Jeffrey Scott DuBose

Jeffrey S. DuBose, 60, passed away on September 21, 2021 at his home. He was born August 1st 1961 in Orange County CA the son of George and Faye (Goodman) DuBose.

Jeff's early education began in Garden Grove, CA. He graduated high school in Victorville, CA where he met and married Rebecca Shoemaker. Out of that union created two wonderful children, Adam DuBose and Morgan DuBose Bright.

In 1989, Jeff began a new life with Lori Bennett and Lori's son, Ryan Rees. They added a beautiful daughter Janaye DuBose into the family. In 1992, the family moved to Dillon, and purchased the Mini c-store, gas station and car wash. There is where Jeff found his niche in life: gift of gab. He thoroughly loved meeting new people, talking to people he already knew or didn't know at all, offering his opinion on whatever was the topic, ability to lend a helping hand or just a listening ear. Jeff, had an amazing gift of being able to deeply and sincerely love people.

Jeff enjoyed attending car shows, camping, and riding ATV's to just name a few but the most important part was to doing these things with the people he loved.

His children and grandchildren were his pride and joy. He enjoyed every moment with all of them. The hugs and laughs will never be forgotten. They all know how much their papa loves them.

Jeff is survived by his wife Lori, his children Adam (Dee) Grandson Tanner, Morgan (Gary) Bright grandsons Keegan and Austin, Ryan (Christina) and grandchildren Brylee, Alaina and Ethan, Janaye and grandchildren Spencer and Kaylynn. His mother Faye Dubose and mother in law Ann Bennett. Leaving behind his loving brothers, Dan(Jean), Bob(Landa), Mark(Cheryl) and many nieces and nephews.

Jeff is proceeding in death by his father George DuBose, father in law Bill Bennett, and brother in law (best friend) Rob Bennett.

Memorial service will be held at Barrett's Park at 11:00 Monday September 29th. The family would love for everyone to join the celebration of Jeff's life. The Family asks you to wear something in remembrance of Jeff; Griz, Bobcats, Hot rods.

Dillon Middle School News

September 27 to October 1st, 2021.

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: Today, Monday, a chili dog will be served with potato, fruit and veggie. Tuesday, we will enjoy tator tot casserole served with a dinner roll. Wednesday, we will have BBQ Pork rib sandwiches on a bun and served with trimmings. Thursday, we will enjoy chilli salad on chips and served with trimmings and corn bread. And on Friday, we will have chicken Alfredo served with a biscuit.

Unfortunately, last week, all sports activities were cancelled due to an upsurge in Covid cases. However, we have some results to report from the last two weeks.

In cross country. At the Anaconda meet, for 8th grade boys, Waylon Brown finished 3rd, followed by Asher Burch in 8th, Ben Lund in 11th, Zachary Sandall in 12th and Chris Valach in 17th. For 8th grade girls, Tatum Nagle finished 2nd. For 7th grade boys, Tucker Crowe finished 3rd followed by Iverson Wiggins in 7th, Declan Oswald in 8th, James Seidensticker in 15th and Peter Lenmark in 17th. For 7th grade girls, Aliyah Reiner finished 9th followed by Tearsa Mangels in 11th. Coach Coy wanted it noted that for Tearsa, Declan, Zach, Aidan, and Ben, this was their first competitive race ever. Great job cross country runners. In football, against Butte East, 7th grade won 12-8, and 8th grade won 20-0. Then when 8th grade traveled to Hamilton, they won 20-0. Great job guys.

In volleyball, the first games started out rough. Hosting Butte East, not one team could pull off a win, though the scores were close. Then, traveling to Anaconda, each team pulled off a win. 8th grade had a special circumstance. Usually, in middle school they play best out of 3. This time, however, play was best out of 5. B team won in 3, and A team won in 4. It was some of the most exciting play at the middle school level that has been seen in several years. Great job ladies.

Due to the Covid upsurge, the campaigning for president and vice president was delayed a week. So, this week, hopefuls will campaign all week and give their speeches by video on Friday. Voting will occur after the speeches. Then those who hope to run for a student council representative position will campaign the first week of October. Stay tuned for details.

WHAT IS THERAPY?

"What is therapy" is the theme of area behavioral health therapists as they present a "roadmap" for the public in how to access local mental health services, what to expect during a therapy session, how to choose a therapist, confidentiality, and why someone may reach out to a therapist for counseling. The presentation is free of charge at the Parkview School Cafeteria at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept 29th.

If you've never done therapy before, the concept can seem a little daunting. Are you just sitting in a room with a stranger, telling them your darkest secrets? Well, yes. A stranger who knows to ask specific questions, look for specific patterns of behavior, and teach you more productive ways to manage your life.

"It's like having a deep conversation with a close friend where you only talk about yourself," said Melainya Ryan, a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and owner of Vibrant Lives. Ryan is part of the evening's community panel which also includes: Dayna Thergeson, Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner with the Community Health Center; and private practitioners Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor Tasha Felton (Felton Counseling); and Ke'Lah Savage, Licensed Clinical Social Worker (Peak Mental Health). All four panelists provide either primary care and/or behavioral health services in Beaverhead County.

The presentation is sponsored by the Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council. It is part of their month-long theme in September: "Hope is Alive - Depression is Treatable."
