Release the Roosters

Bryce Angell

Corey had too many crowing roosters in his flock. If he didn't stop their crowing, they would meet the chopping block.

So, he kindly asked us if we needed roosters on our place. I answered, "That would be just fine, but can the roosters race?"

Our friend seemed taken back but said, "These roosters run dang fast!" I had to wonder just how long these rooster's lives would last.

We told him everyday at dawn, a mother fox comes out. We watch her dig for rodents then she dives in with her snout.

And if I were a red fox, I'd eat the roosters without fail. The roosters gotta taste much better than a rodent tail.

Our friend said, "These ole roosters fly, should even up the score." But I figured if we dumped 'em home, they'd be fox meat for sure.

So, we brought two roosters home transported in a cardboard box. I swear the roosters were much dumber than a sack of rocks.

'Cuz they set about to crowing, all day long, while on their walks. But little did they know their crow was calling in the fox.

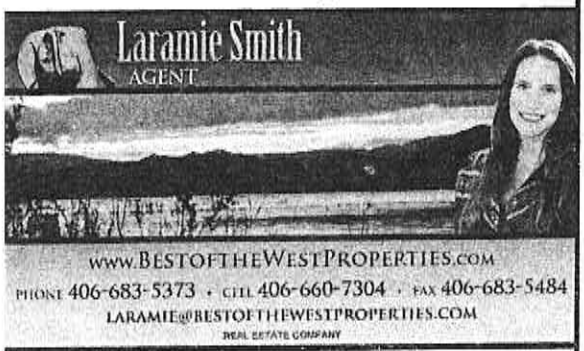

I'd say it was around midday, we heard a rooster squawk. Then saw the feathers flying. Left us standing there in shock.

We watched the sly old fox chomp down the rooster for her meal. The rooster's fate was given but it all seemed so surreal.

The second rooster took to flight. He was getting out of there. But the red fox made a leap and caught the rooster in midair.

I must admit the fox's swift and prime agility, came as no surprise but left me breathless just to see.

We had witnessed Mother Nature. The fox would live another day. And it only took a minute. We are roosterless, you'd say.

Montana State Parks sees record visitation so far for 2021

Mild weather during the first quarter of 2021 contributed to a record number of visitors for Montana State Parks.

MSP recorded 393,175 park visitors in the first quarter, a 20.2% increase over 2020 and a 78% increase over the same period in 2019. Of the 40 state parks that were seasonally open during this period, 80% experienced an increase in estimated visitation compared with last year.

Day use and camping occupancy are projected to rise across the state during the spring and summer months.

"As our parks prepare to welcome people from across our state, the country and the world, we continue to prioritize unparalleled customer service and public safety for our guests and staff," said Beth Shumate, parks division administrator with Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks. "Our 55 parks, including seven National Historic Landmarks, truly tell the story of the Treasure State. We look forward to a successful season and hope that our parks create lasting memories for all our visitors."

The top five most visited state parks in Q1 2021 were:

1. Giant Springs State Park Great Falls - 81,979 visits (up 7.8%)
2. Spring Meadow Lake State Park, Helena - 33,606 visits (up 18.2%)
3. Flathead Lake State Park (All Units), Flathead Lake - 28,921 visits (down 2.4%)
4. Cooney Reservoir State Park, Roberts - 28,820 visits (up 50.3%)
5. Lake Elmo State Park, Billings - 27,316 visits (up 13.4%)

Visitation snapshot for the first quarter of 2021:

Below is a list of the most highly visited state parks in each of FWP's administrative regions:

Northwest Montana (Kalispell): Flathead Lake State Park (all units) had the highest visitation in the region with an estimated 28,921 visits, a decrease of 2.4% over the same time period last year.

West Montana (Missoula): Milltown State Park had the highest visitation in the region with an estimated 17,358 visits, an increase of 116.1% over the same time period last year.

Bannack State Park to host Bannack Days in July
Ghost town event scheduled for July 17-18

Bannack State Park's signature event, Bannack Days, will return this year with many familiar activities, displays and re-enactments celebrating Montana's first territorial capital.

Bannack Days are scheduled to happen Saturday, July 17, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, July 18, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Tendoy Summer Art Classes

Tendoy Fine Art has summer classes available for young people and adults. The curriculum includes Young Artist Blocks, a summer arts camp in August and ongoing Wednesday classes in oil, pastels and watermedia for adults. Coming first will be a Young Artist Block on Drawing and Paper Craft. It will be held at the Tendoy Fine Art gallery, 35 East Bannack St. from 3:00 to 4:30 pm on Thursday and Friday, June 17th, 18th, 24th, and 25th. Enrollment is limited because of space requirements, so sign up and secure your child's place soon. Packets with schedule information, registration and scholarship forms are available at Tendoy Fine Art during business hours. Students must be 10 to 18 years old.

The second Young Artist Block will be Oil Pastel and Watercolor Painting on July 22nd, 23rd, 29th, and 30th. October 1st, 8th, 15th and 29th will include beginning instruction in painting and fusing glass tiles.

The Young Artist Summer Camp will be August 2nd through 6th, with morning activities from 9 to 12 am designed for younger artists and afternoon classes from 1 to 4 pm for older students. The cut off for each group will be determined according to the registrations received, but the camp is available for 8- to 18-year-olds. This camp is designed to "Explore Nature through Art" and will include outdoor artmaking whenever possible.

Tendoy teachers, Colleen Howe Cheney and Jean James encourage adults to join the Wednesday art classes with Cheney teaching in the morning and James in the afternoon. At 3:00pm, Tendoy artists gather to discuss their art and general art principles. The gathering is open to students of Tendoy.

Tendoy is able to offer classes through a grant from United Way and a generous donation from a private benefactor.
