Montana's 2021 Missing Children Poster Contest Winner Announced

The Montana Department of Justice and the Office of Public Instruction today announced Claire Swanson, a fifth grader in Ms. Kim Gilligan's class at Townsend Elementary School, is the 2021 winner of the Montana Bring Our Missing Children Home poster contest. Swanson's poster reflects a community concerned about missing children. Each home has a dark window representing the empty rooms of the missing children; the other windows portray grieving family members.

Poster artwork was judged on originality, creativity, use of color and materials, and reflection of the contest's theme. Written poster applications were judged on the level of understanding of the subject, clarity, and grammar. For her winning entry, Swanson received a $100 cash prize, and her poster will be submitted to the national contest. Swanson and her class traveled to Helena today for an award presentation with Attorney General Austin Knudsen and OPI Deputy Superintendent Sharyl Allen.

"Keeping kids safe from crime and predators is a top priority of mine as Attorney General," Knudsen, who is a father of three, said. "This contest serves as a reminder to children to be mindful in online and in-person situations. When a child goes missing it has a devastating impact on their family and the entire community. Claire did a great job portraying that in her winning artwork."

"All of Montana's children are precious, and every missing child represents a family and a community that is distraught over their disappearance," Superintendent Elsie Arntzen said. "Claire Swanson's poster is a stark representation of the lens through which children view this crisis. She is a talented artist, and her work can help bring awareness to this terrible reality."

There are currently 61 school-aged children from Montana who are missing.

This is the thirteenth time Montana has participated in the annual national Bring Our Missing Children Home poster contest. Claire's poster can also be seen on Montana Department of Justice Missing Persons website at www.dojmt.gov/missing-persons. This website provides information on Montana's AMBER Alert and Missing Persons programs, which are operated by the Division of Criminal Investigation at the Montana Department of Justice.

Congratulations Cole Webster

Cole Webster was presented his State award at the Daughters of the American Revolution State Conference held in Butte. Cole was the state winner in the essay contest for seventh graders. His essay was forwarded to the Northwest Division where it was judged with winners from the states of Alaska, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Wyoming. He was congratulated for being the winner in that division. His essay was then sent on to the National level, and Silver Bow Chapter, the sponsoring chapter, received notice that Cole won second place for his 7th grade essay on The Boston Massacre. Parents of Cole are Dan and Teresa Webster. Cole attends Reichle School, and his teachers are Leah Tucker-Helle and Becky Jensen.

REGULATIONS RELEASED

The 2021-22 migratory bird regulations are now available online; hard copies will be available at license providers in a few weeks.

As always, hunters should get familiar with the regulations and any changes from last season.

A change in the Pacific Flyway and Central Flyway Zone 1 that hunters should note this year will be the lack of a split season. This change is in response to a survey of randomly selected Montana waterfowl hunters. The Central Flyway Zone 2 season dates are similar to last season, including the split season. In the Pacific Flyway, season dates for both ducks and geese will be Oct. 2 – Jan. 14. Pacific Flyway swan season dates will be Oct. 9 – Dec. 1. In the Central Flyway Zone 2 (Big Horn, Carbon, Custer, Prairie, Rosebud, Treasure, and Yellowstone counties), duck season dates will be Oct. 2 – Oct. 10 and Oct. 23 – Jan. 18, with goose season dates Oct. 2 – Oct. 10 and Oct. 23 – Jan. 26. Zone 1 (the remainder of the Central Flyway) will have duck season dates of Oct. 2 – Jan. 6 and goose season dates of Oct. 2 – Jan. 14. The Central Flyway swan season will be Oct. 2 – Jan. 6 in both zones. Central Flyway swan licenses are now valid for both tundra swans and trumpeter swans.

Duck and goose bag limits in the Pacific and Central flyways remain the same as last year. In the Central Flyway, two additional blue-winged teal will be allowed in the daily bag for the first nine days of the season, Oct. 2 – Oct. 10. See the regulations for details.

Special youth waterfowl hunt

Youth 10 to 15 years old may participate in a special statewide two-day early hunt for waterfowl Sept. 25-26. This is a great time to get the kids out, when the weather is warm and when they are the only ones who can shoot, as well as giving your retriever a tune-up prior to the regular season. Consult the regulations for details.

Sandhill crane, mourning dove, and snipe

Mourning dove and snipe seasons both open Sept. 1. For sandhill cranes, the over-the-counter license season in the Central Flyway will be Oct. 2 – Nov. 28. For crane seasons regulated under special drawing licenses, season dates will be Sept. 1 – Oct. 30. There will be a new special drawing sandhill crane hunting unit in Cascade and Teton counties with 20 licenses.

The deadline to apply for swan and sandhill crane license will be July 23. Applications can be done online or at an FWP office.

Good numbers of ducks the last two years mean a lot will be returning to breed this spring. Much of Montana is quite dry, as are parts of major duck production areas in Alberta and Saskatchewan, although there are some brighter spots. Duck hunting in Montana depends to a large degree upon local conditions and weather patterns. Local waterfowl production should be good, and hunters can expect good numbers and from ducks migrating into and through the state. Canada goose numbers remain high in Montana and the surrounding areas.

Typically, duck hunters look forward to the results of the May breeding duck survey, followed by the Waterfowl Status Report in August to get some idea of populations and what to expect for a fall flight. However, no breeding duck and wetland surveys were conducted in 2020 or 2021 due to restrictions from the pandemic. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service will rely on long-term data and models to predict duck abundance and inform management decisions until surveys can be restored.

To view the regulations, visit <http://fwp.mt.gov/hunting/regulations>.

Southwest Montana Veterans Home Update #103

By Mike Lawson

Greetings once again to you the Veterans/Counties/Communities of SW Mt, who are the chief organizers and supporters of the SW MT Veteran's Home.

Our unpredictable May weather shouldn't be a surprise to those of us who have lived in Southwest Montana for any number of years. The comforting thing for us is that we know it will get better, the grass will get greener, the trees will bud out and the flowers will bloom. The best is to come, especially for the gardeners/farmers/ranchers. On the construction front, concerning our two Veteran facilities being built in Butte, both will be completely constructed and operating this year. The SW MT Vet Home will likely see all five of the resident Cottages finished by the end of June. The new VA Veteran's Medical Center is expected to be completed this fall with a well rounded staff and increased services for our veterans in SW MT, to receive the medical care they may need.

The new VA Medical Center being built by Wayne Paffhausen's crew, led by his son Todd, is moving right along. Todd and his partner, at this point, are doing the framing. They have the wall sections standing on one end and most of the west side, as of this weekend. The rest of the perimeter walls should be standing this week which is good, as the roof trusses are expected to be delivered within two weeks. More focus will be given on this project in next weeks update.

Last week the covered walkways were a hot topic, with their funding being passed in HB14. We in the SW MT Veteran Community are anxious to see this project's construction, get started as quickly as possible but there's a sequence of steps that have to happen before that can become a reality. I was fortunate in getting information from Barb Smith, who is the Administrator for "Senior and Long Term Care Division, Mt Public Health and Human Services", concerning these steps. Step 1; The Governor receives and signs HB14 (money not available until this is completed) Step 2; DPHHS internal conversation per Director Meier. Step 3; A&E/DPHHS/CT coordination on a phasing plan for insertion into the bid set by CT/A&E. Step 4; Finalization of the bid set by CT/A&E. Step 5; Advertising for bids and award. Step 6; Contractor mobilization timetable is unknown at this time but Barb is the key person, in working through this process. We have been involved in bringing our Vet Home to this point for 12 years so we need to be patient and let Barb work through this process. I have the upmost confidence that the covered walk-ways will become a reality, for the safety of our Resident Veterans and the Eduro Staff who are taking care of them.

I always give credit where credit is due for all the good info I receive from Mike Ascheman/John Kotka/Mark Gollinger.

Construction Updates:

Community Center/Cottage #1/Cottage #2/Cottage #3; Completed and turned over from Markovich Construction to the State of Montana (the owner).

Cottage #4: The Carpenters finished the trim-out on all the doors/windows and are installing the door hardware consisting of the door-knobs/closures/stops/etc.. They are also finishing the installing of the FF&E Package in the East-Wing. This includes the toilet paper holders, soap dispensers, etc.. They have to hold off on mounting the mirrors until the sinks/cabinet vanity tops are installed. They did install the Crown Molding on the coffered ceilings. The Plumbers are flushing and filling all the water lines, so they're ready for the future start-up inspections. The Electricians were fishing their wire through the conduit going to the pumps, light switches/outlets/fixtures. They are hooking up to the pumps to enable them to be flushed and filled. The Tile guys are working in the North-Wing Resident Rooms and have grouted the floor tile in the spa bathroom. The Floor Layers are scheduled to start laying linoleum in the East Wing resident rooms this week and then move into the kitchen/dining room areas.

Cottage #5: Taping and mudding continues. The wall prep skin-coating of mud to a level 5 finish is taking place in the West-Wing. The Sheet-metal guys continue doing their HVAC equipment installation. The Plumbers are working on air handlers/valves/piping/gas lines.

Zemljak Excavating continues to spread topsoil throughout the Vet Home site.

Becker Landscaping continues running the irrigation lateral lines and curb edging. They also are building the flower bed borders.

Hawe Steel Fabricators built and installed hand-rail at the Community Building and the Electrical Vault.

In the Veteran world, in Montana, the VA has a Vaccination Van that is going across Montana to give Veterans, their wives/caregivers a Covid-19 vaccination. If you are in need of one, call the VA or a VA Veteran Representative. The numbers are coming down, so be safe, get vaccinated and be careful who you're around. The tourists are coming and hopefully they don't bring any Covid-19 with them. I would encourage any of you veterans who belong to any of our Veteran Organizations to attend their State Conventions, this summer, after this long year of isolation. I plan to attend two or three of them, especially the Marine Corps League Convention being held in Butte in June. With our Covid numbers being down and with most of us being vaccinated, we should be in good shape, in coming together. Have a mask if in doubt and use common sense using safety measures. Let's hope for warmer weather and do some outdoor recreation. Until next time.
