UMW 10-Minute Play Festival Opens October 7

The University of Montana Western's Theatre students are pleased to announce Montana Western's 19th Annual Ten-Minute Play Festival to be held October 7-11 as part of the Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series. The performances will begin at 7:33 p.m. each night in the Small Auditorium (room 314) in Main Hall on the University of Montana Western campus.

Over twenty students and faculty will perform as cast, crew and directors for the twelve plays presented. This year's theme is "Celebrating Our Diversity" and will feature original plays written by students, professors, and community members. Every night's program is different, since four plays will be presented each night.

At the end of the first four nights' performances, the audience will vote for their two favorite shows, with the winners performing again for the final night of performance. The overall winners will be chosen on the final night by the audience.

The directors all come from the Play Production Class taught on the campus this semester block by adjunct professor Larry Brazill. Tickets are $10 for Adults, $5 for Youth, and Montana Western students are admitted free of charge. The tickets are good for admission to all four nights of the festival. BOC Series season tickets ($35 adults, $25 - Youth) cover the admission for this and five other wonderful shows this year.

For more information about the Annual Ten-Minute Play Festival, please contact Judy Ulrich by calling 683-7422.

Hunting Memories

Bryce Angell

The first snow of the season always brings back memories of hunters eating flapjacks, topped with bacon, eggs and cheese. They chugged down cups of coffee like there was no end in sight. They'd listen to the guide 'bout where to hunt at first daylight. Hunters are peculiar, come from different walks of life.

Some are born with silver spoons. Some just a hunting knife. But one thing was for certain. They all shared the same desire.

A trophy elk to brag about while sitting 'round the fire. Before daylight I'd watch the guide and hunters leave the camp.

I'd cinch the sawbuck saddles, then lead out to cold and damp. I'd usually ride a mile or so then give a little pause.

And wonder would an elk be downed because of what he was. Or would the elk be lucky? Fill the hunter with despair?

Some hunters got buck fever and they shot straight in the air. My father called a bull in only twenty yards away.

But the hunter shot high in a tree. His arrow there to stay. One year a hunter filled his tag with panniers full of meat. A young horse smelled the kill, bucked off and stomped it with his feet. And later on, the same young horse was standing all alone.

Someone mistook him for an elk, although he was a roan. Most hunters that I've known have shown respect for all the game.

The dissidents who didn't, well, I pegged a nasty name. Hunters haven't changed so much since I was young till now.

They always want to shoot a bull but will settle for a cow.

The first snow brings a wave of hunting memories that I've seen.

When I saw the snow this morning, I went back to seventeen.

We also worked with our new traffic sign board that we were able to purchase with donations from Beaverhead DUI Task Force, Beaverhead County Sheriff Department, Beaverhead Ambulance Service, Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan, along with contributions from Beaverhead Fire Dist. # 2 and Dillon Volunteer Fire Department. This sign board will alert motorists of an emergency scene ahead & instruct them on what they need to do, in an effort keep our first responders safe. THANK YOU for your continued support.

September 24th meeting

By: MJ

Cowboys for Trump held an informational meeting on the January 6, 2021 White House break in. Several people that were at the event spoke of their experiences and showed videos of the actual activity as it was happening. NOTE: On November 7, 1983 Susan Rosenberg went into the White House with a bomb in hand to kill Republicans. Susan may still be an administrator of Black Lives Matter doing fundraising. Pres. Clinton pardoned her.

Mr. Couy Griffin, one of speakers is a member of Cowboys for Trump and a County Commissioner in New Mexico. Mr. Griffin is one of citizens that entered the building and had charges filed against him.

Mr. Griffin asked the audience for the elected officials representing Beaverhead County and city governments to raise their hands. Mayor Klakken was only paid official in attendance along with one candidate running for a council seat against Ms. O'Rourke. Happenings in Dillon's council elections.

1): Ms. O'Rourke's husband is running for a council seat representing Ward 4 unchallenged. 2): Ms. O'Rourke's does have an opponent running against her. This gives the voters a choice if they want a husband/wife representing their Ward 4 or not. 3): Would husband/wife council members be considered a monopoly and truly would it be fair representation for all people in the ward?

Mr. Griffin was quite surprised that the sheriff, county commissioners, city council members and other elected officials were not in attendance. The sheriff's position is the chief law enforcement for Beaverhead County and holds the most political position there is, protecting the rights and freedoms of all. Question: Do you communicate with your representatives expressing your concerns and ideas? If they don't hear from you, how can they represent your requirements? It would have been nice to have seen more elected, paid officials at the meeting listening to what the voters were saying. Many minds render a better understanding, better representation and better decisions by the local officials. The more politicians hear from you the better they will govern.

Couy expressed the fact that it made no difference what your political beliefs are, however sharing your politics via sitting at the table working together would make a big difference in the community. Separation brings on injustices. Humans lean towards shutting others' ideas out, because they do not want to deal with a new concepts or someone else's thoughts.

Ms. Theresa Manzella, Montana State Senator, from Bitterroot Valley provided information on the last legislative session. She spoke of following the Constitution that is in place to restrain government control. Ms. Manzella stated that Montana is #4 per capita for voter fraud. Her suggestion was to have a special elect committee to investigate areas that have high level of fraud.

Ms. Manzella spoke of the legislative amendments to 20-7-111 and 20-7-133 of the Montana Code Annotated (MCA). Both of these amendments have to do with the constitution and pledge of allegiance being part of public-school education. One of the amendments; 20-7-111 (2); The trustees of a school district shall ensure that all pupils in grades 3 through 12 receive instruction about the United States constitution and the pledge of allegiance. Do school in Dillon follow this law?

This match program that Town Pump offers is always one of our largest donations which helps us with purchasing groceries and pay operational expenses.

The Food Pantry is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. We run entirely on volunteers.

Please help us reach our goal by sending your donations to the Beaverhead Community Food Pantry at P.O. Box 1356, Dillon, MT 59725.
