Arlene operated PBS Home Decorating for several years and stayed busy with countless other activities. She served as secretary and treasurer of the MASSA Speed Skating Club, enjoyed bowling and served as secretary of her league. She and Bob enjoyed motorcycle riding, hunting, golfing and four-wheeling. When not out in the mountains Arlene was busy with the activities of her children, grandchildren and babysitting her grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Arlene is preceded in death by her parents, husband Bob and great-grandson Mitchel Wayne Gray. She is survived by her sons and daughters-in-law, Robert Wayne "Rusty" and Sally Carver, Ken and Zana Carver and daughter and son-in-law, Cynda Lynn and Gary Ritter all of Butte. Grandchildrer include: Sara Gray and Garrett Lambson, Robert and Shelby Carver, Jamie Ritter and Bear Stillwagon, Kody Carver, Bryce Carver and Mitch Gray. Great-grandchildren include: Roman Gray, Mason Gray, Dylan Lambson, Trace Lambson, Madison Carver and Taylor Brown. Also surviving are her sister and brother-in-law, Sharon and Mick O'Brien of Butte as well as numerous nieces and nephews in Butte and throughout the country.

Arlene's family would like to thank the loving care that she received from the Bee Hive staff house number 2 and Senior Solutions nurse Julie.

Cremation has taken place. Memorial services will be conducted Thursday, November 18th at 11 AM in Wayrynen-Richards Funeral Home with Deacon Dan McGrath officiating. A reception will follow in Wayrynen-Richards Community Center and interment will take place later that afternoon at 2 o'clock in Sunset Memorial Park.

Christmas Stockings for the Soldiers

It's that time of the year! Time to make someones' day! The American Legion Post 20, Staff Sergeant Cochran of the local Armory and the Auxiliary to Bill Carroll VFW Post 9040 have joined together to provide Christmas stockings for our soldiers. SSG Cochran will be locating correct addresses for those deployed soldiers from our area, to receive the first stockings. Local Veterans in our care facilities have also received stockings. If you would like to donate a stocking, or items to put inside them or money towards the mailings you can drop them off at 3-D at 130 South Montana Street or with SSG Cochran at the Armory or mail checks to the American Legion designated for the Christmas Stockings mailing fund (PO Box 146, Dillon, MT 59725). Suggested items are signed Christmas cards, playing cards, candy - tootsie rolls, nail clippers, pocket size cribbage boards, tuna or chicken in foil packages (easy to eat), rice krispie treats, sewing kits, toothbrushes, tissues, and pencils. Most of these will be shipping to Kuwait and it is HOT there, chocolate might not be the best idea. Homemade items might be best for local use due the shipping delay. We are not allowed to send items with American flags on them overseas; guardian angel pins in red, white and blue will always be allowed. Small items that would let someone think of home or that the sender cares about them are PERFECT! Fort Harrison Veterans always appreciate warm socks, hats and gloves. Any questions please call Joan at 406-683-4261 or SSG Cochran at the armory 406-324-5226 or cell 406-304-1197. THANK YOU for your continued support!

Montana Premiere of "The Power of the Dog" movie in Dillon

On Saturday, November 20th, Big Sky Cinema in Dillon, MT will be hosting a special screening of the just released movie, "The Power of the Dog" at 12:00 noon. There will be a Q and A opportunity and meet and greet after the movie.

The movie is based on the Thomas Savage novel by the same title. Savage, who grew up in Horse Prairie Valley on the Brenner ranch was the son of Beth Yearian Brenner and Charles Brenner. Like several of Savages novels, "The Power of the Dog" is set on a remote Montana ranch near a fictional small town that closely resembles Armstead.

Alan Weltzien, who has long been a supporter of recognition for Savage's writing in American Literature, has recently authored a book, "Savage Country" and will be on hand for a book signing. Sandy James, nephew of Savage, will also take questions regarding this new Netflix release. James took director and screenplay writer, Jane Campion, and producer Tanya Seghatchian on a tour of the Horse Prairie ranch where Savage was raised. Campion is the only female director to receive a Director of the Year award at the Cannes Film Festival in France and is an Academy Award Winner. Seghatchian produced the first four Harry Potter movies.

"Very coincidentally, my wife, Jeannie, and I were in New Zealand last March and were invited to tour the set where inside shots of the movie were filmed. We met the cast including Benedict Cumberbatch, Kirsten Dunst, Jesse Plemons and Kodi Smit-McPhee" reports James. "It was fascinating. Then, along with Weltzien and his wife, Lynn, we were guests of Netflix at the Telluride Film Festival in Colorado this September for the U.S. premiere. That was an exciting experience."

"The Power of the Dog" is being heralded as a probable Academy Award winner. While the movie will be available on Netflix in December, this is an opportunity to enjoy the movie on the big screen and to visit with Weltzien, who has taught classes on the writing of Thomas Savage at the University of Montana - Western. Weltzien has promoted reprints of two of Savages other books, "The Pass" and Lona Hansen" in an effort to call attention to the literary achievements of Savage, a remarkable Montana author.

Attorney General Knudsen continues efforts to stop robocallers from harassing Montanans

Attorney General Austin Knudsen today urged the federal government to take further and more aggressive action to reduce illegal robocaller access to legitimate phone numbers, restricting their ability to shield their identities and exploit consumers' trust.

Attorney General Knudsen and 50 other attorneys general submitted formal comment in support of the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) proposals to modify rules governing the authorization process for interconnected VoIP providers' direct access to numbering resources to protect those resources, safeguard consumers, and curb illegal robocalling.

"We've made good progress in slowing down scam robocalls, but I will continue to push the federal government to act and protect Montanans from the faceless criminals attempting to steal their identity or hard-earned money through these phone scams," Attorney General Knudsen said.

In an effort supported by Attorney General Knudsen, phone companies are now required to implement STIR/SHAKEN – caller ID authentication technology to combat spoofing by ensuring that telephone calls originate from verified numbers. Because the technology prevents robocallers from spoofing phone numbers, scam robocalls have dropped by 29 percent since June as the phone industry continues to put STIR/SHAKEN into effect.

However, robocallers are now evading caller ID authentication by purchasing access to legitimate phone numbers to conceal their identities. They typically do this by providing false identifying information to, or otherwise shielding their identities from, the companies that have access to legitimate numbers.

Knudsen and the attorneys general from across the nation support the FCC's proposals to implement a more thorough application, review, and monitoring process for phone companies that request direct access to phone numbers and to require these companies to verify their customers' identities to help keep the numbers from being sold, leased, or rented to illegal robocallers. This includes limiting the use of both temporary phone numbers for trial
