Highway Patrol Trooper Receives Medal of Valor for Wildfire Helicopter Crash Rescue

Montana Highway Patrol (MHP) Trooper Amanda Villa received the Medal of Valor, the agency's highest award, for rushing toward a burning Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation helicopter that had tipped over and helping four of its passengers to safety. MHP Colonel Lavin presided over the ceremony today at the Montana State Capitol. Attorney General Austin Knudsen presented the award.

To qualify for the award, troopers must show an act of heroism and bravery, knowingly expose themselves to obvious life-threatening peril, or react to a situation without regard for personal safety to effect aid or rescue.

"Our troopers put themselves in harm's way every day to serve others, but Trooper Amanda Villa's act of valor stands above and is among the best in the Highway Patrol's long history of service, integrity, and respect," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Without Trooper Villa's quick-thinking and selfless actions that day, the outcome could have been much different."

"What began as routine roadblock turned into a rescue mission in the blink of an eye," Colonel Lavin said. "Thanks to the quick thinking and preparedness of Trooper Villa and the deputy, everyone went home safely. I can't understate my appreciation for their heroic actions."

"In the face of danger, Highway Patrol Trooper Villa went beyond the call of duty to lead these Montanans to safety," Governor Greg Gianforte said. "On behalf of a grateful state, I'd like to thank Trooper Villa and the deputy for their immediate, life-saving action on June 15."

MHP Trooper Amanda Villa receives the Medal of Valor in the Old Supreme Court Chambers inside the Montana State Capitol.

"Highway Patrol Trooper Amanda Villa's actions in response to the helicopter accident on June 15th were an extraordinary example of the exceptional emergency response partnerships that the DNRC is so proud of and grateful for," DNRC Director Amanda Kaster said. "She provided a heroic act of service for which our agency and firefighters are forever thankful."

On Tuesday, June 15th, Trooper Amanda Villa was in Broadwater County to conduct a roadblock for a nearby fire when she witnessed a DNRC helicopter crash near Highway 12 east of Townsend. Trooper Villa and a Broadwater County Sheriff's Deputy immediately responded to render aid to the five passengers on board.

A passenger who had managed to escape informed Villa that four more people remained in the wreckage. Trooper Villa and the deputy rushed to the scene and helped the remaining four passengers to safety. The DNRC personnel were released from the hospital that day after being assessed and cleared by medical professionals.

Villa is currently stationed in Helena, where she was born and raised.

Your Neighbor's Water

Bryce Angell

This time of year, when water's scarce and nerves are frazzled bare,
I hear 'em pray for moisture that's been buildin' up somewhere.
The dictionary claims that moisture is a small amount.
So why not pray a deluge or some inches we can count.
Some years ago, our irrigation ditch went dang near dry.
My father didn't say a word and never questioned why.
So, I walked upstream, discovered that our neighbor dammed the ditch. I'm sure he must have thought he'd pulled it off without a hitch.
He'd placed a board across the check, which backed the water flow.
I guess he didn't care he robbed the farmers down below.
I called the watermaster. He was fair as I could tell. I knew he would remove the board come heaven or come hell.
Well sure enough the watermaster pulled the extra board.
The neighbor was then furious and drew a little "Sword."
The watermaster chuckled. He'd been down that road before.
He said, "You better move or get a bloody nose for sure!"
The neighbor wouldn't have it and he didn't step aside. So, he had to practice swimmin'; lost the "Sword" and all his pride.
But, stealin' water's when you take more water than your share.
I guess he hadn't prayed for rain or didn't even care.
Taking a neighbor's water is like causin' him to bleed.
His crops won't grow if there ain't precious water that they need.
I heard one ticked-off cowboy swearin' 'bout his water plight.
"Whiskey is for drinkin' but our water's why we fight!"
I understand the cowboy's word 'bout whiskey and their fight.
He said, "You steal my water, you're a doggone parasite!"

Fires banned at most FWP properties in several southwest Montana counties

Stage-1 fire restrictions in effect until further notice

Stage-1 fire restrictions are in effect until further notice at most Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks properties in Granite, Deer Lodge, Beaverhead, Silver Bow and Madison counites due to high fire danger.

This follows Stage-1 fire restrictions being implemented by these counties.

Stage-1 restrictions ban campfires except where specifically exempted and allow smoking only in vehicles and areas 3 feet in diameter that are cleared of flammable materials. Exemptions are in place for Lost Creek, Lewis & Clark Caverns and Bannack state parks, where campfires are allowed only within established campfire rings. Campfires are banned at fishing access sites and wildlife management areas in these counties. Gas or propane stoves that can be turned on and off are still allowed.

Fireworks are always prohibited at FWP sites.

Affected access sites in Beaverhead County include: Blacktail Meadows, Corrals, Fishtrap Creek, George Grant Memorial, Glen, Grasshopper, Greenwood Bottoms, Henneberry, High Bridge, Kalista Bridge, Maidenrock, Pipe Organ, Poindexter Slough, Salmon Fly, Sportsman's Park and Tony Schoonen fishing access sites; Clark's Lookout State Park; and Blacktail and Robb-Ledford wildlife management areas.

Affected sites in Silver Bow County include: Maidenrock and Powerhouse fishing access sites; and Fleecer Mountain and Mt. Haggin wildlife management areas.

Affected sites in Madison County include: Alder Bridge, Brownes Bridge, Burnt Tree Hole, Cardwell Bridge, Damselfly, Eight Mile Ford, Ennis, Harrison Lake, Hell's Canyon, Kountz Bridge, Lyons Bridge, McAtee Bridge, Meadow Lake, Raynold's Pass, Ruby Dam, Ruby Island, Silver Springs Bridge, Silver Star, Three Dollar Bridge, Tony Schoonen, Valley Garden, Varney Bridge and Vigilante fishing access sites; and Bear Creek, Robb-Ledford and Wall Creek wildlife management areas.

Fire restrictions are in effect in other counties in Montana. For more information, please visit mtfireinfo.org.

Bear safety event coming up at FWP's Bozeman office

FWP hosts bear awareness event to teach bear safety skills

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff will host a bear safety event at FWP's Bozeman office on Wednesday, July 21, from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The bear trailer and displays will be set up in the south parking lot in front of the office at 1400 S. 19th Ave.

The event offers bear encounter safety talks on the hour, and participants will have the chance to practice using inert bear spray on a remote-controlled charging bear demonstration. The displays include grizzly bear and black bear full body mounts, skulls, tracks, food storage options, bear spray holsters and more.

FWP staff will be available to discuss bear safety practices, bear biology, and how to handle bear encounters. They will provide in-depth training on how to carry and use bear spray. This event is family friendly, and everyone is welcome.

Montana is bear country, and most bear encounters are preventable. Black bears are common in most of Montana, and grizzly bears could be seen anywhere west of Billings. Learn what you can do to prevent interactions with bears and how to handle encounters. Preventing conflict with bears is easier than dealing with a bear.

For more information on bear safety and awareness, visit FWP's page on bears in Montana at go.usa.gov/xFaB6, or visit the Interagency Grizzly Bear Committee's website at igbconline.org.

THE ROTARY CLUB OF DILLON

Jessica Murray, MSU Beaverhead County Extension Agent, will speak to Rotarians and guests at noon Wednesday, July 21, 2021. She will provide information on programs and services that are available through the Extension Service and the Extension Service's community involvement. Visitors are welcome.

Anyone interested in learning more about Rotary should come at noon to be a guest for lunch. The Club meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, 203 East Glendale St. For more information, email John O'Brien at john@highpeaksfcu.com or Tina Giem at tgiem@barretthospital.org.

Construction on the East of Wise River Guardrail Project has begun.

The project will improve safety by adding guardrail to a nearly 8 mile section of Highway 43. The project the begins a few miles east of Wise River, near Jerry Creek Road, and ends near Pump Station Road (close to the Divide Fishing Access Site).

Construction is anticipated to be completed this fall.

The East of Wise River Guardrail Project and the other Highway 43 projects between Wise River and Chief Joseph Pass (see project map below) will be under construction simultaneously.

During construction:

- Work is expected to take place Monday – Friday during daylight hours.
- Pilot cars will direct traffic through the work zone during the day.
- Expect 10-15 minute delays.
- Two lanes of traffic will remain open overnight.
- Speed limits will be reduced.
- A 16 foot width restriction is in place through the project.
- Traffic will be reduced to one lane over the Big Hole River Bridge and controlled with a traffic light for the next several weeks.

For the safety of the public and workers, MDT encourages motorists to plan ahead, allow extra travel time, slow down, and use caution through work zones.

SECRETARY CHRISTI JACOBSEN TREATED TO TOUR OF PHILIPSBURG BUSINESSES

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen continued her tour of Montana businesses this week, visiting the town of Philipsburg on Thursday.

Shirley Beck and her daughter, Heidi, treated Secretary Jacobsen to a tour of The Sweet Palace candy emporium and The Sapphire Gallery. Shirley's vision for Philipsburg began in 1992 and she hasn't stopped working since. She and partner Dale Siegford opened The Sapphire Gallery in 1992, then added The Sweet Palace in 1998.

Secretary Jacobsen then toured Philipsburg Brewing Co., which owners Cathy and Nolan Smith opened in 2012 to provide "quality, hand-crafted beers." Philipsburg Brewing Co. uses "only the finest Montana malt, local mountain spring water and exclusively whole cone hops" in crafting its beer.

Thursday's tour continued at The Ranch at Rock Creek, where general manger Jon Martin discussed the all- inclusive ranch's year-round unique vacation opportunities. Travelers from across the country take advantage of fly fishing, horseback riding, shooting sports and more at the world's first Forbes Travel Guide five-star guest ranch.

The final stop on Thursday's visit was an open-house business roundtable at the Philipsburg Opera House Theatre, which proudly boasts the title of the oldest operating theater in Montana. Built in 1891, the Philipsburg Theatre has hosted many talented performers, and has four productions planned this year.

Secretary Jacobsen was also able to visit with Granite County clerk and recorder/election administrator Sarah Graham, thanking her for her work with Montana's elections.

"It was great to be submersed in the town and culture of Philipsburg," said Secretary Jacobsen.
