Donald "Don" F. Kennedy

Donald "Don" F. Kennedy (also known as Dad, Pa, Daddy-o, Grandpa, Papa Don, Gramps, Big Bad Don, and Downhill Don) of Dillon, MT, passed away on September 2, 2021, at his home. He was 84. He was a husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He was born in St. Louis, MO on November 26, 1935, one of three children, born to Virginia Margaret and Walter Donald Kennedy. He was a 1953 graduate of Kirkwood High School in Kirkwood, MO. He attended college at Missouri School of Mines in Rolla, MO and graduated with an engineering degree in mining in 1958. He served in the United States Army Reserve. He married Ann C. Kidwell on April 19, 1958. They were married 59 years, just missing their 60th wedding anniversary by four months, after Ann passed away in 2017.

After graduating from college and marrying in 1958, Don and Ann lived in Colorado, Montana, Lima, Peru, South America, back to Colorado, Nevada, Arizona, back to Montana, Georgia, and finally back to his favorite place, Montana. His engineering career brought him to many places around the world. Ann and Don also did extensive travel together during their marriage; traveling was a huge part of their lives (too many places to name). He also had a great love of music. Don really enjoyed the outdoors; he was an avid hiker, camper, skier, golfer, biker, hunter, and fisherman. He continued to do most of these activities almost his entire life. Ann and Don always loved to play board and card games together and with their family. Don played daily cribbage with his best friend, Jon Yeager, up until the week he passed away. Ann and Don were always big volunteers from Scouts to Don playing Henry Plummer for the Bannack reenactment of Plummer's hanging. He really played the part well, with his grey beard and mustache, tall height, and buffalo coat.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Ann, and brother, Walter Duncan Kennedy, and sister, Mary Beth Nardoni. He is survived by his six children: Mary Hoffman (Larry), Ginger Garrison (Robert), Chris Kennedy, Nancy Mehring, Barbara Cervelli (John), and David Kennedy (Alejandra); his eleven grandchildren: Sally, Valerie, Jake, Nicole, Conner, Cooper, Cole, Lauren, DeLacey, Corban, and Lydia; his four great-grandchildren: Ali, Elias, Abbas, and Tristan.

Don had the sharpest memory his entire life; his six kids were confident that he remembered any and all details better than the six of them put together! Don loved to share colorful stories from his life and his many amazing adventures. He remembered every person's name he met. Don was an incredible mentor and positive influence on his children and

RMEF Supports USFWS Gray Wolf Ruling

The Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation strongly agrees with a recent decision by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) that gray wolves will remain off the federal Endangered Species List. The Biden administration filed on August 20, 2021, in favor of the final rule delisting all gray wolves in the Lower 48.

"Nothing has changed here. This is a matter of science. Scientists and biologists under the Biden administration agree with those under the Trump administration as well as the Obama administration before them, that wolves continue to meet delisting criteria and are successfully recovered," said Kyle Weaver, RMEF president and CEO. "As a recovered species, wolves will and should be appropriately managed by state agencies in line with the North American Wildlife Conservation Model through regulated hunting and trapping."

The USFWS reviewed the 2020 delisting rule and concluded it consistent with the ESA and based on the best scientific data available at that time.

Wolf populations are well above state and federal management goals in Idaho, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Wisconsin and Wyoming. They are at historic modern-day levels in both Oregon and Washington. Additionally, active pup-producing packs are on the ground in California and Colorado with confirmed sightings in other states.

With a focus on improving fishing access sites and reviewing the history of efforts on managing recreation on the Madison River, the Madison River Work Group (MRWG) will hold its first meeting in Bozeman on Sept. 8.

MMA Issues Joint Statement Following Announcement of Emergency Rule on Masking in Schools

The Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services (DPHHS) on August 31, 2021, issued a temporary emergency rule on masking in schools.

The Montana Medical Association, Montana Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics, Montana Association of Pediatric Psychiatrists, Montana Nurses Association, Montana Primary Care Association, Montana Hospital Association, and the Association of Montana Public Health Officers released the following statement in opposition to the emergency rule:

The medical and nursing community of Montana stands behind the clear research and science showing the widespread use of masks in schools can effectively reduce COVID-19 transmission as part of a layered public health approach to provide a safe learning environment for Montana's students.

Today's emergency rule undermines an effective, proven public health measure to help keep our kids in school and our emergency rooms open.

We have strong research in support of masking. Masks protect our kids in the classroom and our communities. With cases continuing to climb, masking in schools will serve to limit the burden of serious health outcomes across our state and decrease avoidable COVID-19 disruption of school.

We appreciate the Governor's acknowledgment that the rise in COVID-19 across Montana in recent weeks due to the introduction of the Delta variant calls for urgent action. However, this is a step back in keeping our communities safe and keeping local decision-making in the hands of our local public health officials and school systems.

The message from Montana's medical and nursing community is unified. Masking and vaccination and other evidence-based public health measures are our best tools to slow the current wave of COVID-19 and reduce harm in our local communities.

Blacktail Dental to open soon

Blacktail Dental, a new dental practice owned and operated by the Southwest Montana Community Health Center, is slated to open in mid-September at 122 E. Glendale St."It is our mission to provide access and quality care to the people of Southwest Montana," said Dr. Shawna Yates, executive director for the SWMTCHC. "We have been working diligently to remodel our building and hire staff, including two new dentists, in order to meet the dental needs of the area."The health center was forced to close its dental services in 2020 due to the Covid pandemic. The remodeled building was the site of a former law office and is located across the street from the Blacktail Pharmacy at 125 E. Glendale. The clinic plans to remodel that building in the next year in order to relocate its primary medical and behavioral health services there."We are making significant investments in the Dillon community in order to meet community needs," Yates added. "We are thrilled to be creating a new home for medical, dental, pharmacy and behavioral health services for everyone who needs us."The new dental clinic will accept all insurances, including Medicaid, and offers a sliding fee scale to eligible patients.
