REP WELCH ATTENDS PNWER SUMMIT

Rep Tom Welch (MT HD 72) participated in the recent annual Pacific Northwest Economic Regional (PNWER) Summit at Big Sky. This Summit is the leading forum where people in the policy and the business world come together to identify solutions to regional challenges. Regional legislators, business leaders and key decision makers came together over four full days to explore shared challenges in the region, discuss best practices, strengthen regional relationships and develop action plans for addressing these challenges going forward.

Session topics included Re-opening the Border with a Vision to the Future, Technology Solutions to Pandemic Challenges, Connecting to Tomorrow, The Growing Cost of Wildfires, Review of Regional Energy Infrastructure, Innovative Technologies for Energy and Infrastructure, Critical Minerals Driving our World, Pandemic Lessons and Moving Forward, The Future of Freight Mobility, Agriculture and Cross Border Health, Water Infrastructure and Policy, and Pacific Northwest Rail Travel.

Among the 150 attendees were legislators, business leaders and government officials from five Western states – Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, and Alaska-- as well as those from five Western Canadian provinces and territories. Welch was one of just over two dozen Legislators attending from the host State of Montana.

Caverns Friday Summer Speakers Series: 'Spirit Tailings'

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park will host a free talk entitled "Spirit Tailings" on Friday, Aug. 27, at 8 p.m. in the park's campground amphitheater.

This talk will weave a ghostly web through a thought-provoking journey to Montana's most spirited places. Like the tailings left by Montana's early placer miners, the "tailings" presented by speaker Ellen Baumler explore the leftover traces of Montana's haunted heritage. A herd of ghost horses, a restless artist, spirits of Virginia City's vigilante past, a ghostly legacy of Lewis and Clark, and other true tales will leave you looking over your shoulder all the way home.

This is the final presentation in Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park's annual Friday Summer Speakers Series, which has introduced a new speaker each Friday throughout the summer.

About the speaker

Ellen Baumler received a doctorate from the University of Kansas in history, classics and English. From 1992 until her retirement in 2018, she was the Montana Historical Society's interpretive historian in Helena. The author of 13 books and dozens of articles on various Montana topics, Ellen is best known for her well-researched stories about Montana's special haunted places. Her passion for the true supernatural began in her own historic home where she learned firsthand about the eerie intertwining of the past and the present.

Des Jardins Reappointment

Governor Greg Gianforte reappointed Robert Des Jardins to the Developmental Disabilities Council. His term is effective July 21, 2021 and continues through January 5, 2023. He will fulfill the qualification of being a parent/family advocate. Congratulations on your reappointment and service to the council and the positive effect it has the state of Montana.

Fair Books - Rodeo and Concert Tickets

Caverns Campground Amphitheater Program:

Safety in bear and cougar country

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park will present a free talk entitled "Safety in Bear and Cougar Country" on Saturday, Aug. 28, at 8 p.m. in the park's campground amphitheater.

Should I yell? Should I make myself big? Or small? And do those bear bells really work? These are common questions visitors have when hiking in bear and cougar country, says FWP Ranger Ramona Radonich.

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park is home to both bears and cougars. By being prepared and knowing what to do in the event of an encounter, people can be safe and enjoy hiking the 10 miles of trails in the park.

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park is about 15 miles southeast of Whitehall, along Montana Highway 2. For more information about the park, please visit stateparks.mt.gov/lewis-and-clark-caverns or call 406-287-3541.

Veteran's Corner. Update #17

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. .

Some not so good news is the Delta Covid Variant is sweeping through Montana and in Silver Bow County. It is in the spiking stage in this county. Driving the DAV Van, the drivers and their veteran passengers are required to wear masks at all times as well as being vaccinated. These mandates are from the VA and they're designed to bring safety as possible in protecting veteran patients, from getting the Delta Variant Virus.

Our Southwest Montana Veteran's Home is moving closer to being completely finished in 4-6 weeks, I'm told. I did a walk-through with Liaison Ashley Bair, of Cottages #4 & #5 and can see this as being a realistic completion date. I had good information sources in Ashley, Construction Site Superintendent Mike Ascherman and John Kotka.

Construction Updates:

The completed buildings being the Community Center, Maintenance Building, Cottages #1/#2/#3, were turned over to the owners (State of Montana) who turned them over to our Vet Home Operator, "Eduro".

Cottage #4: The Fire Marshall Inspection was delayed until this week. With many of the inspections of Cottages #4 being put on hold until Cottage #5 is ready to be inspected at the same time, the focus is primarily on Cottage #5. The final touches on #4 will continue but not with the urgency as it normally would be at this stage of construction.

Cottage #5: This Cottage is making great progress.

VA CBOC Medical Center:

Every week we're treated to an eye catching step in progress on this building. One of the latest is seeing the Rust Covered Corrugated Metal siding going on above the brow awning. On the inside, the Electricians and Plumbers continue to make good progress.

The exciting thing happening in Butte this week-end, will take place this Friday and Saturday, starting at the "Drunken Miner Saloon". It's called "Butte Days" and is hoped to be an Annual Fundraiser to benefit local Veterans. It's a new event by a new non-profit organization called "All Veteran Count of Butte". This weekend will see a comedy show, a parade, classic car show among other events. The creators of this organization are an Air Force veteran brother and sister team, Thomas Davis/Angie Yount, who own the "Drunken Miner Saloon".

It's that time of year when our Colleges begin classes. There will be many Veterans returning or beginning. Our Veteran Organization members want to help and support them if they need it. We also would like to meet and visit with them over a cup of coffee, if the opportunity presents itself.

Please be careful and consider your County Department's guide-lines.

Until next time.

2021 Season Outlook

Offense

The Bulldogs return seven starters from 2019's squad that averaged 433 yards a game. Redshirt junior quarterback Jon Jund continues to impress, throwing for 2746 yards and 31 scores to lead the Frontier. He ran for 365 yards and eight more scores, earning him second-team all-conference honors.

After finishing last in the Frontier in 2018 with 115 yards per game on the ground. The Bulldogs improved finishing fourth with 144 yards per game. They loss senior running back Kylar Prante who ran for a career-high 669 yards and three scores, he also caught 16 passes for 185 yards. Competition for the top spot in the Bulldogs backfield will be strong in fall camp, redshirt freshman Colten McPhee and University of Nevada transfer Reese Neville handling the bulk of the carries.

The receiving corps is led by Nate Simkins (55 rec. 830 yards 13 TD) who set a school record for touchdowns in a season. Trey Mounts (30 rec. 633 yards 5 TD) and Jamison Hermanson (12 rec. 172 yards 2 TD). Blake Sentman, Elijah Benedick, and Matt

Jorgensen will add depth for the Bulldogs.

Three starters return to the Bulldog offensive line, senior captain Noah Danielson (6-4, 295), Ethan Togchi-tani (6-4, 305), and Hunter Severson (6-1, 295). and Noah Pritchett (6-4, 315) will look to fill the void left by seniors. Jed Heffernan, Jesus Paramo, Chris Barber and Ty Lahue.

Defense - The defense loses only two starters but will have huge shoes to fill as the two-time Frontier Defensive Player of the Year and two-time AP, NAIA, AFCA All-American linebacker Jason Ferris signed an undrafted free agent contract with the NFL's Carolina Panthers in the spring of 2020. Ferris led the league in tackles the past two seasons. The Bulldogs also will miss defensive back Jackson Thompson who had 38 tackles, two tackles for loss, an INT and was 9th in the nation in passes defended per game (1.4).

The Bulldogs defense forced 27 turnovers and returned six for touchdowns. The Bulldogs return nine starters from last seasons team that finished third in the frontier in total defense (375 yards per game), third in points allowed (21.5) and averaged 8.3 passes defended and 2.6 sacks a game.

Look for seniors Joe Caicedo and captain Kyle Schulte to lead not only the Bulldogs but also the Frontier in tackles and tackles for loss. The Bulldogs ball hawking secondary had 19 interceptions and 83 pass breakups in 2019. Kameron Rouser, Dylan Pope had an impressive 2019 campaign. The Bulldogs add transfer Latrell McCutcheon as they look to be threat to opposing offenses in 2021.

The linebackers were the heart of the Bulldog defense a year ago, with four backers leading the defense in tackles and three earning all-conference honors (Ferris, Caicedo 1st-team, Schulte 2nd-team).

The defensive line returns starters Tanner Harrell, Reece Artz and Brandon Aimsback.

Special Teams - The Bulldog specialist had a strong 2019 season. Punter Joseph Lema led the Frontier averaging 41.5 yards per punt (7th in the nation) earning him a first-team all-conference selection.

Returner Trey Mounts earned first-team all-conference honors as both kick and punt returner. He was 9th in the nation in kick returns (26.1 yards per ret.) and 4th in punt returns (12.6 yards per ret.) Jamison Hermanson is also a threat in the return game averaging 22.3 per return. Elijah Benedick averaged 18.3 per return.

The Bulldogs blocked three kicks and returned a blocked punt for a touchdown.

Freshman Jon Mears will handle the Bulldogs placekicking duties in 2021.
