Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted by Mel Rice: Public Relations Officer

On Saturday July 10, 4 members of the Beaverhead Search and Rescue participated in a multi-agency simulated rescue mission. The four members participating in this training experience were Nathan Freeman, Lawrence Morrisroe, Tara Remely, and Mark Smith.

The training exercise was sponsored by the Madison Valley SAR and included B-D National Forest Service personnel, Ruby Valley SAR, Beaverhead SAR, Butte 1590 SAR, local game wardens, forest LEOs, Madison County law enforcement, Life Flight helicopter, Civil Air Patrol, and EMS from the Madison Valley and Ruby Valley.

The training scenario was set up from a past incident where three archery hunters in the Gravelly Range were attacked and badly injured by grizzly bears. The extent of their injuries prevented them from walking back to their camp. Other members of the hunting party walked out, called for help at 3:00 AM and the mission was on. The exercise was set up exactly like the original rescue mission; three injured hunters in the same location, party members calling for help, rescue parties going into basically a grizzly bear infested area to rescue injured individuals. Even though this was a simulated rescue, the threat of bears being in the area was a real concern. Each rescue group had an armed game warden with them the entire time. As the rescue parties went in to recover the injured hunters, the game wardens would explain what to be aware of and how to minimize further bear encounters.

When the rescue teams reached the simulated injured hunters, they assessed and treated injuries. After preparing the injured hunters, they were packaged and transported to waiting EMS personnel and a waiting Life Flight helicopter. The personnel on the helicopter were mostly new crew members. Therefore multiple landings, takeoffs, and transfers between ground crews and Life Flight crews were practiced. After all it was a training exercise.

Those participating said the training was a very worthwhile exercise. Not only did the participants get experience and gain knowledge of how to work in bear country, how to assess injuries and package injured patients, but also gained valuable experience in working with multiple agencies and coordinating a rescue effort on a very large scale.

Beaverhead County Search and Rescue would like to thank the Ruby Valley SAR and Madison Valley SAR for sponsoring this large scale training opportunity and coordinating all the different agencies that participated. What a large undertaking. A job well done ladies and gentlemen. Hopefully we will have other opportunities to work together. Thank You!!!!!!

DNA confirms euthanized bear responsible for Ovando attack

DNA results received Wednesday confirmed the bear killed by wildlife officials last Friday was the same bear who fatally attacked a camper in Ovando early on the morning of July 6.

The DNA samples from the bear, saliva sample at the scene of the attack and samples from two chicken coops that were raided in the area all match up.

Montana is bear country and recreationists can be bear aware by following some simple guidelines:

- Carry bear spray and be prepared to use it
- Avoid surprise encounters by traveling in groups, making noise and being aware of surroundings, particularly in areas with limited sight lines and recent bear sign (tracks, scat and turned over rocks and logs)
- Keeping a clean camp by securing attractants, keeping food securely stored
- Find a list of bear-resistant containers on the Interagency Grizzly Bear Committee's website www.IGBCOnline.org

For more information on bear aware guidelines, go online to FWP's Bear Aware webpage.

BE THE CHANGE 406 WANTS YOU TO JOIN OUR COMMUNITY BOARD

Be the Change 406 Coalition is looking for community members who want a stake in protecting our young people from developing health and behavior problems to attend our community board orientation. Orientation will take place July 19th 12pm-4pm and July 20th 8am-12pm at the Bank of Commerce, 2nd floor conference room. More details and registration can be found at bethechange406.org, food will be provided.

The purpose of our orientation is to form our community board and implement the Communities That Care (CTC) framework. CTC uses prevention science to promote healthy youth development, improve youth outcomes, and reduce problem behaviors. Best of all, CTC is proven to work! CTC was tested in a randomized controlled trial in 24 communities across 7 states. Each community was matched in pairs within state and randomly assigned to either receive CTC or serve as control communities. Starting in 5th grade, a panel of students has been followed by our researchers, with positive effects in the CTC group sustained into adulthood. Using this framework, we hope to bring those same positive effects into our community.

The goal of Be the Change 406 is to create a culture of health for youth and families that supports a lifestyle free of substance use and misuse. Our diverse membership includes representatives from every aspect of the community, including a youth coalition, composed of middle and high school students.

SECRETARY OF STATE OFFICE'S LORI HAMM HONORED WITH NATIONAL NOTARY ASSOCIATION AWARD

The Office of the Secretary of State is proud to announce that Lori Hamm, Montana Notary Administrator, has been selected as the National Notary Association 2021 recipient of the March Fong Eu Achievement Award.

The honor is given annually to an individual who "strives to improve standards, professionalism and effectiveness of the Notary Public office in the United States," according to the NNA.

"This is such an incredible and deserving honor for Lori," said Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen. "She is fully committed to promoting the notary profession, she has dedicated her career to improving notary education and training, and her passion for her profession is truly contagious."

Hamm began her career at the Montana Secretary of State's Office 17 years ago and has since become one of the top notary administrators in the country. She has led notary conferences, taught notary training courses and introduced legislation that helped the Montana Secretary of State's office require notary education and journal requirements.

Hamm has also assisted notary officials across the country in implementing and improving their own rules, regulations and resources.

"To paraphrase a very wise man, 'If I have achieved anything, it is because I have stood on the shoulders of giants. 'My mentors, my inspiration, my friends; true giants of the notary world. I am so blessed to be able to walk among them," said Hamm. "I am humbled and grateful to receive the March Fong Eu Award."
