Montana Western Rodeo Coach Resigns

The University of Montana Western Head Men's & Women's Rodeo Coach Kody Lahaye announced yesterday that he will resign as head rodeo coach after the College National Finals Rodeo Later this June.

Lahaye, who just completed his third season as head coach of the Bulldogs, will be stepping away from coaching to support his wife, former Bulldogs Rodeo athlete Justinn (Marshall), as she continues to pursue her career as a medical doctor.

"It has been a very difficult decision to step down as the head coach," Lahaye said. "My wife and I would like to thank the Western family and the community of Dillon as a whole for giving us a second home. I will be moving with my wife to Omaha, Neb., where she will be specializing in the ICU unit at the University of Nebraska. My wife and I have been apart for most of our marriage, and as hard as the decision has been to step away from such a wonderful place, we have decided it is time to spend our lives together. I want to thank all of the amazing student-athletes that I have had the pleasure of working with and getting the opportunity to be a part of their lives. The friends and memories that we have made here will last forever. Thank you again for all of the support from the university, families, and community over the years. Montana Western will always hold a special part in our hearts."

Kody's wife will be doing a critical care fellowship at the University of Nebraska.

This season Lahaye guided both the men's and women's team to second-place finishes in the Big Sky Region and a trip to the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR). He had four regional champions this season. Overall, Lahaye had 16 CNFR qualifiers during his tenure at Montana Western.

"Kody has done a tremendous job as the Montana Western rodeo coach," Director of Athletics Bill Wilson said. "Kody and Justinn have had to make a lot of sacrifices over the last three years. Family always comes first. We wish Kody and Justinn the very best."

The University of Montana Western will conduct a national search to find its next head rodeo coach.

Zoning May 25, 2021

By: MJ

Members present: Chairman Mr. Stokes, Mr. Schwandt, Mr. Franks, Ms. Erfle and Mr. Graham. City personnel; Director of Operations Mr. Todd Hazelbaker.

Director of Operations spoke to the committee on how postponements should be handled. Tabling and postponements are (2) two different subjects.

Zoning Compliance Certificated: 2021-18 and 2021-19

#2021-18 Derek & Katrina Lewis at 908 S. Washington St; garage and dwelling. This application was submitted at the May 11th and again on May 25th zoning meeting. It was Denied at both meetings because of setbacks, front of building is not defined clearly…

2021-19 -- Moved to Table.

Board of Adjustments: This board is a quasi-judiciary board having a partly judicial character by possession of the right to hold hearings on and conduct investigations into disputed claims and alleged infractions of rules and regulations and to make decisions in the general manner of courts quasi-judicial bodies. The board that would make the final decision on any issues that was disputed between a person and the Zoning Board. Note: On the Board of Adjustments is Ms. Mary Jo O'Rourke, Mr. Ed Mooney, Mr. Tim Stoker, Mr. Dan Nye.

An application was submitted by Mr. Derek Lewis to build a garage/dwelling unit at the May 11th, zoning meeting. The app was tabled for further information to enable the board to make a decision. At the May 25th zoning meeting Mr. Lewis's application was again brought forward for approval. Note #1: Mr. Mooney and Ms. O'Rourke presented several concerns they had. Note #2: Both Mr. Mooney, Ms. O'Rourke along with chairman of zoning board Mr. Stoker are seated members on the Board of Adjustments and the (3) three of them made up a quorum of the Adjustment Board participating in a possible decision by the Planning Board on Mr. Lewis's building.

This could be problematic if Mr. Lewis disagrees with the Zoning Boards findings. He would have the option of taking his case to the Board of Adjustments that held an illegal meeting at the zoning board meeting on May 25th.

Question: If a person submitting an application chose to go before the Board of Adjustments, how would they get a fair hearing when the members had already presented and debated their concerns at a prior zoning meeting? Note: Ms. O'Rourke has firmly stated at several meetings that the boards must treat everyone equal. Where is the equality here?

Question: Was the Open Public Meeting laws broken when the Board of Adjustments had a quorum at the Zoning Board meeting with members openly participating?

Letter to the Editor

Why are there so many Republicans in Washington who don't care about Democracy or Justice?

The Republican resistance to an independent commission is disgusting and not American.

An independent commission on the January 6, 2021 of the traitors that stormed and vandalized the U. S. Capital. This mob which they called themselves, "Save America Rally," caused injury to 140 individuals, five people died and millions of dollars of damage was done.

At the present time more than 400 people have been charged with a Federal crime. Some of the rioters chants were, "Hang Mike Pence." The politicians working in the Capital were at risk losing their life. And then President Trump resisted sending the D.C. National guard to quell the Mob. Why?

Looking back in history the Republicans have supported many investigations. Do you remember the Clinton White Water Investigation? This investigation took over six years. The outcome was zero indictments. Zero convictions. But this investigation cost the taxpayers over 70 million dollars. Your taxpayer money. Other Republican investigations were, Benghazi and the Hillary Clinton Emails, with the results, zero indictments and zero convictions.

But now the Republican resistance to an independent commission comes as many in the GOP attempt to rewrite the history of January 6, 2921. Why?

SAVING OUR ELDERS FROM THE DIRTY ROTTEN SCAMMERS

by Tom Purcell

I just got another scam phone call from someone pretending to be from the Social Security Administration, and my blood is boiling.

When I answered my phone — from the 480 Area Code in Arizona far away from Pittsburgh — a recording said, "Your Social Security number has been compromised. Stay on the line and an agent will be right with you."

When the agent, speaking in broken English, asked for my name and address, I got even madder.

Why?

First, having done cybersecurity assessment and communications work the past few years, I knew that the Social Security Administration will never call me or anyone — unless you're having an ongoing discussion with a legitimate government employee.

Second, another telltale sign that it was a scam was that the scammers had no idea what my name or address was.

Third, I knew that elderly Americans are more likely to fall for such an obvious phone scam.

For example, my heart broke recently when I read about a 79-year-old Pittsburgh woman who got taken in by scammers.

According to this Triblive article, she received a phone call in June 2019 from a person who identified himself as an agent with the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency.

The "agent" told her that her identity had been stolen and that she was inadvertently involved in an international drug trafficking and money laundering scheme.

The dirty rat then persuaded her to wire massive sums of her life savings to a second fake DEA agent or "she would be investigated by the DEA and would lose her Social Security number."

According to the lawsuit that the victim has filed against her bank for not questioning her about her huge transfers, she was taken for $4.3 million.

Look, we all have to step up our understanding of the growing risk of cyber-scammers — and we need to help our elders learn how to protect themselves from rapidly increasing threats.

The FBI reports that since many older Americans have large nest eggs and homes that are paid off, they are ripe targets.

Many elderly persons who are friendly and trusting — and wary of being rude to anyone who calls on the phone — are especially at risk in our era of smartphones, email and social media.

They are victims of identity theft, charity fraud, health care scams, "You've won" scams and government-imposter scams of every kind.

Scammers use fraudulent smartphone texts, spoofed emails that appear to be from people you trust, or robocalls and other phone scams using spoofed phone numbers.

I called back the 480-area-code number that had called me with the Social Security scam. It was the number for a construction firm in Arizona.

The scammers were able to spoof that legitimate phone number, as they do millions of other numbers, to fool their victims.

Helpful resources are available to help all of us learn to better identify scams and, most important, to help us protect our vulnerable elderly family members and friends:

The U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigations offers useful tips on how to stop scammers who prey on the elderly dead in their tracks.

So does the Cybersecurity Information and Security Agency.

This brochure offers useful cybersecurity information to older Americans.

And the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's Pass It On Campaign enlists people 65 and older in an effort to recognize and report fraud and other scams.

All these Websites can help us make sure our elders are alert to the dirty tricks of the rotten scammers and know how to avoid them.

THE DILLON DOWNTOWN STREET DESIGN AND PLAN

The community is requesting the assistance of a qualified firm to develop a downtown street design and plan to create pedestrian improvements; improvements for the central business district and a corridor along Montana Street; and to expand upon a test project that was completed in 2017. This work will ensure that the community can grow while maintaining its unique character and creating an environment that will support economic development and small business growth. The Dillon Downtown Street Design and Plan should adopt a strategic planning process, including: analysis of existing opportunities and issues; direction setting (mission statements, vision and values, goals and objectives, etc.); alignment (determining our path); implementation and execution (layout an action plan for achieving the stated goals); and evaluation (regular check-ins, measuring performance and success, and course corrections).

PROPOSED FLOOD HAZARD DETERMINATIONS

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY
FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY

Proposed Flood Hazard Determinations for Beaverhead County, Montana and Incorporated Areas

The Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management Agency has issued a preliminary Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM), and where applicable, Flood Insurance Study (FIS) report, reflecting proposed flood hazard determinations within Beaverhead County, Montana and Incorporated Areas. These flood hazard determinations may include the addition or modification of Base Flood Elevations, base flood depths, Special Flood Hazard Area boundaries or zone designations, or the regulatory floodway. Technical information or comments are solicited on the proposed flood hazard determinations shown on the preliminary FIRM and/or FIS report for Beaverhead County, Montana and Incorporated Areas. These flood hazard determinations are the basis for the floodplain management measures that your community is required to either adopt or show evidence of being already in effect in order to qualify or remain qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program. However, before these determinations are effective for floodplain management purposes, you will be provided an opportunity to appeal the proposed information. For information on the statutory 90-day period provided for appeals, as well as a complete listing of the communities affected and the locations where copies of the FIRM are available for review, please visit FEMA's website at https://www.floodmaps.fema.gov/fhm/BFE_Status/bfe_main.asp or call the FEMA Mapping and Insurance eXchange (FMIX) toll free at 1-877-FEMA MAP (1-877-336-2627).
