Bomb Threat

On May 8, 2021 at approximately 7:35 PM the Dillon Police Department was contacted and advised a bomb had been placed at the Frontier Event Center located at 102 E. Helena street. The event center was hosting a Fur Trappers Association banquet at the time of the call.

Officers, Deputies, Fire Fighters, MHP officers, and Department of Emergency Services personal all responded to the scene. The event center was evacuated and a cursory search was done of the building. A K9 bomb unit from the MHP responded and cleared the building.

The Dillon Police Department, with the assistance of the FBI is conducting the investigation.

Threats of this nature will not be tolerated and the Dillon Police Department will do everything we can to investigate, and prosecute offenders. These investigations are difficult, lengthy and detailed. I would ask for the publics patience as the investigation continues.

Montana Trappers Association Banquet
STATEMENT FROM THE BOARD

During last nights banquet in Dillon, the event was interrupted by local law enforcement by an anonymous source who called in a bomb threat on the facility where this event was taking place. It abruptly called our evening to an end. Below is a statement regarding this unplanned event.

Members and supporters of the Montana Trappers Association gathered May 9 for a long overdue and postponed banquet in Dillon. According to the Association, "we were enjoying an evening of camaraderie and friendship with fellow sportsmen, ranchers, agriculture producers, state representatives and association members from across the state. Our banquet and fundraiser was abruptly interrupted by officers of the Dillon Police Department shortly after the meal was served, with what was called in as a bomb threat by an anonymous source on the facility where we were congregated."

Everyone was quickly and expeditiously exited from the building to a safe place our and away from the facility. All were accounted for without incident.

Not only did this act of domestic terrorism disrupt a banquet, it also disrupted and inconvenienced the Dillon Police, Beaverhead Sheriff Deputies, Fire Department, Montana Highway Patrol, and the Beaverhead EMS who had to respond with people and vehicles to be on stand by and other state and federal agencies responding to this senseless communicated call.

The officers, directors and members of the Montana Trappers Association, their friends and family members will not be deterred by this senseless act of domestic terrorism. We will not be silenced in pursuing all necessary legal action against the individual(s) or group(s) who attempted to threaten our lives and put us, as well as local law enforcement, in harms way should they be exposed and apprehended.

The Montana Trappers Association will exercise their lawful rights with even stronger resolution and steadfastness. We will not be intimidated, shaken or silenced by those who would attempt to do harm or terrorize us because they do not agree with or accept those rights relevant to this organization and we will pursue all legal avenues against those who may choose to inflict harm.

UPDATE:

We would also like to thank the members of a local church that was scheduled to use the same building this morning who decided to share the space and help the Trappers resume their event Sunday. It kicked off again with better security, more helping hands, a wonderful worship service, a tribute to mothers, a praise band, and a whole lot more people than had ever been planned! The congregation also donated all of today's offerings to the Montana Trappers Association!

Classical Music

Bryce Angell

I was raised up in the country. Proud to be a country boy.
Our music twanged with country and back then the real McCoy.
Johnny Cash would wake you up at early morning light.
Then Bill Monroe would soothe your soul to sleep most every night.
I must have been around eighteen, while visiting a friend.
His mother turned on classical. Said, "Here's one I recommend."
She played Bedrich Smetana's famous piece called, "The Moldau."
That day I learned how classical can pierce my soul somehow.
I didn't tell my country friends. 'Twas too much of a dare.
I knew for sure they'd kid me. We called classical, "Long Hair."
I must admit I worried. Was I guilty in a way? 'Cuz the music that weren't country felt like sinnin', you could say.
When thirty years had passed me, kept the secret in my brain.
I found myself in school, a change of living to obtain.
So, I signed up for a music class in hopes to just get through.
The gray-haired aging teacher said, "This class is meant for you."
I wondered how she really knew or was she just polite?
'Cuz once again my soul was stirred from classical delight.
We listened to Beethoven, as the class time would allow.
And then our keen instructor played Smetana's, "The Moldau."
I listened so intently to the Moldau's every note.
Then wrapped the music 'round me like a winter overcoat.
My music teacher taught me, and she said, "You'll understand a variety of music keeps one's head out of the sand."
I still love county music, but with classical ya know,
I should have pinned my ears back to its cadence years ago.

Beaverhead Search & Rescue News

Submitted by Mel Rice: Public Relations Officer

On Wednesday May 5th, the Beaverhead Search and Rescue held its monthly meeting at the S&R building. Commander Lawrence Morrisroe called the meeting to order at 7:05. There were 28 members in attendance with some of them attending via zoom. It was a very short general meeting so there was time to do equipment inventory of all the unit's equipment trailers.

The first order of business was to recap the search that took place in the Crystal Park area. There were four members that participated in the search: Mel Rice, Tara Remely, Alex Dunn, and Lawrence Morrisroe. Each year BVHS S&R is invited to cook for an Elk's Club stag night. April was the unit's month. We prepared steak, French fries, scones, vegie, and salad. Preparing the meal were members: Tater and Jennifer McKay, Tara Remely, Brian Demars, Alan Holt, Trent Cottom, Lawrence Morrisroe, and Kolby Malesich.

Nathan Freeman, training officer, informed the members of several training opportunities forthcoming. Thursday night Life Flight was down to teach about packaging patients, safety operations around a helicopter, landing zones, and procedures for getting them involved in a search/ rescue. Toward the middle of June there will be First Aid and CPR training. It is a requirement of the Unit that every member must have current certifications in CPR and First Aid. Then on July 10th, there will be a joint training with the Forest Service in the Gravelly Range on how to perform duties and work safely in Grizzly Bear country. On the 3rd of October we will be participating in a multi-agency training exercise at Maverick Mountain. It is called Mass Casualty.

Commander Morrisroe informed the membership that the storage units which were going to be auctioned off in lieu of the BVHD S&R auction, had been sold during a storage war type auction sponsored by "The Storage Place". Thank you to Jim Harvey for his support of Beaverhead Search and Rescue and for letting us piggy back on his auction event. There will not be an auction at this time but will resume in the future.

With any luck the Search and Rescue sign out on Hwy 41 North will be hanging again by the end of the week. A 70 mph gust of wind snapped the sign in half. With a little tender loving care it was salvaged.

The last order of business was the recognition of Luke Lenski and Steve Scott who have turned in letters of resignation. Luke was a member for a short time helping out where ever and whenever he could. Steve Scott on the other hand has been an exemplary member for 47 years. Steve is one of the original members of the unit which started around 1974. He has served as commander 2 years, vice commander 2 years, Auction chairman 6 years, Fish Derby chairman 8 years, on the board of directors multiple years and many other committees over the years. He was elected member of the year by his peers 2 different times. Steve could be counted on anytime there was a search/rescue, a work party, and for any other official business related to the S&R. His knowledge of operations, training experiences, field experiences, and ground knowledge of Beaverhead County will be greatly missed. Thank you, Steve Scott, for 47 years of dedicated service to the Beaverhead Search and Rescue.

The meeting adjourned at 7:40. On behalf of your Search and Rescue I would like to remind everyone to have wonderful times enjoying the great outdoors of Beaverhead County. However, please be prepared for different situations that might arise during your adventures. Weather this time of year can change in a heartbeat so don't take anything for granted. Whether you are in your car, hiking the great mountains, or on the water, be safe, be prepared, and take care of yourselves. "In The Business of Saving Lives", your Beaverhead Search and Rescue.
