Joan Mae Swartzlow McDougal passed away Peacefully on October 19th at the Legacy. She was born in Columbia, Missouri on April 6, 1930 to Carl Swartzlow and Ruby Johnson Swartzlow. She spent her early childhood in Lassen Volcanic National Park in California, where her father was a park naturalist. At the beginning of World War II, she and her mother moved to Chico so that Joan could attend high school and then Joan went to Appleton, Wisconsin to attended Lawrence College. She later transferred to and graduated from the University of Denver in Colorado. While attending the University of Denver and working summers in the library at Mammoth in Yellowstone National Park she met John McDougal of Philipsburg who was working in the park as a firefighter. They married in March 25, 1952 in Omaha, Nebraska where her parents were living. John had graduated from the University of Montana Department of Forestry and they first moved to Townsend, Montana where John worked for the U.S. Forest Service. Continuing his career, they moved to Wisdom, Jackson and Dillon. During this time they raised three children: Graeme (Beverley) McDougal, Glynis (Ed) McDougal Lovell and Scott (Bonnie) McDougal. After moving to Dillon, Joan worked as the city librarian and retired after 20 years. She was deeply involved with her church, the Beaverhead County Museum and continued to be involved with the library. She also enjoyed traveling the world, her family and time spent in the out of doors.

She was proceeded in death by her husband.

Donations may be made to the Dillon Public Library or charity of the donors choice. The family would like to thank the Legacy Assisted Living for the wonderful care that was given to Joan during the last years of her life.

A Goose for Thanksgiving

Bryce Angell

When planning for Thanksgiving, turkey always comes to mind.
A turkey roasted to perfection's what we'd always dined.
But then last fall a friend of mine said, "Try a goose this year."
His name was Tuck and when he talked it wasn't very clear.
So, I loaded up my twelve-gauge and I hopped into my truck.
Tuck and Hap jumped right on in. Now we hoped to have some luck.
We stopped by Merkle's Store to get a Twinkie for our lunch.
I thought we'd be out there awhile. Not sure, but just a hunch.
I introduced my company. "Meet Tuck and Hap today.
Hap is my four-legged friend and Tuck, it's hard to say."
I asked old Mr. Merkle. "Hoping for a gander goose.
Ya don't know of a stray one or a tame one on the loose?"
Old Merkle said, "I've got a twenty pounder in the store.
It's yours for fifteen dollars, not a single penny more."
I looked at Tuck. He shook his head. Said, "What a quandary."
I said, "We're gonna buy the bird. That's easier for me."
At home I told my wife 'bout how we shot the wild bird.
And how the plucking took so long. The story was absurd.
Thanksgiving Day came soon enough.
Our goose was golden brown.
Tuck mumbled words I hoped were grace.
Then we gobbled goose meat down.
"It's sure a funny thing about this goose we ate today."
Those words were spoken by my wife. She had some more to say.
"Inside I found the packaged gravy, heart and gizzard too.
And instructions how to cook the goose.
Looks like your game is through."
I looked at Tuck. He stared straight down.
My neck was in a noose. Old Hap barked twice.
I'm sure he thought, "You're dumber than the goose."

4th-Quarter Run Pushes Bulldogs Past Yotes, 58-54

A strong fourth quarter pushed the Montana Western Bulldogs (4-1) past The College of Idaho Yotes (5-2) in an exciting four-point win, 58-54.

The Bulldogs trailed behind the Yotes for the first three quarters of the game, with the Yotes holding the lead for nearly 26 minutes. A strong rebounding effort and four made 3-point shots edged the Bulldogs ahead of the Yotes with just minutes left in the game. Lilly Gopher came alive in the fourth, making six of her eight points down in the post.

Shainy Mack scored 18 points, accompanied by 4 steals, 2 assists, and 6 rebounds. Lilly Gopher led the Bulldogs with 7 rebounds.

Bulldogs Sweep Weekend in Caldwell

The Montana Western Bulldogs (5-1) swept the weekend in Caldwell with a close game against the Mountaineers of Eastern Oregon (EOU) (2-4), 73-70.

The two teams closely traded points for the first two quarters. The Bulldogs held a six-point lead at the half, but a 20-point third quarter for the Mountaineers left the Bulldogs down 47 to 52 at the end of the third.

Taylor Stricklin, an Eastern Oregon guard, caused trouble for the Bulldogs, especially from the arc. Jenni Weber answered with a handful of crucial shots from arc and Lilly Gopher established herself in the paint. With a one-point lead and 15 seconds left on the clock, the Mountaineers fouled Sydney Sheridan and sent her to the free-throw line. Sheridan dropped both foul shots, giving the Bulldogs a three-point edge. With the Mountaineers back in control of the ball, Stricklin bounced a 3-point attempt off the back iron.

Lilly Gopher had 17 points, seven rebounds, and two assists,
Jenni Weber also tallied 17 points, and added seven rebounds.
Shainy Mack added seven assists to the scoreboard.
Taylor Stricklin had 26 points, shooting eight of 16 from the arc.

Bulldogs Fall Short of 18th-Ranked Yotes

The Montana Western Bulldogs (6-3) fell short of 18th-ranked College of Idaho Yotes (4-2), 77-64.

The Bulldogs held off the Yotes until late in the second half. Montana Western shot well from the arc in the first half—38 percent—but were just 41 percent from the field and zero of five from the foul line. Their performance from the free-throw line improved in the second half to 67 percent but were only four of 14 from the 3-point line. The Yotes capitalized on Bulldog fouls and turnovers to edge ahead in the final minutes of the game.

Max Clark led the Bulldogs with 16 points and eight rebounds. Jamal Stephenson dished out five assists.

Bulldogs Top Multnomah in Domino's Classic

The Montana Western Bulldogs (7-3) finished the weekend in Caldwell with a win against the Lions of Multnomah (4-4), 77-70.

The two teams were closely matched at the half with Montana Western up by two, 35-33. The Bulldogs' offense persisted, however, with only one turnover (of five) in the second half. They shot an impressive 43 percent from the arc in the second and finished the game nine of 27.

The Bulldogs had 14 points from free-throws (14-17); the Lions only had three (3-6).

"I'm really proud of the way our guys kept battling for 40 minutes, especially in the second half--we really started playing our style of basketball and it's very fun to watch," coach Mike Larsen said.

Tanner Haverfield had an impressive game with 15 points, shooting five of eight from the field and five of six from the 3-point line. He also added five rebounds, three assists, and had no turnovers. Max Clark led the Bulldogs with 20 points, six rebounds, and six assists. Jok Jok added six rebounds.

The Bulldogs compete next weekend in Dickinson, N.D. at the Milanovich Classic.

Bulldogs Lose Out to No. 1 Lindsey Wilson

The Montana Western Bulldogs (8-4) struggled to hold first-ranked Lindsey Wilson Blue Raiders (11-0) in the first round of the 2021 NAIA Football Championship Series.

After flight delays and kickoff postponed by a day, the Bulldogs made their first debut in the playoffs since 2002.

Inclement weather and a strong Lindsey Wilson offense made it difficult for the Bulldogs to gain momentum. Despite this, Montana Western managed to put 21 points on the scoreboard, while the Blue Raiders have only allowed opponents an average of 7.5 points per game this season.

The Bulldogs were the first to score with a 34-yard field goal from John Mears in the first drive of the game. The Blue Raiders responded with two touchdowns in the remaining time of the first quarter and another touchdown in the first two minutes of the second.

Montana Western defense held strong in the third quarter, holding the Blue Raiders to zero points. At the end of Lindsey

Wilson's fourth drive of the quarter, Braden Smith blocked the Blue Raiders' punt for a loss of five yards, putting the Bulldogs at the Blue Raiders' seven-yard line. The Bulldogs used two downs to get Nate Simkins a catch in the goal line, helping Simkins break five Montana Western program records.

The Blue Raiders scored in the first four seconds of the fourth quarter, putting them up 41-15. The Bulldogs were unable to match the score on their next drive. Lindsey Wilson scored next on a third-down quarterback-keeper to put them up 48-15. Montana Western was unable to convert on their next drive, but Lindsey Wilson fumbled on the punt return; the fumble was recovered by Montana Western's Kameron Rauser on Lindsey Wilson's 35-yard line. Jund hit Hermanson for a 27-yard play to gain a Bulldog first-down on the Blue Raiders' eight-yard line. Simkins managed to put another touchdown on the board with a pass from Jund with 09:20 left in play. The two teams traded drives for the remainder of the game with no additional scores.

Montana Western had 219 offensive yards on 53 plays; Lindsey Wilson had 539 yards on 88 plays.

This is coach Ryan Nourse's first appearance in the playoffs in his coaching career. His eight wins this season is the most by any coach since 2002.

"It was a great season," coach Nourse said. "The team grew and showed great competitive character. This team has a lot to be proud of; winning eight games, securing a share of the Frontier Conference Championship, and making it to the national playoffs is one great year."

Nate Simkins broke four Montana Western program records in this game: career passes caught (222), single-season passes caught (83), career touchdown receptions (39), and single-season touchdown receptions (16); he previously broke these records in the Nov. 13 game against Rocky. Simkins broke the record for career touchdowns scored with 39 touchdowns (previously held by Sam Rutherford with 38 [2013-2016]).

Jon Jund threw for 130 yards (13-29), threw one touchdown, and rushed for one touchdown. Jamison Hermanson had seven catches for 101 yards. Reese Neville rushed for 37 yards and Colten McPhee rushed for 33. Kameron Rauser had 15 tackles for the Bulldogs, ten of which were solo.
