James, "Jim" Freeman

James, "Jim" Freeman, born June 3, 1960, in Deer Lodge MT. He passed away on Thursday June 17th at his home.

Jim was a true cowboy who worked many different jobs across the country from Louisiana to Montana. Jim finally settled in his favorite State of Montana in the mid 90's. His last line of work, which he was most proud of, was working as a heavy equipment operator. Jim was an outspoken, hard working man that never shied away from getting his hands dirty or doing overtime. He was also a very caring, loyal, and honest person. There was never a time he would not express his honest opinion, especially if it could help you out. Jim had a way of making everyone laugh and taking the edge off complicated, uncomfortable situations. He always said, "if you need anything you can always be found at the end of Easy Street." Which was actually true in the physical and character sense. Jim was a family man through and through. He loves spending time with family while camping, fishing, hunting driving or even on a normal Tuesday on the porch with an ice-cold beer. Jim would always be the one telling stories while everyone listened and laughed. Jim will be missed by many and never forgotten.

Jim is preceded in death by his mother and father Helena and Pete Freeman and his daughter Stephanie, that he loved very much. Along with numerous other family and friends that he now gets to visit again.

Jim is survived by his three sons James, Justin, and Adam Freeman. He was blessed with countless grandchildren. He is also survived by siblings and friends that were all very important in his life.

The funeral will be in Dillon Montana on June 28th 10 am at Brundage Funeral Home 300 S Atlantic Street, Dillon MT.

Janet was a frequent visitor on weekends and summers to the Yearian ranch in the Lemhi Valley, Idaho. Her grandfather, Thomas Yearian, was an early resident of the valley raising sheep and cattle. Her grandmother, Emma Yearian, a partner with Thomas in the ranching business, was celebrated as the "Sheep Queen of Idaho."

In 1941 Janet was accepted to the School of Music at Montana State University (now the University of Montana) in Missoula. She studied with John Lester, was a member of the elect singing group The Jubileers and appeared in many concert and opera performances.

She was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Janet met Jack M. Brazelton while at the University; they were married in January of 1943 shortly before Jack Brazelton was sent overseas. He was killed at Anzio Beach in February of 1944.

In 1946, Janet married Herbert Jillson, a returning war veteran and a former music school classmate. That marriage ended in divorce and in 1952, Janet married James Selway of Dillon, Montana. While living in Dillon, Janet received a Master's Degree in Education at Western Montana College and began teaching English at Beaverhead County High School. (1960-1965) She also continued to sing and perform in frequent concerts at Western Montana College.

In 1965 Janet moved to Phoenix, Arizona, where she taught English and humanities at Alhambra High School until her retirement.

Janet married Daniel Moore in 1974. They were excellent companions, devoted to one another's interests in the arts and philosophy, and enjoyed many years of travel and study that further enriched Janet's teaching, particularly of the humanities.

Janet is survived by her sons Jack Brazelton Selway of Colorado and James Jillson Selway of Virginia; her grandsons, DeWitt Selway, Richard Selway, Lewis Selway,

College National Finals Rodeo

Team Results: Men: 22nd. Women: 27th

Location: Ford Events Center, Casper, Wyo.

The Bulldogs brought two cowboys back to the short-go at the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR). Bryce Harrison had an impressive 4.6 second run to place third in the nation in the steer wrestling. Brody Smith was locked in all week in the bareback. He scored an 80.5 point ride Saturday night to finish eighth in the country.

Final Results

Bryce Harrison placed third in the nation in the steer wrestling with time of 29.2 on four (6.5, 8.8, 9.3, 4.6 - 29.2).

Brody Smith finished eighth in the nation in the bareback riding with a score of 307.5 on four (74.0, 73.5, 79.5, 80.5 - 307.5).

Ryland Lufkin finished 18th in the breakaway roping (NS, 2.6, 3.0 - 5.6).

Breanna Jenkins finished 27th in the breakaway roping (NS, 12.0, 2.1 - 14.1)

Emmy Ilgen placed 33rd in the goat tying (7.9, 8.0, 9.9 - 25.8).

Mikayla Witter placed 35th in the breakaway roping (3.5, NS, 12.6 - 16.1)

Ethan Stensrud finished 40th in the tie-down roping (31.5, NS, NS - 31.5)

Jake Cerini and Jame Ramirez placed 41st in the team roping (18.2, NS, NS - 18.2)

Alonzo Skunkcap tied for 43rd place in the team roping (NS, NS, NS - NS)

Coach Lahaye's Thoughts

"I was very proud of how well everyone represented Montana Western. It was sad to be my last college rodeo but I couldn't have asked for a better bunch to go with. To have two representatives end up in the top 10 in the country was a great way to end the season."

Up Next

The Bulldogs will begin the 2021-22 season this September at the Trapper Stampede in Cody, Wyo.

Cooney Reservoir reopens for recreational use

Anglers and water skiers can return to Cooney Reservoir following an emergency closure. Aerial firefighters had been scooping water from the reservoir to drop on the Robertson Draw fire near Red Lodge. The fire is now 45 percent contained, and firefighters are using the Buffalo Bill Reservoir in Wyoming as the primary water source to treat the fire.

Cooney Reservoir is open until further notice. Cooney State Park is open to camping and day use. Campfires are still banned at all Fish, Wildlife & Parks properties in Carbon, Yellowstone and Stillwater counties starting this week because of fire danger.
