Beaverhead County Search and Rescue News

Submitted by: Mel Rice-Public Relations Officer

On the evening of November 3rd, the Beaverhead Search and Rescue was called out to the Calvert Mine area in Bryant Creek, located northwest of Wise River. A husband and wife hunting team from Butte had been hunting along a ridge when they decided to split up and each hunt around on opposite sides of the ridge. They were to meet back at their vehicle. The husband arrived back at the vehicle but his 48 year old wife did not return. After the husband had searched the area and could not find her, he had another hunter in the area drive out to cell service and call 911. The BVHD S&R managers were then paged out at 8:05 pm and general membership received the page at 8:45 PM. By 9:00 PM search teams were deployed to the search area. Lawrence Morrisroe and Deputy Mike Miles remained at the S&R building to manage the search.

Five hasty teams from Dillon and one hasty team from the Big Hole were deployed to the Calvert mine area. They reached the search area around 10:30 PM and visited with the husband to get particulars on the area and where the hunters separated. The managers at this time had called for air support from 2 Bears out of Kalispell but 2 Bears could not respond so Montana Army National Guard was contacted and they had a bird in the air around 2:00 AM. Some searchers started covering the search area by driving roads and trails hoping she had found a road and was walking out. Other searchers started combing the area on foot looking for clues as to her direction of travel. Two team members shouted out her name and she responded. Kolby Malesich and Dusty Crowe heard her but because of the terrain and darkness that night it was very difficult to determine the direction of sound. They figured she was around a mile from their location. At that point the search parties split and started hiking up and down different drainages, still calling out and trying to determine direction of her calling. She had lost her rifle and her binoculars.

At 3:13 AM, Trent Cottom and Sam Peterson located the individual who was very confused, soaked to the bone, and almost delirious. Trent was able to get her calmed down, got dry clothes on her and comforted her. The two S&R members began walking her out of the hole she wandered into. After a short period of time, Evan Helle and Jake Peterson made their way to Trent, Sam and the missing lady to help with the evacuation. At times they had to carry her for she was so exhausted she could hardly pick up her feet and the terrain was very difficult. The Blackhawk helicopter was turned around because medical attention was not required and they would not be able to aid in the evacuation process. The Search and Rescue recovery party finally reached a road where a side by side picked her up and took her to her husband's location at 7:00 AM. After a long anxious night it was a very jubilant and emotional reunion. After much emotion and thankfulness they returned to Butte and the S&R unit returned home.

There is much gratification in accomplishing something that ends with a great result. There is nothing like finding that lost individual who probably would not have made it much longer. Great job to all the members of your Beaverhead Search and Rescue who participated in this event: Lawrence Morrisroe, Trent Cottom M.D. Peterson, Clint Rouse, Cody Schnee, Dan Cahill, Dusty Crowe, Evan Helle, Jake Peterson, Kolby Malesich, Mark Smith, Missy Martin, Parke Scott, and Sam Peterson. There were 168 man hours spent on this search. The Unit would like to give a very special thank you to Yvonne Phillips for an outstanding job as BVHD Sheriff dispatch that night. All communication from the search area to the command center had to be relayed through her. Great job Yvonne and thank you for your patience and assistance... "In the Business of Saving Lives" your Beaverhead Search and Rescue.

Dillon Jaycee Awards

The Dillon Jaycee and Jaycee Auxiliary combined their night and held outstanding awards last Friday night.

They started the evening with a moment of silence to remember Chris Mehring and John Schuyler before presenting this years awards for Outstanding Young Man and Distinguished Service, Outstanding Woman and Outstanding Young Woman.

Judge Candy Hoering is 2021's Outstanding Woman of the Year

This year's Outstanding Woman has been described as loving, forgiving, kind, devoted, passionate, honest, and dedicated. She has put the duty of public service at the top of her list.

For over 30 years now, this woman has devoted her life to bettering Beaverhead County and the people in it. She is passionate about her service and a true leader to those around her. She started her career as clerk to then County Attorney Thomas Scott, and in 2001 became our Justice of the Peace. She has been a staple in the justice system in Beaverhead County.

She takes her position to heart and strives to make an impact. She tries to better people's lives. Whether it is officiating a wedding, bringing justice to victims of crime, or offering someone a second chance to better themselves, this woman has made an impact on this community.

In past years you could also find her helping her local Lutheran Church with their annual Pastie Sales.

She is set to retire at the end of this month and has already been talking to others about how she can volunteer around the community and what she can do to continue helping out, an act that shows that this woman is giving and loves supporting the Dillon community and the people of Beaverhead County.

Candy exemplifies every quality that an Outstanding Woman should.

2021 Outstanding Young Woman is Teryn Decker

I have known this young woman for over 16 years I have never met someone a loyal, caring or strong willed as her. She does everything in life with the utmost pride and commitment. Whether it comes to her job, her family or her volunteer time, she gives everything 110%

She is one of the first faces you see when you walk into Stockman Bank, and it's for a good reason, she always has a smile and a joke to make customers feel like they have known her for years not just meeting her. She makes them feel like they aren't just customers at her job, but friends she would stop and chat with it she ran into them outside the office. She's honest and trustworthy and people respect her opinion when it comes to their banking needs.

She has 3 stepdaughters, but to her there has never been "step" in the name, they are just her daughters. She has helped these young women grow and learn and cares for them very deeply. She has been part of the Senior Party committee for the last 2 years. She loves being involved with this committee and helping her girls have a wonderful last night as high school seniors. She has overseen the price committee for this which she has reached out to many businesses and people in the community to donate items for the kids to win during the evening while at the party.

This young woman has been involved with the Dillon Jaycees and the Dillon Jaycees Auxiliary for 4 years now. In those 4 years she has been Vice President of the JCA's for the last 3 years, been the Programs co-chair for 1 year, and as the Programs chair this past year for the rodeo during Montana's Biggest weekend and will be the Programs chair in 2022. She has also been nominated for several other positions in the Jaycees for the upcoming year, which just shows how great her peers see her and her work for volunteer.

She does everything with pride, and her volunteer work shows that.

Teryn does not volunteer her time and energy for recognition or awards, but to better the community which she lives in and raises her kids in. All of this makes All of this makes her an exceptional and humble example of what it means to be an Outstanding Young Woman. It

We've Changed the Tools

Bryce Angell

One thing I'll never do is tell you how to raise your kid. Lord knows that raising children was the toughest thing I did.

Each parent shares a technique how to raise up their own child. Till their routine's interrupted by a young one screaming wild.

While walking down the candy isle at Merkle's local store, I witnessed one long tantrum from a little boy 'bout four. The young boy bellowed out just like a gut shot buffalo. Then jumped down from the shopping cart right on my left big toe.

I'm sure I cursed out loud which didn't stop the boy a bit. He started kicking on the cart and throwing one big fit.

By now his crying changed to screams, a tantrum at its best. His mother looked at me. Said, "He has put us to the test!"

But then her words surprised me. "We don't want to stifle growth or change his personality. Chastising might ruin both."

I wondered, was she kidding? Were my old ears failing me?

It seems this new age parenting shows cause to disagree. I couldn't help but think about when I was just a boy. My parents would be thinking of the folks I might annoy.

There wouldn't be a tantrum I can tell you that for sure. You daresn't even start one. Wasn't worth a butt so sore.

We knew by four years old to show respect to mom and dad. 'Cuz disrespect had consequence that always turned out bad.

You seldom saw a temper from a disrespectful soul. Was it fear that kept us kids in check? Well, more than likely so.

Have we done our children favors changing all the parent tools? And maybe would it help each child to have a set of rules?
