 4-H and the Jaycees during Dillon's fair time. He was proud of his many years in that position and never regretted it. He was an active member of his church, Lion's Club, Elk's Club (of which he was Exalted Ruler), and the American Legion (of which he was a Past Commander). Marvin and Maggie and another couple also had a catering service for many years. One of his biggest pleasures though, was being the "head" cook at the Elk's Club.

All in all, Marvin was well-liked by all, loved dearly by his family, and always had a smile on his face. Marvin was a very happy person that was full of life. He went through life joining many organizations in Dillon, receiving many awards for the time and the love he put into his careers, and gaining many life-long friends along the way. In 2018, he received a prestigious award from the Lion's Club Foundation. The Melvin Jones Fellow Award "for dedicated humanitarian services". In the end though, there is no award available to truly reward Marvin for his dedication to his family, the community, and his careers. He was truly one of a kind.

Marvin was preceded in death by his parents Joseph and Ida Lundberg. Brothers and sisters-in-laws - Elmer (Betty) Lundberg, Gerald (Alma) Lundberg, Glen Lundberg, Dean (Andi) Lundberg, Larry Lundberg. Sisters and brothers-in-laws - Viola (Lloyd) Bridge, Eunice (Ryan)

Michael Reid Selected as New Chancellor of the University of Montana Western

Michael Reid has been selected as the new Chancellor for the University of Montana Western and brings with him over 30 years of experience in higher education administration.

Reid currently serves as the Vice Chancellor for Administration and Finance at the University of Montana Western and as the Chief Fiscal Officer for Helena College.

"The search advisory committee and the Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education are pleased to announce the hiring of Michael Reid for the Chancellor position at Montana Western," said Search Advisory Committee Chair and OCHE Deputy Commissioner for Budget and Planning, Tyler Trevor. "We feel that Mike will continue to move the university forward and that his wealth of administrative and financial experience, combined with a focus on data-driven decision making, will further support the students, faculty and staff at UMW and continue to build upon the success of the university's Experience One program."

Reid started with the Montana University System in March 2013 and has been at the University of Montana Western since July 2018. His educational background includes both an MBA and a BA in Finance from Utah State University. Over his 30 years of administrative experience, he has served for 20 of them as a Vice President/Chancellor for Administration and Finance at institutions including Pueblo Community College, Mansfield University of Pennsylvania, Angelo State University, The University of Montana, and Sierra Nevada College.

Although his background in higher education administration has often been centered on university operations and finances, Reid also has significant experience in facility master planning, capital construction, strategic planning, institutional forecasting and modeling, auxiliary operations and events management.

"I'm excited, and humbled, to be entrusted with this responsibility at the University of Montana Western. Over the past few years, both Montana Western and the welcoming town of Dillon have been incredible places to call home with inspiring students, faculty, staff,

Effective as of May 3, 2021, Reid's appointment will be brought before the Montana Board of Regents for approval at its regularly scheduled meeting later in May. He succeeds Beth Weatherby, who is retiring after leading the university for the past 6.5 years.
