Ken Grose's Celebration of Life

Ken Grose's family invites you to celebrate his life on Friday May 21 at 11am.

The celebration of life will be held at the Frontier Event Center located at 102 E Helena ST, Dillon, MT 59725. Service and luncheon for all friends and family.

COVID-19 DEATH

MDPHHS officials, along with local public health were recently notified that a Dillon man in his 30s who died in August 2020 had COVID-19 as a significant condition contributing to death. Beaverhead County Public Health does not release information regarding communicable disease deaths until confirmed by certificates of death. In this situation, the death was identified several months later through the normal death reconciliation process at the state level. This would be the first COVID related death in Beaverhead County. Currently there are 11 total confirmed COVID related deaths.

According to the CDC, a COVID death case definition is a death certificate that lists COVID-19 disease or SARS-CoV-2 as a cause of death or a significant condition contributing to a death.

Public Health continues to strongly emphasize the importance of doing everything you can to help decrease the spread of COVID infection in our communities. As of May 13th, CDC updated their recommendations on mask use for fully vaccinated people. Fully vaccinated people no longer need to wear a mask or physically distance in any setting, except where required by federal, state, local, tribal, or territorial laws, rules, and regulations, including local business and workplace guidance. Fully vaccinated people can also refrain from testing following a known exposure unless they are residents or employees of a correctional or detention facility or a homeless shelter.

This week, Pfizer was authorized to allow vaccination for people 12 years and older. Public Health is planning to survey that age group to see what the response would be to hold a clinic in Dillon, preferably before school is dismissed

Public lands reopen near Everson Creek after fire rehabilitation

Federal officials have lifted an emergency closure order for some public lands near the Montana-Idaho border. The area has been closed since last summer due to the Bear Creek Fire.

The Bureau of Land Management's Dillon Field Office issued the Recession of Emergency Closure order for public lands in the Everson Creek area, about 50 miles southwest of Dillon, on May 11.

The field office had kept this portion of the burned area closed to the public until spring to protect land damaged in the fire as rehabilitation efforts got underway.

Though the land is showing signs of coming back to life, those visiting the area should remain alert to the danger of standing trees weakened by the fire falling without warning. "One of our biggest concerns in the area remains the safety of the public around hazardous trees," said Dillon Field Manager Amanda James. "We urge people to continue to use caution when recreating in the forest."

The Bear Creek Fire was first reported Aug. 11, 2020 and went on to burn nearly 12,000 acres in southwest Montana.

Full fishing closure in place for portion of Ruby River

A full fishing closure is in effect for a portion of the lower Ruby River due to low flows.

The closure extends for about 14 miles, from the confluence with the Beaverhead River to Duncan District Road crossing. Flows on the Ruby River at a U.S. Geological Survey gauge near Twin Bridges fell below the 5th percentile of daily flow values on May 12, meeting established criteria for the closure.

The river will remain closed to fishing until daily mean flows exceed 20 cubic feet per second for seven consecutive days, or until Sept. 15, 2021.

Closures and restrictions of this nature are designed to protect fish that become more susceptible to disease and mortality when conditions such as low flows combine with additional stressors.

Recently we celebrated our teachers and staff during our Teacher Appreciation week. Student Council made posters for the halls and cards for each teacher, celebrating the things that we like most about each one. We are so grateful for our teachers and staff here at DMS. Thank you for all the investment you have made in our lives.

Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture Partners with UMW Glass Program on Summer Treasure Hunt

The Beaverhead County Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture and the University of Montana Western Glass Program have partnered to create a fun scavenger hunt activity throughout Beaverhead County this summer. One-of-a-kind glass cowboy hat paperweights, custom made by UMW Glass students, will be hidden at local businesses from Memorial Day through Labor Day.

Proudly presented by the Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, over 100 glass cowboy hats made by the students in the University of Montana Western Glass Arts Program, under the instruction of Professor Ruth King, are hidden in the shops of: Bannack, Dillon, Lima, Dell, Grant, Jackson, Wisdom, Wise River, Dewey, Glen, and Melrose. Visit these towns' businesses for a chance to find a glass cowboy hat paperweight from Memorial Day through Labor Day!

According to Chamber Executive Director, Rebecca Jones, "Anyone who finds a cowboy hat gets to take it home and enjoy the fun memories of finding it! Each limited-edition paperweight is etched with a registration number. Participants can bring their prize into the Beaverhead Chamber office located at 10 W. Reeder St. in Dillon for another prize and to receive a certificate of authenticity. And there is a special prize for finding cowboy hats in colors other than blue!"

The rules of the Beaverhead Treasure Hunt are:

Ten cowboy hats are hidden weekly from Memorial Day to Labor Day,

- Cowboy hats remain hidden rain or shine,
- Each participant is limited to taking home one cowboy hat paperweight this summer, so everyone has a chance to join in the fun!
- The term "hidden" is used loosely; some of the cowboy hats have been cleverly hidden in plain sight in public areas, historical sites and local businesses. Participants are asked to be respectful of these areas while searching.

The Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture thanks the University of Montana Western Glass Art Program for sponsoring the Treasure Hunt as well as to all of the students for designing and producing these unique paperweights.

Contact: Rebecca Jones, Executive Director, Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, 406-683-5511 or info@beaverheadchamber.org.

MONTANA RANGE DAYS TOUR-
WEDNESDAY JUNE 23RD- $20

MANAGING GRAZING DURING YEARS OF REDUCED PRECIPITATION

Bus departs the Fairgrounds at 8:00 AM to Hagenbarth Livestock

Hagenbarth Livestock: Hogsback: Jim Hagenbarth will discuss his research and implementation on how to manage grazing with reduced precipitation. The Beaverhead Valley loses .6 inches of precipitation each decade making it critical to find low moisture alternatives for grazing. Jim has worked with the Forage Range Research Lab in Logan, Utah, and determined that forage Kochia is the best option for a low moisture alternative supplement that will not harm native grasses but will provide high protein for fall and winter grazing. The tour will explore a 1000 acre plot of Forage Kochia at Hogsback and discuss how to manage prickly pear in dry regions.

As time allows we will have more speakers and one more stop but we will be back at the fairgrounds by noon.
