William O. Swanson

Longtime Dillon resident William O. Swanson died peacefully of the accumulated effects of old age on June 13, 2021. He was 93 years old. He retired from active ministry in 1991 after having served as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church for fourteen years. Prior to coming to Dillon, he served as the pastor of churches in Klamath Falls, Oregon; Pana, Illinois; Sparland, Illinois; and Peoria, Illinois.

Bill was born in Rockford, Illinois, in 1927 and he began life as an ethnic kid. At that time that community was home to many Swedish immigrants, including his parents Olof and Selma. He remembered parts of town where Swedish was the dominant language. Even the football cheers at his high school were a bilingual mix of Swedish and English. "Ja, ja, det går bra, East High, East High, rah rah rah."

He was a child of the Great Depression. Although his father's steady work as a furnace engineer gave his family stability, growing up during a time of economic distress instilled in him a lifelong frugality, practicality, and gratitude for one's blessings.

He was a brother. Bill had an older brother, Roy, who served in World War II. Just a few days before Bill graduated from East Rockford High School in 1945, his family received a notice from the War Department that PFC Roy Swanson had been killed in France at age 19. The news came as a cruel shock, as VE Day had already passed, and friends were saying how wonderful it was that Roy would soon be home. Bill never quite got over his brother's death and mourned him throughout his life.

Bill was a husband. He graduated from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1949. He felt called to the ministry and after completing his undergraduate studies he continued his learning at North Park Theological Seminary in Chicago, graduating in 1954. At a banquet for the graduating class, there was a prophecy that he would be back in 25 years to speak on the merits of the unmarried clergy. However, his date that evening was his future wife Ann. They married in 1955, and he considered her a caring wife and mother and a gifted partner in ministry.

Pastor Bill was a Presbyterian clergyman of his generation. He would say: You're important, you're special, God has a plan for you, you have worth, God loves you. His love was inclusive, not conditional. (Bill was almost exactly the same age as Mr. Rogers, who was also an ordained Presbyterian minister who offered love and affirmation freely; believed in the power of mercy, love, and grace; and believed in service to one's fellows. There was something in the water, something in the theological currents of the era.) Bill ministered in this way to family and strangers even in his last few days as his body was failing him. He would say: Make your life a channel of God's blessing as long as you live. And he certainly tried.

Throughout his life, he showed concern for the poor and saw a place for the Church in rectifying social inequalities. His first church, in Peoria, was located in a poor neighborhood with tremendous needs. This led him to a realization that stuck with him throughout his life that one's Christian mission isn't in a far-away place: it's all around you in the community you serve. In Dillon he collaborated with Father Barone to provide food and housing for Mexican immigrants, legal and otherwise. He and Ann were strong advocates of God's Kitchen, a soup kitchen that operated out of St. Rose Catholic Church. In coordination with other local clergy he sought to house and feed needy transients. He supported the Dillon Area Love INC, the local affiliate of a national organization that helps churches distribute their skills, gifts, resources, and love to communities in need. His favorite causes included the Beaverhead Community Food Pantry, the local YMCA, and Heifer International.

Bill liked to build things, and he also liked to build community. When he was an undergraduate, he studied Industrial Education. In fact, while he was in seminary he had a job teaching mechanical drawing. Bill was capable with a hammer and saw, and enjoyed construction sites and seeing things being built. While pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, he urged his congregation to build an addition to the church building to accommodate their expanding needs, and oversaw the process of consensus building, fundraising, and construction. He liked setting big goals to pursue; modest goals seem like they may be more achievable, but they don't really get the job done because they don't inspire people to action. In retirement, he founded the local Habitat for Humanity program, working with dozens of local partners to obtain land, seek donations and materials, and coordinate volunteers. Through his leadership, four Habitat homes were built in Dillon.

In his sensibilities, he was a Scandinavian Midwesterner, who believed in a weak cup of coffee served with coffee cake, or cookies, or pie with whipped cream, or especially a warm rhubarb-oatmeal crisp with vanilla ice cream. He was a culinary Swede, particularly on holidays. He enjoyed meatballs and pickled herring on rye hardtack and rice pudding with lingonberries. Bill was self-deprecating about Swedish heritage. As the saying goes, you can always tell a Swede, but you can't tell him much. In Bill's case, that may have been because he was busy talking your ear off.

He enjoyed games, so long as the rules weren't too strict. When his children were young Bill enjoyed playing croquet with them, and with his grandchildren he enjoyed playing pool (never mind that the table was warped). He didn't like playing Solitaire on a computer because it wouldn't let him move the cards around a little bit when he got stuck. When playing Scrabble, he swore up and down there were supposed to be 8 tiles not 7. Now and again he enjoyed a good-natured prank. From time to time he'd try flipping over a Scrabble tile and passing it off as a blank. He always got caught when 3 blank tiles showed up on the board, of course, but you could see he was tickled pink the longer he got away with it.

Bill was a father and grandfather. He had the mid-century American optimism that if you get an education, pursue your dreams, and work hard, it will all work out. He was always proud of his children and grandchildren and delighted if he was able to help them in some way.

Grandpa Bill had a mischievous streak. On one occasion, with no context whatsoever, he walked up to his grandson Neil with a serious look on his face, placed his hand on Neil's shoulder, and said: "Remember, every man needs a good sweater." He patted him once and then walked away. The family never worked out if this was meant as good advice or a very subtle joke.

Bill Swanson was preceded in death by his beloved Yellow Labrador Sophie, who accompanied him on many visits to the nursing home. He is survived by his wife Ann; his children Brian (wife Peggy), Kathy (husband Chuck), Karen, and Chris (wife Eulynn); his grandchildren Elizabeth (husband Eli), Daniel (wife Michelle), Sarah, Jen, John, Emily (husband Justin), Neil (wife Merren), Kai, and Katja; and his great-grandchildren Lena, Rose, and Wade.

A remembrance is planned for Thursday, June 24 at 2 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church, to be followed by an ice cream and pie social. Pastor Bill would have wanted it that way.

The family suggests memorial contributions to the Beaverhead Community Food Pantry and Love INC, both of which serve the needs of the needy in our community.

Birch Creek Center

To the Dillon and surrounding communities,

Due to the challenges caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Birch Creek Center has been closed since March 2020. Because of the continued impacts of the pandemic and the need for safety, plumbing, and cosmetic upgrades to allow the center to reopen to the public, we were also unable to open the Birch Creek Center for the 2021 season.

If you have any questions about the Birch Creek Center, please direct them to Mike Piazzola, University of Montana Western Senior Director of Auxiliary Services: (mike.piazzola@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7664).

Public Forum: Atlantic Street Renovation & Current Project Updates

The University of Montana Western will be holding a community forum and Q/A session on Thursday, June 24th at 5:30 p.m. in the Lewis and Clark Room in Mathews Hall on campus for an update on current and upcoming campus projects including:

- Atlantic Street Renovation Project
- Boiler Plant Upgrade
- Parking Lot Updates
- Bulldog Card Door Swipe Project
- Student Union Building Project
- MYCA Dining Hall Renovation and New Entrance

UMW Director of Facilities, Michael (Embee) Brown, along with Senior Director of Auxiliary Services, Mike Piazzola, and Bulldog Card Manager, Brittney Ferris, will be present to answer any questions you may have about these projects.

Dolores Irene Mallon

We want to invite you to a memorial service and celebration of life for our sweet mother Dolores who passed away December 15, 2020. We delayed the service due to safety restrictions, but are now ready to say our final good-byes.

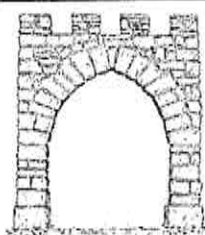

Please join us on June 26, 2021 at 10:30 am at the First Presbyterian Church in Dillon, Montana. A light lunch will follow at the Elks Lodge at 12. We look forward to gathering and sharing memories. Larry, Jerry, Linda, April & Julie

Selway Park Fishing Access Site reopens

Selway Park Fishing Access Site has reopened after a temporary closure caused by a fallen cottonwood tree.

High winds caused the large tree to fall onto an occupied vehicle on June 10. The person in the vehicle was not injured.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff have removed the tree and assessed the rest of the site for public safety. The site has been reopened.

FWP thanks staff from the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation for their assistance with the project.

Selway Park Fishing Access Site is in Dillon along the Beaverhead River.
