Bookstore Celebrates Dillon's History Days

The Bookstore has many fun things planned for the 2nd annual Dillon History Days starting with a Teddy Bear Picnic on Friday, July 23rd. Retired Dillon Librarian, Marie Habener, with help from the Girl Scouts will be hosting the picnic at Jaycee Park starting at 2:00. The first Teddy Bear was created in the early 1900's and was named for President Theodore Roosevelt. There will be stories and light teddy bear themed refreshments.

The Summer Art Walk will begin at 5:00 on Friday evening featuring artists, Nancy Glover and Beatrice Penn. Both artists hail from Dillon. Glover grew up in western Montana and after receiving a BA degree from the university at Missoula, she moved to the west coast. She attended California College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland before moving to New York City, where in 1991 she received an MFA in painting from Hunter College. Shas has been awarded residencies at Montana Artist Refuge, Virginia Center for the Creative Arts, and McDowell Art Colony and has been in numerous exhibitions. Nancy taught Botanical Illustration at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn before moving back to her home state, Montana, in late 2019. Currently she lives and works in Dillon. Beatrice Penn is a recent graduate of Beaverhead County High School and will be attending University of Montana- Western in the fall. She is a multi-talented artist that explores many venues of her craft. Amelie Copple and Savanna Freitas will also have art on display and available for sale during the art walk.

Author's Brian D'Ambrosio (Helena) and Dillon author Steve Morehouse will be featured at the Bookstore on Saturday, July 24th starting at 11:00. Brian will be signing copies of his books, Montana Murders, Warrior in the Ring, Montana Entertainers and Shot in Montana. Steve will be signing copies of his book, Images of America - Beaverhead County. He will also be doing a Lewis and Clark living history presentation throughout the day. Steve is a Lewis and Clark scholar and is world renowned for his historic portrayal you won't want to miss this event.

It is going to be a great weekend. If you have any questions please call 683-6807.

Missouri Headwaters State Park hosts events remembering the Lewis and Clark Expedition

Two events commemorating the Corps of Discovery

Missouri Headwaters State Park will host two events remembering the Lewis and Clark Expedition and its time near the headwaters. Both events will feature guest-speaker Larry Epstein.

The first event will be part of the park's Summer Speaker Series and will be held in the park campground at 7 p.m. on Saturday, July 24. Epstein, a Lewis and Clark historian, will talk about their preparation for the trip out to the west coast and the struggles they faced on their journey.

As part of its Summer Speaker Series, the park will host a different speaker every Saturday until Aug. 14, with various topics connected to the main theme of this year's Summer Speaker Series: the significance of public lands. Attendees should bring their own lawn chairs. A marshmallow roast follows each program, weather permitting.

The second event is the park's annual Brown Bag Breakfast on Sunday, July 25. A Dutch-oven breakfast will be served at 8:30 a.m. in the park's picnic grounds, and the program, "Remembering Sacagawea and the Lewis and Clark Expedition," will begin at 9 a.m.

This program, also led by Epstein, will include readings from the journals of members of the expedition, focusing on their arrival at the headwaters of the Missouri River on July 27, 1805. Members' journals described the beauty and bountiful resources that they enjoyed while at this special place. Epstein's presentation will dive into how things were different, or not so different, when Sacagawea and the Lewis and Clark Expedition made their way to the west coast and back.

Missouri Headwaters State Park is about 5 miles north of Three Forks on Trident Road. For more information about the park, please visit fwp.mt.gov/stateparks/missouri-headwaters or call 406-285-3610.

About the Speaker

Larry Epstein, a retired county attorney from Glacier, is a lifelong Corps of Discovery enthusiast. This lifelong interest led him to the presidency of the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation in 2005. As a member of the Portage Route Chapter of the Heritage Foundation, Larry most recently collaborated with the Blackfeet Nation's Tribal Historic Preservation Office and Blackfeet Elder Don Fish to visit the area widely believed to be the

Missouri Headwaters Summer Speaker Series: Common owls and raptors of Montana

A biology presentation from UMW Emeritus Professor Jack Kirkley

Missouri Headwaters State Park will host a free presentation on Saturday, July 31, featuring the University of Montana-Western Emeritus Professor Jack Kirkley.

The presentation will begin at 7 p.m. in the park campground. Bring your own lawn chair. A marshmallow roast follows each program, weather permitting.

Kirkley will talk about common owls and raptors of Montana and some of the research he has conducted. He brings years of experience and knowledge about birds of prey to the park in this talk. Kirkley will cover topics such as types of hawks and owls found near the headwaters and throughout Montana, habitat that different raptors like to live and hunt in, and why owls and raptors are important in the area.

The park will host a different speaker every Saturday until Aug. 14, with various topics connected to the main theme of this year's Summer Speaker Series: the significance of public lands.

Missouri Headwaters State Park is about 5 miles north of Three Forks on Trident Road. For more information about the park, please visit fwp.mt.gov/stateparks/missouri-headwaters or call 406-285-3610.

About the Speaker

Emeritus Professor Jack Kirkley earned his bachelor's degree at Ohio Wesleyan University in 1975 and his doctorate degree in biology-ecology at Utah State University in 1985. He recently retired in June after having served 36 years as a biology professor at the University of Montana-Western in Dillon. As a scientist, Kirkley is an ornithologist who has specialized in the study of birds of prey, including the ecology northern goshawks in the mountains of southwest Montana, as well as the behavior of migrating Swainson's hawks in the Neotropics.

The Plainsmen is a western-swing and country trio composed of Sam, Lilly Platts and J Kane. The group is inspired by traditional country music and western swing, playing originals and covers of their favorites. While the group is dedicated to the tradition of country and western swing music, we aren't a throwback group. We're young, modern people who have chosen this genre of music because we love it, and because people love to listen to it. This is music you can dance to, sit and listen to, and enjoy!
