Gary (Lee) "Taco" Corkish

Gary (Lee) "Taco" Corkish, age 81 of Dillon, passed away peacefully on November 8th, 2021 after his health deteriorated due to dementia.

Lee was born in Missoula to Robert and Ann Corkish. Growing up in Anaconda, he graduated from Anaconda High School and joined the army for 4 years. Forever the entrepreneur, Lee was always seeking new business opportunities. Lee's endeavors included managing hotels, contracting, owning a bar in Butte, and his restaurateur career of owning and managing Taco John's that earned him the lifelong nickname "Taco". A Montanan at heart, Lee loved to hunt, fish, and do wood-work. He embraced the small-town life at his home in Dillon. Knowing the community and people like the back of his hand allowed him to stay independent for as long as he did as his dementia progressed.

He is preceded in death by his parents; sister and brother in-law Carol and Bill Arbuckle, brother and sister in-law Robert and Sharon Corkish, and sister Nancy Goehri.

Lee is survived by his brother-in-law, Don Goehri, his nieces and nephews, and many other people he considered "family" and friends.

A celebration of life will be held November 13th at 3 pm at the Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon. He will be buried at a private ceremony at Mt. Moriah Cemetery in Butte alongside his parents.

Walter James Manual

Walter James Manual left earthly life early Monday morning November 8, 2021 in Dillon Montana surrounded by loved ones. Born February 4, 1953 to Walter Jacob and Lila Mae Manual, Jay was the only boy and the youngest of four children. Being the baby and the only boy allowed him to get away with murder.

He spent his younger years with his friends running wild in the hills and mine country around Melrose, Montana collecting and exploding the blasting caps and dynamite they found. While his father passed away when he was a teenager, his mother Lila remarried the man he considered his dad, Anthony "Tony" Sporich. Once Jay moved to Dillon he never looked back.

After a brief marriage and the birth of his son James Chad, Jay moved to Idaho Falls Idaho where he met and married the love of his life in 1975. Jay and Dena were blessed with the birth of their daughter Stacey Lynne in 1980, but Dena passed tragically after 10 years of marriage in 1985.

After Dena's passing Jay's life fell apart for a time, but he eventually found his way home to Dillon Montana again where he spent many years driving truck for Jack and Joe Champine. He became close enough with the Champine brothers he considered their families his own.

Jay was a man of many talents, mostly self taught, from breaking horses to working cattle, driving truck, to hitching horsehair and working leather into beautiful pieces of tack or accessories like belts, wallets, and purses. He spent his retirement years teaching himself to do upholstery and worked for hours out in his late parents' upholstery shop at the end of Kentucky.

Jay was preceded in death by his father, Walter Jacob, his dad, Tony Sporich, his Mother Lila, his sister Linda Kay Platt, and his beloved wife Dena. He is survived by sisters Susan Robison and Sherrill Hennely, son James Chad and daughter Stacey Kiger (Robbie). Throughout his life he loved all his children and stepchildren but had and especially close bond with his stepdaughter Sandy Messenger and stepson PJ Sizemore. Jay loved and was proud of all his grandchildren and great grandchildren whether he got to know them or not. Family was most important to Jay. Whether you knew him as Walt, Jay, Jim, J.J., Jimmy, or even Jimmerz, he will be dearly missed.

A Celebration of Life will be held Thursday November 11 at 1 pm in Dillon Montana at Brundage Funeral Home.

Still a soldier

Submitted by Skip Bybee Sergeant First Class U.S. Army

I don't get my hair cut "high and tight" anymore, but I am still a soldier.

I don't stand at attention in formation anymore, but I am still a soldier.

I don't polish brass or spit shine boots anymore, but I am still a soldier.

I don't answer "here" at roll call anymore, but I am still a soldier.

I don't get up at 0430 for morning "PT" anymore, but I am still a soldier.

I don't run 4 miles and call cadence anymore, but I am still a soldier.

I don't deploy to far off lands anymore, but I am still a soldier.

I don't hump a rucksack or pack an M-16 anymore, but I am still a soldier.

I still sat "Yes sir" and salute out of habit because I am still a soldier.

I stand straight and walk with pride because I am still a soldier.

I still sound "Taps" at fellow Veterans burials because I am still a soldier.

I'll be laid in my coffin in uniform and metals because I am still a soldier.

Public Service Announcement

The City of Dillon has placed two additional stop signs at the intersection of Southside Blvd and State Street. This intersection is now a four way stop. After several discussions with the City of Dillon Police it was felt that the best way to get traffic to slow down was to establish a four way stop.

If you have any questions please contact Todd Hazelbaker, Director of Operations, at 683-4245.

Christmas Stockings for the Soldiers

It's that time of the year! Time to make someones' day! The American Legion Post 20, Staff Sergeant Cochran of the local Armory and the Auxiliary to Bill Carroll VFW Post 9040 have joined together to provide Christmas stockings for our soldiers. SSG Cochran will be locating correct addresses for those deployed soldiers from our area, to receive the first stockings. Local Veterans in our care facilities have also received stockings. If you would like to donate a stocking, or items to put inside them or money towards the mailings you can drop them off at 3-D at 130 South Montana Street or with SSG Cochran at the Armory or mail checks to the American Legion designated for the Christmas Stockings mailing fund (PO Box 146, Dillon, MT 59725). Suggested items are signed Christmas cards, playing cards, candy - tootsie rolls, nail clippers, pocket size cribbage boards, tuna or chicken in foil packages (easy to eat), rice krispie treats, sewing kits, toothbrushes, tissues, and pencils. Most of these will be shipping to Kuwait and it is HOT there, chocolate might not be the best idea. Homemade items might be best for local use due the shipping delay. We are not allowed to send items with American flags on them overseas; guardian angel pins in red, white and blue will always be allowed. Small items that would let someone think of home or that the sender cares about them are PERFECT! Fort Harrison Veterans always appreciate warm socks, hats and gloves. Any questions please call Joan at 406-683-4261 or SSG Cochran at the armory 406-324-5226 or cell 406-304-1197. THANK YOU for your continued support!

FWP releases Smith River State Park environmental assessment

Public invited to comment through December 15

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is considering potential updates to the 2009 Smith River State Park and River Corridor Recreation Management Plan.

These potential updates are included in a draft environmental assessment (EA), which is available to the public for review and comment. More information on the management plan update, a copy of the EA and a link to submit comments can be found at fwp.mt.gov/stateparks/smith-river/management. Comments will be accepted through Dec. 15.

The process of updating the 2009 Smith River Management Plan began this summer with a focus on four primary management issues:

- management of Camp Baker
- human waste management
- natural and cultural resource impacts
- floater opportunities

Interest in floating the Smith River has increased significantly over time. This is reflected in the number of permit applications, the number of people floating the river and the average size of float groups. The increased use has put pressure on infrastructure as well as the significant natural, cultural and historic resources that FWP is charged with protecting.

A Smith River Planning Advisory Committee (PAC) assisted with the development of the EA and will convene after the conclusion of the public comment period to advise the department on a final decision in early 2022. Rulemaking may be needed to implement some aspects of the new plan; any changes requiring rulemaking would not apply until the 2023 float season.

Virtual public meetings have been scheduled for Dec. 1 and Dec. 7. At the meetings, FWP staff will provide an overview on the potential management changes, answer questions from the public, and outline the process to submit comments on the proposed changes.

To learn more about the planning process, details on the two virtual public meetings and opportunities to get involved, please visit the Smith River Management Plan web page at fwp.mt.gov/stateparks/smith-river/management.
