BLACKTAIL DENTAL TO OPEN SOON
Blacktail Dental, a new dental practice owned and operated by the Southwest Montana Community Health Center, is slated to open in mid-September at 122 E. Glendale St.

"It is our mission to provide access and quality care to the people of Southwest Montana," said Dr. Shawna Yates, executive director for the SWMTCHC. "We have been working diligently to remodel our building and hire staff, including two new dentists, in order to meet the dental needs of the area."

The health center was forced to close its dental services in 2020 due to the Covid pandemic.

The remodeled building was the site of a former law office and is located across the street from the Blacktail Pharmacy at 125 E. Glendale. The clinic plans to remodel that building in the next year in order to relocate its primary medical and behavioral health services there.

"We are making significant investments in the Dillon community in order to meet community needs," Yates added. "We are thrilled to be creating a new home for medical, dental, pharmacy and behavioral health services for everyone who needs us."

The new dental clinic will accept all insurances, including Medicaid, and offers a sliding fee scale to eligible patients.

Maria's Boys

Bryce Angell

Maria's sons were playful. They were five good natured boys.

Each loved to kid the others, ever full of boisterous noise.

One evening, right at dinner time, young Pete dared all his brothers to tell the grossest story, turn the stomachs of the others.

Clarence spouted out about the innards of the cow.

"Maybe we should try to fry up cow brains for our chow."

Pete chimed in. He'd thought about this challenge for a while.

He said, "Chew up raw, cold oysters then swallow with a smile."

He said he'd ate some, just last week, raw oysters in a cup.

And when they hit his stomach, they all jumped and came back up.
Aaron stood there grinning. He was not about to lose. He pulled his boots and said, "Here boys, get a whiff of these old shoes."

Curley touted, "I've got you beat. This pimple on my chin, I gave a squeeze and watched it land right on the cream filled tin."

Morris wasn't flinching. He hadn't lost his appetite.

He grabbed a slice of bread and downed it in a single bite.

You could see his gears were turning. He was scheming up a plan like no one ever heard especially civilized, sane man.

He reached another slice and slowly buttered up the bread.

Then raised the food up to his mouth, at least up to his head.

He stopped and held his bread and butter, so the story goes.

Then used it like a tissue 'cuz he blew it with his nose.

Some say the table emptied out like scared rats jumping ship.

The other brothers all agreed they felt their stomachs flip.

The losers lost their appetite and didn't want to eat. And to this day the brothers claim that challenge ain't been beat.

Brad Reis, Owner

Champions for Children

Each month, the Early Childhood Coalition of Beaverhead County highlights someone who is advocating for children in Beaverhead County. So many wonderful things are being done to serve and help children and this work deserves recognition!

This month, we are recognizing Debbie Sporich for her work with children's literacy in Beaverhead County.

Debbie has been a passionate reader since the age of four, a life-long avocation that eventually became her chosen vocation! Debbie grew up in Augusta MT, a community with only a Bookmobile to offer its residents in place of a library. Since her childhood, it has been important to her that children have access to books.

Debbie has been the owner of The Bookstore for the last 30 years. In that time, Debbie has been an active partner to the Dillon Library and one of the driving forces behind the creation of Friends of the Library in Dillon, the organization sponsoring Dolly Parton's Imagination Library in Beaverhead County.

"I get asked a lot how the owner of a bookstore gets involved with libraries. It is easy; I love books, I love to see people reading and love people having access to information. I love that the library and I work together on projects. Summer Reading is one of my favorite events to promote and sponsor. I don't view the library as a competitor. I see us as being on the same team."

Debbie is a sponsor of many local children's activities including a recent teddy bear picnic for Dillon History Days. She also donates gift certificates to kids through the Adventures in Reading and Art Clubs. Debbie says "Both programs nurture reading and art in kids, giving them opportunities to explore and discover their own passions in these areas."

Together with Southwestern MT News, Debbie posts a video of herself reading some of her favorite kids books every Wednesday called "Debbie Reads". This was her way of reaching kids through reading during the pandemic, the videos have been so popular that she continues posting every week.

Here is a BIG Thank you to Debbie for the work she has done through the years to widen children's access to books.

Thank you to our area Educators!
You are awesome!

NEW BROWN TROUT REGULATIONS

The Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission approved new brown trout regulations for the Big Hole and Beaverhead rivers effective immediately.

The regulations are an effort to help preserve existing brown trout in the two rivers in which populations have declined during recent years.

On the Big Hole River, the new regulations are for catch and release only for brown trout from Dickie Bridge to the mouth of the river near Twin Bridges. The regulations also include a seasonal closure between the Bureau of Land Management Maiden Rock site and Brownes Bridge Fishing Access Site from Nov. 1 until the third Saturday in May.

The new regulations also call for artificial lures and single hooks only from Dickie Bridge to the mouth near Twin Bridges. This would mean no double or treble hooks allowed.

On the Beaverhead River, brown trout would be catch and release only for the entire river with only artificial lures and single hooks. From Clark Canyon Dam to Pipe Organ Bridge, the river would be closed from Nov. 1 until the third Saturday in May.

For more information, look online at fwp.mt.gov/fish.
