Pheasant Season Early Youth Hunt

In anticipation of the early Pheasant Hunting season for youth 15 and under on September 25th and 26th, the local chapter of Pheasants Forever will be releasing 100 Cock Pheasants on state land West of Interstate 15 a week before the scheduled hunt.

Legally licensed youth must be accompanied by a non-hunting adult.

To access the area of the release, park at the Poindexter Slough access area and follow the trail approximately three quarters of a mile until reaching the Interstate 15 bridge. Cross under the bridge and proceed in a northwest pattern towards a developing shelter belt.

Hunters should be aware of others such as fishermen and hikers who also follow the trail.

Parting with His Saddles

Bryce Angell

I stood next to my aging father, of ninety-seven years.

He looked around the saddle shop. His brown eyes shed some tears.

He said, "Today's a dark one but for you the sun will shine.

For sure I ain't no young one. Seems I'm runnin' out of time."

The saddles held a precious memory of my father's life.

Again, I felt as proud back when he gave me my first knife.

He reached then gave a tug and pulled away a dusty tarp.

He knew the saddle's history, and his mind was razor-sharp.

He pointed to a saddle. Said, "While fighting off at war.

My father bought it for me, back in 1944."

He said, "Although it ain't horse worthy. It doesn't seem quite fair.

"Cuz there otta be a use for this old saddle somewhere."

He pulled another saddle. Said, "Remember my friend Fred?

This was his favorite saddle. Now old Fred is long since dead."

My father stretched then slid the final saddle off the rack.

A Heiser Denver saddle was the finest of the tack.

I don't believe I'd ever seen this saddle in the shop.

He said he'd used it years ago on a bucking saddle bronc.

A Heiser high back saddle right before my very eyes.

My father showed excitement. It was more than just a prize.

And then his voice got louder in an old man's sort of way.

"I'd like it if you'd use it in your saddle shop display!"

So, I gave the saddles life and placed 'em on a pine tree log.

Now my grandkids sit the saddles and it's where they play leapfrog.

We both agreed, I'd put the saddles where the crowd would meet.

'Cuz soon they'll all become a brand-new bar stool saddle seat.

PRESIDIO...and all that brass

In memory of Ruby Harvey, a long time DCA supporter and board member, the Dillon Concert Association is pleased to announce the first in-person concert of the 2021-22 series. Due to an anonymous event donor, this first concert will be free to anyone wishing to attend. Presidio...and all that brass will appear here in Dillon next Thursday, September 16, 2021 at the UM-Western Beier Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Season sponsors are John A. and Elizabeth Garry, Lorraine King, and Gary and Kerstin Lorenzen.

As the face of a bold, new generation in brass entertainment, these five young men combine a brass quintet with piano to present film music. A good dose of wit and humor has become the hallmark of every Presidio Brass performance.

Doors will open at 6:45 for all current Dillon Concert Association members, and for anyone wishing to purchase a season ticket for the 2021-22 series. All other attendees are welcome at 7:15 p.m. Masks are welcome, but not required. If venue protocols change by the concert date, masks will be available at the door.

For further information contact Laurie Hagenbarth at 683-5050.

CITY POLICE REPORT FOR LABOR DAY WEEKEND

We were surprised at both the amount of people who were in town and the relative "quiet" of Montana's biggest weekend. There was a huge crowd, one of the biggest I can remember at Saturdays rodeo and concert. Usually that equates to a lot of arrests and a lot of problems for the officers. I am happy to report that as far as labor day weekends go this was a pretty mellow one. We recorded 123 calls for service with only 16 misdemeanor violations and no felonies.

Thank you so much to everyone who volunteered, participated, and worked over the weekend to make it fun without the added chaos. We appreciate the overwhelming cooperation of the community and visitors, except for the 16 violators. In all actuality most of them were even pleasant to deal with.

At the end of the weekend the officers and staff are extremely tired and fatigued due to the long hours. I am extremely proud of the work they did and the way they handle themselves on a daily basis.

FWP seeking applicants to Region 3 Citizens Advisory Committee

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff in southwest Montana are seeking applicants to the region's Citizens Advisory Committee.

The committee meets several times per year and operates in an advisory capacity to help FWP be responsive and effective resource managers within the constraints of the law. Citizen advisors help identify emerging trends and resolve conflicts, and they act as FWP ambassadors to various interest groups and geographic communities.

FWP employees benefit from having a deeper understanding of public priorities and expectations with help from citizen advisors, who can function as a trusted sounding board for ideas and initiatives. People who volunteer in this capacity benefit from understanding FWP programs, priorities, administrative processes and limitations in a broader context.

FWP is seeking applicants representing a variety of interests from communities across southwest Montana within Region 3. For more information or to apply, call 406-577-7891 or send an email to Morgan.Jacobsen@mt.gov. Applications must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 3.

Secretary Jacobsen Delivers Constitutions To Hamilton High School

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen continues to deliver on her campaign promises.

Secretary Jacobsen visited Hamilton High School on Thursday, delivering more than 100 United States and Montana Constitutions to students. Secretary Jacobsen met with staff and visited the classroom of civics teacher Kiah Nisly for a question-and-answer period with students.

"It was great to meet the staff and students at Hamilton High School," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Seeing our youth engaged in civics was wonderful, and credit goes to Hamilton's staff for educating the students on such a significant topic in our country."

Thursday's trip was the latest commitment to fulfill Secretary Jacobsen's campaign promise to ensure that students receive a United States and Montana Constitution.

"It's important for our youth to understand the history of the Constitution and how it works for them, even to this day," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Getting a Constitution in the hands of students across the state remains a top priority as we educate future voters."

Since taking office, Secretary Jacobsen has mailed more than 3,000 United States and Montana Constitutions, while handing out hundreds more.

Please help us reach our goal by sending your donations to the Beaverhead Community Food Pantry at P.O. Box 1356, Dillon, MT 59725.

Blacktail Dental to open soon

Blacktail Dental, a new dental practice owned and operated by the Southwest Montana Community Health Center, is slated to open in mid-September at 122 E. Glendale St. "It is our mission to provide access and quality care to the people of Southwest Montana," said Dr. Shawna Yates, executive director for the SWMTHC. "We have been working diligently to remodel our building and hire staff, including two new dentists, in order to meet the dental needs of the area." "The health center was forced to close its dental services in 2020 due to the Covid pandemic. The remodeled building was the site of a former law office and is located across the street from the Blacktail Pharmacy at 125 E. Glendale. The clinic plans to remodel that building in the next year in order to relocate its primary medical and behavioral health services there." "We are making significant investments in the Dillon community in order to meet community needs," Yates added. "We are thrilled to be creating a new home for medical, dental, pharmacy and behavioral health services for everyone who needs us." "The new dental clinic will accept all insurances, including Medicaid, and offers a sliding fee scale to eligible patients."
