Joan Mae McDougal

Joan passed away Peacefully on October 19th at the Legacy. Joan Mae Swartzlow McDougal was born in Columbia, Missouri on April 6, 1930 to Carl Swartzlow and Ruby Johnson Swartzlow. She spent her early childhood in Lassen Volcanic National Park in California, where her father was a park naturalist. At the beginning of World War II, she and her mother moved to Chino and then attended Lawrence College in Appleton, Wisconsin. She later transferred to and graduated from the University of Denver in Colorado.

While Attending the University of Denver and working summers in the library at Mammoth in Yellowstone National Park she met John McDougal of Philipsburg who was working in the park as a firefighter. They married in March 25, 1952 in Omaha, Nebraska where her parents were living. John had graduated from the University of Montana Department of Forestry and they first moved to Townsend, Montana where John worked for the U.S. Forest Service. Continuing his career, they moved to Wisdom, Jackson and Dillon.

During this time they raised three children: Graeme (Beverley) McDougal, Glynis (Ed) McDougal Lovell and Scott (Bonnie) McDougal.

After moving to Dillon, Joan worked as the city librarian and retired after 20 years. She was deeply involved with her church, the Beaverhead County Museum and continued to be involved with the library. She also enjoyed traveling the world, her family and time spent in the out of doors.

She was proceeded in death by her husband. She is survived by her children and their spouses, her grandchildren, Charles (Alecia) McDougal, Mary (Joshua) McDougal Hoffman, John (Danielle) Fetty-Lovell, Sarah (Cory) Lovell, Zachary (Kristine) McDougal, Conrad McDougal, Darcy McDougal and her great grandchildren, Koy and Logan McDougal, Finley Fetty-Lovell, and Hannah and Nolan Bunn.

Donations may be made to the Dillon Public Library or charity of the donors choice. The family would like to thank the Legacy Assisted Living for the wonderful care that was given to Joan during the last years of her life. A memorial Service is being planned for November 30th at 11 am at Brundage Funeral Home.

Respect: Land, Landowners, Wildlife ... Pass it on.
As you prepare for the upcoming big game season, we'd like to remind hunters that we're all stewards of an incredible resource and that ethical hunting ensures we get to keep doing what we love.

Respecting private landowners, and the incredible access that they provide, is more important than ever. The positive relationships and interactions between hunters and landowners pays dividends down the road for all recreationists.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks has developed a new online resource to help you plan your hunt. Please take advantage of this resource when you're afield this fall.

Please remember:

Drought-related fishing closures lifted in some sections of Big Hole River

Fishing closure still in effect in upper Big Hole River

Three sections of the Big Hole River that were closed to fishing due to drought have reopened.

These sections have met the flow criteria for reopening:

- From Tony Schoonen Fishing Access Site upstream to FWP's Maiden Rock Fishing Access Site; this section opened Oct. 18.
- From Dickie Bridge upstream to the North Fork of the Big Hole River; this section opened Oct. 20.
- From the Big Hole River's confluence with the Jefferson River (mouth) upstream to Tony Schoonen Fishing Access Site; this section opened Oct. 21.
- A drought-related fishing closure remains in effect for the section from the North Fork of the Big Hole River upstream to Saginaw Bridge on Skinner Meadows Road.

All drought-related fishing closures will be removed on Nov. 1.

New fishing regulations for the Big Hole River are now in effect after they were passed by the Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission in August. These include:

- Catch and release only for brown trout from the mouth of the river upstream to Dickie Bridge.
- A seasonal fishing closure between the Bureau of Land Management's Maiden Rock site and Brownes Bridge Fishing Access Site from Nov. 1 until the third Saturday in May.
- Artificial lures and single-pointed hooks only from the mouth of the river upstream to Dickie Bridge. No treble or double hooks are allowed. Anglers may remove treble or double hooks.

For more information about fishing regulations or waterbody restrictions and closures, visit fwp.mt.gov/fish.
